You are to extend the value against each species of property and set down in a distinct column the amount of the pound rate or tax hereby imposed upon the whole of such property belonging to each person as well as of the taxes of another nature imposed hereby upon such person. Where any tenant at an annual rent shall be willing to pay the pound rate assessed on his landlord for the land held by such tenant it shall be lawful for him or her to do so and the collectors receipt for the same shall entitle him or her to a deduction for the amount thereof out of the rent and where the landlord shall reside out of this Commonwealth or have no visible estate thereon to levy the pound rate for the value of his land in such case the said pound rate shall be paid by or levied upon the tenant or tenants on said land not exceeding the annual amounts of the rents and allowed to him or her aforesaid.
