Foreword

This work is a compilation of information supplied by many members of the Rorrer family and their descendants. The computerization of this work was begun by Dr. Edward Eugene Rorrer and his brother Thomas Wise Rorrer, Jr. in the hope of preserving the information gathered by so many people for the generations to follow. At the risk of leaving out some of the people who were the earliest researchers I will list some of them. We owe them a debt of gratitude for their work.

Perhaps the first one was Theodore Roosevelt (Ted) Rorrer. He traveled to many places gathering information and recording, publishing and distributing it. This work was furthered by Mr. O. E. Pilson of Ridgeway, VA. He compiled family sheets on 126 different Rorrer descendant families. He generously agreed to let us use his work for this project. He also inventoried every cemetery in Patrick County, VA and published a book with the inscriptions on each grave marker. This has proven to be a great source of birth and death dates. Herbert Rorrer also gathered a large number of family sheets on Rorrer families as he traveled the state. He wrote letters and otherwise asked every Rorrer he encountered to give him the information. He is also the chairman of the annual Rorrer reunion which is held each year in Vesta (near Stuart, VA) on the Sunday before labor day. Other information has been supplied by many other descendants. John Rorrer of Charlottesville found information about the John Henry Rorrer, Jr. branch of West Virginia Rorrers and Theman Rorrer also published some information. Don and Alice Rorrer Hopson and David Jones had an almost complete list of the Peter Thomas Rorrer family of West Virginia.

The Michael J. Rorrer family whose descendants spell their name ROER was sent to me by Douglas Ferguson of Fredericksburg, VA. The Abraham Alexander Rorrer family whose descendants spell their name ROAR was sent to me by Mary Castle Roar of Kentucky. There are probably 100 other contributors who I will not attempt to list but we thank them just the same. They made the book a great deal more complete. Most of these contacts were through internet message boards like Genforum. They are invaluable in genealogy research. Other information was gleaned from published Rorrer family genealogies on the internet. We apologize for inaccuracies. We are also interested in any information about your Rorrer family since this a continuing project. With your help we can improve the book. We are also willing to share our information and solicit yours. I have given the source of the information I have, but some is incomplete since I did not start out doing this.

The Rorrer family apparently came to the United States from the area of Berne in Switzerland. The earliest ancestor we can document is John Rohrer who settled in Lebanon, PA (at that time in Lancaster County but now Lebanon County). He and two of his sons, Abram or Abraham and David Alexander, Sr., came to Pittsylvania County, VA and one grandson David Alexander Rorrer, Jr moved to Patrick County around 1850 and is the progenitor of most Rorrer families in Patrick County and around the country. He is the person who changed the spelling of the name to RORRER. The descendants of the other son Abraham, who remained in Pittsylvania County spell their name RORER. Some of their descendants are also included.

We again thank each of you who contributed information and hope you find our work helpful.

Preface

The origin of the ROHRER name.

by Theodore Roosevelt Rorrer and John Alexander Rorer and added to by Thomas W. Rorrer, Jr.

The surname Rohr or Rohrer is of German or Swiss origin and is derived from the word Rohr, which means, literally, reed, cane, tube, pipe, etc. It is suggested that the name was first taken by one of whom the nickname Rohricht, "reed-like" had been applied. Family historians are of the opinion that the word ROHR was used to designate the meadows bordering on the swamplands of Southern Germany and northern Switzerland and thus the inhabitants of that vicinity. It is also stated that the Rohrs were later called Rohre and, still later, ROHRER, indicating a person who lived in the reeds. Certainly, in ancient German and early American records, the name appears in various spellings of Rohrer, Roehrer, Rehrer, Rorrer, Rorer, Roar, Roer, Royer, Reyer, Roher, Rorah, Rohrea, Roherer, Rory, Rayer, Rearer, Roarer, Rohr, Rorr, and Rore. It is found in both Switzerland in the area that borders Germany and in Germany itself. The Rohrer family who came to Lancaster County (now Lebanon), Pennsylvania is believed to have come from Switzerland and they spoke German. A Rorer or Cook family bible, a part of which is found microfiched in the Alderman Library, at the University of Virginia in Charlottesville is written in German. Inscriptions written in the Bible in the early 1800's are in English. This probably indicates that they spoke German on arrival in America and had learned English.

