FORWARD

After publishing my first volume of Halifax County cemeteries, I did not have to ask myself "what next?," since I already had sixty pages of overflow toward a second volume. At long last (and I apologize to those who watched my slow progress with disguised impatience>, here is Halifax County Cemeteries, Volume I.

Volume II contains even more cemeteries than the previous volume, but by no means do these books exhaust the county's cemetery holdings. I still have in my files more than twenty cemeteries I had planned to visit but never managed to, plus reports on sixty or so more. Unfortunately, in early June my family moved away from Halifax County after having spent seventeen years--my entire life--there, and next year I will be leaving the South altogether for college. For the time being, then, this is my last publication on Halifax County cemeteries, until I can find time to return to Halifax County in later years, or until I can find someone else already there to continue the task.

Some notes: two criticisms were frequently voiced about Volume I. The first was my lack of a key or legend:

l/o wife of
h/o husband of i/o infant of s/o son of d/o daughter of
W. D. W. Woodmen of the World
WWI, WWII World War I, II
C. S. A. Confederate States of America

Also, the symbol * is used to denote a stone (common today) where the husband and wife are listed side by side, but the stated words ("wife of") are missing. Ninety-eight percent of the time this relationship is true.

The second criticism was my lack of a map of Halifax County in my publication. I agree that my directions ("Off Hwy. 711 near Alton"> need a map with them, but it was not feasible to include one in either book. However, for copies of a county map, write the Division of Motor Vehicles, Halifax, VA, 24558.

Before I close, I must once again thank several people for their help in my completing this book. Scott Crawley, Mildred Weatherford, Mrs. Stover James, Charles Wilkinson, Arthur Wade Jr., Kathy Moorefield, Mr. Robert M. Francis, Elizabeth Seymour, Elmo Smith, and Audrey Crews all helped contribute cemeteries. Mrs. Eleanor Guthrie and Ms. Gail Dunaway surveyed a number of cemeteries in the northern portion of the county, and I am indebted to them. Especially, however, I must thank five people: Mrs. Jane Edmunds, without whose early faith (and transportation> I could never have even started; Mr. Chip Pottage, whose guidance, friendship, and unselfish help have made this work possible; Mrs. Jackie Black, whose support and contributions to this book could almost make her its co-author; and my parents, without whose support (though it was shaky at best at times) I could not have finished. I've probably missed someone here, but if I have, they know I'm thankful for their help also.

Once again, I hope this book is as useful as the first. If you have any questions about entries or their cemeteries, write or call me.

COATES FAMILY CEMETERY Off
Hwy. 811 near Rabat. This cemetery qualifies as one of the, if not the worst
I have visited. The place is almost completely inaccessible, a tangle of
rose bushes, briars, trees,
etc. The house is in ruins. There may very well be other tombstones than were found, and there are at least a dozen unmarked
graves.

TUCK FAMILY CEMETERY

Located about 3/4 lile off
of Hwy. 738 near Virgilina.
Although this cemetery is commonly ascribed to the Tucks and Elliotts, most families in the area,
including the Aliens,
Davenports, Walls, and Raglands, used the cemetery. The cemetery itself is huge, containing (a rough

more than a hundred graves.
Of these, only nine have tombstones. Five more have legible fieldstones. The bracketed information on graves comes from Mr. El•o Smith, a descendant. No attempt has been made to identify the number of unmarked graves in the follo ing enumeration due to.
the extreme size of the cemetery.

UNKNOWN CEMETERY

At first I thought this cemetery, on Hwy. 809 maybe half a mile behind Dan River Bethel Baptist Church, was that church's former cemetery, but that congregation is black, and an enclosure deep in the cemetery houses the Robertson family, known to be white. I think perhaps that this old cemetery might have been used by the old Bowl Spring Baptist Church (defunct & abandoned) and then by DRBBC. There are several hundred graves here, but only in three places are they marked:

CREWS FAMILY CEMETERY
This cemetery, off Hwy. 624
beyond Ellis Creek church, is huge, more than a hundred graves. I believe it is the original Crews
cemetery for Halifax County. Only four graves
are marked:

SALLIE J CREWS
[w/o ISAAC CREWSJ
B. 11 SEPT 1793
D. 11 DEC 1857

DC
ACE
756M
D 1823
[This stone is for David Crews, who died in 1823 in Halifax County (from court records). The car-ving is very clear and says exactly that above--the meaning of the second and third lines
are unknown.]

NATHANIEL B. SAUNDERS
CO. E, 59 VA INF, CSA

WILLIAM R.
CROJS
s/o J. A. & R. E. CREWS
B. 23 MAY 1899
D. 28 APR 1918

A marble footstone marked
S. C. but no tombstone anywhere.

Another cemetery is at the junction of the old Crews

dirt road (which this one is on) and 624. It had about a dozen fieldstones (unmarked) and I could not discover who was buried there.

"SEATON"
Stands on Hwy. 501 at Centerville. The three graves below were moved from their original cemetery, about a half mile south, when the highway was widened. The original Seaton cemetery, which surrounds these, contains no tombstones but is the original O'Conner cemetery. This is the same O'Conner family buried at Halifax Cemetery (see vol. 1).
