Parentage of Thomas PRICE:

- Since Rice PRICE, Sr., paid a tithe on himself and three minor males over the age of 16 (John PRICE, Rice PRICE, Jr. and Thomas PRICE), this is presumptive evidence of parentage that is generally accepted. The customary pattern was for the parent to pay the tithe on sons over the age of 16, but not yet married. Thomas PRICE was in the Tithes of Lunenburg Co. in the household of Rice PRICE, Sr. for the years 1748, 1749, 1750. Thomas PRICE was married in 1752, and was no longer in the household of Rice PRICE, Sr.
- Thomas PRICE named his first son, Rees, after his father, which is indicative of a naming pattern used in many families in the early years.

Though no longer a young man, with wife and children, he enlisted 2 Jul 1861, at Pittsylvania Courthouse, in the Confederate Army and served as a Pvt. in Co. H, 38th Regt. VA Inf. in Civil War. He was detailed a nurse in the hospital at Richmond Apr 1862. He had dark complexion, dark hair, grey eyes and was 5'7" tall. During the War the need for flour and meal became acute and he was released for one year to operate the mill. After the year was over he returned to the service and served until the end of the War. He then returned home to operate the PIGG Mill, later operating McDEARMAN's Mill.

Nathaniel PRICE played the fiddle and when his children were small they were enthusiastic dancers to his playing. He was a wheelright (as listed in the 1850 Census) and in the household of his brother-in-law, James HUTCHERSON. He was called "Jr." in this census to distinguish him from his Uncle Nathaniel.

CHARLES SCOTT PRICE

(son of Nathaniel PRICE & Mary PIGG)

- 12 May 1870 - Charles Scott PRICE born in Pittsylvania Co., Virginia.
- 19 Oct 1893 - Married in Pittsylvania Co., VA to Martha Emma SHORTER¹, daughter of Robert Walker SHORTER & Aneliza GARDNER.
- 31 Dec 1946 - Died in Hampton, Virginia; buried St. John's Church Cemetery.

Dollie HUGHES VICK states:

"Charles Scott PRICE was only twelve years old when his father died and Charles then went to work on a neighboring farm for his room and board. After he married Emma SHORTER they went to Newport News for the Centennial in 1900. He must have applied for a job in the Newport News Shipyard at that time, because he went there to work and by 1901 Emma and their four children went there to live with him. A short time later he became a motorman on the street cars, driving the run from Newport News to Old Point; the family then moved to Hampton to live. Both Charles and Emma are buried in the St. John's Church Cemetery in Hampton, Virginia.

My first recollection of Pappy was standing on the porch with Grandma at their home in Hampton - we were waving to Pappy as he passed by driving the street car on the main line run from Newport News to Old Point. He looked so handsome in his uniform and when he would take off his cap to wave with it I could see his bald head. I never remember him having any hair but he still continued to go to the barber shop every month until he died. Grandma and Pappy lived to celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary. He died in 1946 and she in 1948; both are buried in St. John's Church Cemetery in Hampton, Virginia."