Albert L. Rohrer in a paper published in 1941 states that his search for the origin of the name led him to Switzerland, to the Canton(County) of Berne, and to the Archives of the city of Berne. The Rohrer family is a very old Bernese family. Records there about the Rohrer name go back about 600 years, to the time when family names were first used. The oldest written form is von Ror or von Rore. Ror, or Rohr, properly means a kind or several kinds of plants which grow on the moist or wet soil of marshy ground, known generally as reeds or bullrushes. Cattails, as we call them, the botanical name of which is Typhacea. We are now to deal with the family which once lived along side the place where these plants, ror or rohr, grew.

In the Canton of Berne there are nine different localities known as Rohr. The most important ones to us are in Bollingen, a few miles northeast of the city of Berne, and also the parish of Biglen, about 10 miles due east, because almost all of the Bernese Rohrers originated there. This area is marshy and unsuitable for crops, and an area where the cattails grow. The von Rore name became Rohrer and Rohr in their records around 1500 AD. There are still many Rohrer's who live in this area of Switzerland and about sixty are listed in the 1941 Address Book of the city of Berne.

Not all Rohrers came from Switzerland. Some of them came from Germany and are unrelated to the Swiss. The name originated there in exactly the same manner as in Berne, and likely about the same time. The place of origin appears to have been in the Black Forest of Baden where there are low, narrow valleys, and in one or more of them the cattails grew. There is also a village of Rohr in Baden.

Have you ever wondererd where the name Rohrer or Rorrer or Rorer or Roar or Roer or any other spelling of our name originated? What does it mean? Have you ever wondered which country our ancestors came from? Have you ever wondered who your ancestors were?

I started in 1997 to see if I could find out who my ancestors were, where they came from, why they left their own country to come to America, where they entered the country, and where they settled. I am still gathering information and at the same time I have accumulated a great deal of information. I have several histories written by other researchers and other interested people. I will not attempt here to acknowledge all of these people but I will do so later.

First I will address the name Rohr. It is a word of German origin that means pipe, cane, tube or REED. Some family historians have surmized that the word Rohr was used to designate the meadows bordering on the swamplands of southern Germany and northern Switzerland and thus to name the inhabitants of this region Rohrer's, translated as inhabitants of the region where the REEDS grow. It is also stated that that the Rohrs were later called Rohre and, still later, ROHRER. In America during the centuries that followed their immigration the name has remained Rohrer for some, and Rorer or Rorrer for others, as well as Roar and Roer. In Pennsylvania other variations are present which are Rehrer, Rohre, Rhor, Rore, Rhoer, and perhap others. There are name variations in my family including Rorer. My own family spells their name RORRER.

Where did our family originate. Most researchers have concluded that our branch of the family of Rorrer's originated in the Canton (County) of Berne, Switzerland and spoke German. The Rorrer and Rorer families of Virginia apparently have the same ancestor, a John Rohrer of Lebanon Township, (formerly Lancaster County but now in Lebanon County), Pennsylvania. Some family historians postulate that this family fled persecution by the Catholic majority of Switzerland, to southern Germany or Alsace- Lorraine, since they were members of the Protestant German Reformed Church and therefore challenging the authority of the majority. They apparently stayed in southern Germany(also known as the Palatinate) in a small principality where they worked for the owner/ruler who protected them. This was the time of the Palatine migration of the persecuted protestants to America. Since the economy of Palatine region had eroded due to a long war and a cold winter that froze the grape crops, they faced a bleak future. In addition to this the taxation was extreme and religious persecution continued to be a problem. Senior members of the group remembered that William Penn had visited their region and extended welcome for them to come to his Pennsylvania, in America, the home of freedom for man.

The usual route to freedom was a trip by boat up the Rhine River to the Rotterdam Port in Holland to find a ship to America. This was a 4 to 6 week trip. From there a trip to America took many more weeks and was a very difficult voyage with much sickness, water and food shortages, and a high mortality rate. Some think that they arrived on the Ship Mortonhouse which arrived in Philadelphia in 1728. There are shipboard records of a John Roer arrival. If they were unable to pay for their passage they were either met by family members who paid their fare or they agreed to work for usually 4 years for employers who met the ship and paid their fare. In any event they ended up in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania in a portion that is now Lebanon, Pennsylvania.

John Rohrer, our patriarch, was listed as a shoemaker may have been met at the port by an employer who owned a Leather Factory. In any event John Rohrer went on to become a responsible citizen of Lebanon, PA. He married Anna Barbara Weidman. She was born in 1735 and baptized on June 20, 1736 by Reverend John Jacob Hock at the First Reformed Church in Lancaster County, PA. John and Anna Barbara had 8 children and lived in Lebanon, PA from on or before 1758 to 1789. They were members of the First Tabor Reformed Church of Lebanon from it's founding in 1760 to 1789. John served on the Board of Trustees for many years. This church is still in existence today in the same location. It is known today as the Tabor United Church of Christ.

John first appeared on the tax rolls of Lebanon in 1758. John served as Constable of Lebanon in 1775 and was succeeded by his brother-in-law Rudolph Kelker in 1884-1885. He swore allegiance to the Union on 11/17/1777. He served as overseer of Roads from 1781 to 1785. He was a member of the Lebanon Fire Company in 1784. On April 8, 1789 John Rohrer and Anna Barbara granted to heirs, John Rohrer, Jr and Abraham Doeblen, his son-in-law, his estate in Lebanon, PA (recorded May 4, 1814 in Lebanon, PA deed book A, page 134. A short while later John and Anna Barbara moved from Lebanon to Pittsylvania County, VA with two of their sons, David Alexander, Sr. and Abram (Abraham), Sr. At some time his daughter Polly also moved to Pittsylvania to join them. They came on a wagon train with a group led by Harmon Cook of Pennsylvania, who had purchased a large tract of land in Virginia on which he hoped to build a town. They came down the Valley Road through the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia, to Roanoke and across to Pittsylvania County. John lived there until his death in 1805 at which time he was living with son, Abraham, Sr. Barbara died there also in 1806. Lebanon and much of Pennsylvania were in a recession after the Revolutionary War since the British were no longer buying our Tobacco and other agricultural products. This may have influenced their move to Virginia in 1789.

His son David Alexander Rohrer, Sr. lived in Pittsylvania County, VA, on land purchased from Harmon Cook, until his death. He married Elizabeth (Betsy) Debo (Deboe) on January 21, 1793 after moving to Pittsylvania County, VA. Betsy's father and his family accompanied David and the others on their trip from Pennsylvania to Virginia.

David Sr. and Betsy had four children. All of these remained in Pittsylvania County with the exception of David Jr. John David moved to Patrick County for a two year period but returned to Pittsylvania County, VA.

David Jr. lived for a while in Pittsylvania County and owned land there which he purchased on November 21, 1814. He and his wife Nancy Ann Brown were married in Pittsylvania County on February 21, 1814. They had nine children and apparently decided they needed more land. They sold their Pittsylvania property on January 15, 1827 for $620.00 and shortly after moved to Patrick County, VA. They purchased 100 acres of land in Patrick on October 31, 1836. for $100.00.

David and Nancy are the progenitors of all RORRERS from Patrick County who spell their name RORRER. All of their children apparently married and all but Abram remained in Patrick County. Abram died in Cincinnati, Ohio. David spelled his name Rorer while he lived in Pittsylvania County but it was changed to RORRER after arriving in Patrick County. They had six sons, all of whom had large families, so the Rorrer name is still quite prevalent in this county. They also had three daughters who also had large families. They married a Morrison, a Lawless, and an Atkins. Many of their descendants are also still in Patrick County.

One of David, Jr's. sons, John Henry Rorrer, Sr. also had a large family and for whatever reason some of them began to leave the county. John was married three times and had children by 2 of them. He first married Jane Handy and most of his children were born to her. Their son, John Henry, Jr. moved to Raleigh County, WV and had a large family. There are many Rorrer descendants in this county. Another son, Peter Thomas, moved to Mercer County, WV and also had a large family. Both Peter and John served a stint in the Civil War. Another son, Michael J. moved to Floyd County, Kentucky and his name was changed by a marriage clerk to ROER. Another son, Abraham Alexander ended up in Carter County, Kentucky and his name was changed to ROAR by a marriage clerk. Apparently most of these children were poorly educated or illiterate. This was probably a common problem in Patrick County and other remote Virginia Counties since there were few if any public schools and the people were poor and could not afford to send them to private schools. The family who stayed in Pittsylvania were more affluent and many of their children had some education in private schools. The Civil War records I have examined to not show that Michael or Abraham Alexander served in the Civil War, but their brother Peter's obituary in 1942 states that he joined the war with three of his brothers, John, Abe and Michael. If this is true this would probably show how Abe and Michael got to Kentucky. The rest of John and Jane's children married and stayed in Patrick County.

John Henry's second marriage was to Mary Watson and they had no children. This marriage ended with Mary's death one year after their marriage.

His third marriage was to Sarah Bryant and there were possibly 3 or 4 children born to them. The whereabouts of only one of them has been traced. This was Abner Johnson Rorrer who was known as Jay. He married Mary Frances Howell Fain and they remained in Patrick for a while. They had two daughters who were born in Patrick County. Abner then moved to Pulaski County but ended up in southwest Virginia in a small coal mining camp called at the time Toms Creek, but later was known as Cranes Nest, VA. Their son Thomas Wise Rorrer, Sr. was born there. About 2 years later Mary Frances died and is probably buried in the Bondtown, VA cemetery. A few years later Abner remarried Nannie Powell in Bristol, Tennessee and they lived the remainder of their life in Coeburn, Virginia and are buried in the Bondtown cemetery. Nannie had a daughter, Bessie, by her first husband.

Today there are hundreds of descendants of these Rohrer, Rorer, Roar, Roer, and RORRER families who bear these names and many others who descend from the women of the family who also bear the names of prominent families of their respective communities. We now have doctors, scientists, lawyers, teachers, pharmacists, dentists, factory workers, and almost any other job or profession among the descendants. One of the group, Gerald Baliles, a native of Patrick County who has a female Rorrer ancestor, became Governor of Virginia. We are proud of all of them.

Each of the families that we have information about has its own page in the book and some of their own stories while others only have spouses and children as well as important dates. Most all of these stories have been contributed by members of these families.

Register Report of John Rohrer

Generation 1

1. John Rohrer-1^[1] was born in 1735 in Lebanon, Lancaster Co., PA^[2]. He died on 10 Oct 1805 in Pittsylvania County, VA at Home of son Abram^[3]. He married Anna Barbara Weidman about 1757 in Lancaster County, PA, daughter of Abraham Weidman and Elizabeth Barbara Snevely. She was born in 1735 in Cocalico, Lancaster County, PA^[4]. She died on 26 Sep 1806 in Pittsylvania County, VA at Home of son Abram^[5].

Notes for John Rohrer:

John Rohrer was apparently a Swiss immigrant. The native language was a German dialect common to both Southern Germany and Northern Switzerland. There are many Rohrer families who came to America from the Palatinate. It is an area of Europe that is now called Bavaria, Germany and borders on northern Switzerland and Alsace-Lorraine, France. They came to Pennsylvania and many were named John or Johannes. One family named every son Johannes with a middle name to distinguish them. The spelling of the name varies on the different logs of the ship they arrived on in the Port of Philadelphia. In Lebanon and Lancaster Counties of Pennsylvania, ROHRER is the most common spelling. Many researchers have puzzled over which ship this John came on but I have not been able to definitely identify it. We continue to try.

John was married to Barbara Weidman about 1757. They had at least eight children. John first appeared on the tax rolls of Lebanon Township, PA in 1758. I assume from this that he was probably married just before this time and had just established a home in that year. He remained in Lebanon until 1789 and from the list of his activities he was a solid citizen, a shoemaker, a civil servant and churchman. Records show that he was a trustee of the Tabor First Reformed Church of Lebanon and that most of his children were baptized there according to church records. This church is still in existence and active, but is now known as the Tabor United Church of Christ and is located at 124 S. 10th St in Lebanon. In 1789, John Barbara and two of their sons, David and Abraham or Abram, moved to Pittsylvania County, VA with a land developer named Harmon Cook. They remained in Pittsylvania until their deaths in 1805 and 1806. There are many descendants of these two families and this book is mainly concerned about these people. The rest of their family stayed in Pennsylvania and there are many descendants from this group.

I have listed below a number of facts about them that I have gleaned from the records of other researchers and I have attempted to put them in chronological order, in order that we may follow their movements and activities during their lifetime.

John and Barbara Rohrer were members of the Tabor First Reformed Church of Lebanon, PA from its founding in 1760 to 1789. John also served on the Board of Trustees for many years, beginning in 1760. (First Tabor Reformed Church: History of Pastors and Congregation 1760-1935, prepared by Reverend William J. Hinkle and Rev. William D. Happel, and published by the Consistory on the 175 anniversary of the founding of the congregation, October 27th to November 3, 1935, pages 35-38 and 57).

On October 6, 1760 Reverend John Waldschmidt reported that he preached at Prof. Joseph H. Dubb's Reformed Church at Schwandara, Lancaster County, PA and there baptized John, the son of John Rohrer and Barbara. (Pastoral records of Rev. John Waldschmidt of Lancaster County, PA, Volumes I and II 1752-1786).

John Rohrer first appeared on the Lebanon Township Tax Rolls in 1758.

On February 2, 1762 John Rohrer, Abraham Weidman (John's father-in-law) and others were listed in the deed chain for lot 22a in Lebanon, Pa. (recorded on April 3, 1762 in Deed Book G-331, Lancaster County, PA).

John Rohrer and Abraham Weidman, his father-in-law, were two of four Trustees of the First (Tabor) Reformed Church of Lebanon, PA who represented the German Presbyterian Congregation in a deed for lot No. 136 in Lebanon dated August 1, 1765 (Deed recorded on July 11, 1766 in Lancaster County, PA; History of Pastors and Congregation 1760-1935, page 35-38).

On July 7, 1766 John Rohrer and wife had their son, David, baptized at the First (Tabor) Reformed Church in Lebanon, PA, sponsored by David Deiss and wife (Page 2 Tabor Church Records).

On 3/1/1767 John Rohrer bought 9 1/2 acres of land from John Light, lot 104 on the corner of

from a Harmon Cook (Abram Rorer) bible at the University of Virginia, Alderman Library, in Charlottesville, VA

Barbara Rorer wife of John Rorer above named died September 26, 1806 at 7 o'clock in the morning on Friday and buried on Saturday about 12 o'clock.

Anna Barbara Weidman was born in 1735 and baptized on June 20, 1736 by Reverend John Jacob Hock at the First Reformed Church in Lancaster, Lancaster County, PA. (taken from Church Records, Lancaster County, PA, IV-252). She died on September 26, 1806 in Pittsylvania County, VA. After her marriage she and John lived in Lebanon, PA from 1758 or before until 1789 when they moved to Pittsylvania County, VA.

She and John were members of the Tabor (First) Reformed Church of Lebanon, PA from it's founding in 1760 to 1789. John served on the Board of Trustees for many years, beginning in 1760.

Children of John Rohrer and Anna Barbara Weidman are:

- 2. John Rohrer Jr.-2(John-1)_[3] was born on 01 Oct 1760 in Lebanon, Lancaster County, PA_[6]. He died on 19 Sep 1835 in Middletown, PA_[3]. He married Elizabeth Meyle on 13 Jan 1784. She was born about 1764 in Lebanon, Lancaster County, PA. She died in Middletown, PA.

Notes for John Rohrer Jr.:

On October 6, 1760, Rev. John Wald Schmidt reported that he preached at Mr. Dobb's church at Schwadava and there baptized John, the son of John Rohrer and Barbara. He swore allegiance to the United Staes on November 7, 1777.

John Rohrer, Jr. was an American Revolutionary War soldier and a hero of the battle at Valley Forge. He served as Lieutenant of the 6th company, 1st batallion, of Lancaster County, popularly known as the "Flying Squadron" or Flying Camp under Col. James Cunningham.(Source; Volume 15, p. 630, PA Archives, 2nd series).

A letter from his Grandson, Jeremiah Rohrer, states that "My Grandfather served as Captain under General Washington and was one of the sufferers at Valley Forge, during that terrible winter, nothing to eat, no clothing scarcely and almost barefooted, he obtained a leave of absence for a short time and went home to Lebanon through the snow. His feet were wrapped in rags and the soles of shoes tied on with string and ropes. My grandfather served after one year under General Wayne (Mad Anthony) against the Indians, afterwards he married a Miley of Lebanon where he lived and died at the age of 77

His father and family moved west to Valley. " From pages 35-36 of The Rohrer Families by Wickliffe B. Neal, J.D."

Authors note(TWR): I interpret this to mean that they came to Virginia through the Shenandoah Valley and settled in Pittsylvania County, VA. This story fits the travels of our John Rohrer, born 1735.

At the time of John Rohrer's birth, Lebanon was in Lancaster County. He married Elizabeth Miley (Meilly), also of Lebanon, and their son David Rohrer, was born there April 1, 1800. He married Mary Parthemore and died February 11, 1843, and their children became widely prominent.

"The Pennsylvania Archives", series 3, volume 23, page 533--John Rorer was a Private in the Pennsylvania Militia during the Revolution. In 1833 at the age of 72, while a resident of Lebanon County, PA, he was receiving a pension for his military service.

Children of John Rohrer Jr. and Elizabeth Meyle are:

- iii. Johannes Rohrer, B: 25 Nov 1791 in Lebanon, PA_[6], D: Abt. Nov 1792.

It is presumed that this John died young since there is another John later on.

She died on 28 Apr 1861 in Pittsylvania, Virginia, USA^[7].

Notes for Abram Rohrer Sr.:

Abram (Abraham) Alexander Rohrer, Sr., son of John Rohrer and Anna Barbara Weidman, and grandson of Jacques or Johannes Rohrer and Barbara Kuntz, was probably born in Lancaster County, PA (now Lebanon, PA). He was born on July 9, 1765 and died in Pittsylvania County, VA on June 20, 1830. He was married to Nancy Cook, daughter of the land developer, Harmon Cook on August 11, 1789 shortly after arriving in Pittsylvania County, VA. Nancy was born on January 20, 1770 and died April 28, 1861.

Together they had ten or eleven children. This family dropped the H from their Rohrer name and all their descendants used the name RORER. Two of their children, John and George, moved to Caldwell County, Kentucky and apparently raised families there. Another son, David Rorer, became an attorney and ended up as a prominent judge in Burlington, Iowa, where he was apparently active in politics and helped Iowa to become a state. Most of the rest of their children remained in Pittsylvania County, where they raised their families and some of their offspring continue to live.

The following deed conveys 489 acres of land from Harmon Cook to Abraham Rohrar in 1796. From the Pittsylvania Court House in Chatham, VA in Volume 10 page 451.

Appended to this deed is a note that says that this deed was delivered to William C Rorer 6 March 1856. This was apparently William Cook Rorer, Abraham Rohrer's son.

One obvious advantage this family had, due to the marriage to Nancy who was the daughter of a land developer, was that they were able to afford a better education for at least some of their children. This probably explains how David was able to read the law and become an attorney. Public schools were not available in the area at this time.

Abram Rorer and his wife had issue four sons, Rudolph, Charles, David and Abram, Jr. David studied law and removed to Iowa, where he became a distinguished jurist. Abram, Jr. married Mary Wright and settled near his father in the northwestern part of the county. In his will proven September 17, 1855, he named son Ferdinand Rorer and daughters Angeline James, Elvira Harvey, Aquella Ann Lipscomb and Malitta Miller

Abram, Sr. was a partner and the overseer of much of the Harmon Cook properties.

Another interesting fact about Abram, Sr. was that he was guardian for the children of a friend, Conrad Grein or Crain, who accompanied him from Pennsylvania to Virginia. Some of their descendants still live in Pittsylvania County, VA.

CHAPTER XVI 1800-1860 TOWN OF COMPETITION--WAR OF 1812--PERIOD OF DEVELOPMENT

In the early years of the county, all elections were held at the courthouse. But as the number of inhabitants increased, for the convenience of the people, other points were named as polling places. In 1823 the General Assembly enacted that a separate election be held at Danville for that part of the county between the North Carolina line and Dan River, "that used to be held at the court house." And in 1829 three other points were named in the county in the following act: "When an election is held in Pittsylvania County, at the same time a separate poll shall be opened at the residence of Abram Rorer, in the northwest part of the county; at the store of Wier and Smith at Mount Airy in the northeast, and the home of Benjamin Walker in the southwest parts of the county."

Abram Rorer, Jr. served as a Captain in the Mexican war. Also serving in this war was a John James. Some time later John's son John Craighead James married Abram, Jr's daughter, Angeline. They had a son, Rorer Anderson James, who served in the House of delegates in Virginia and one term as member of the House of Representatives of the United States. He died while serving this office. This family also owns the Danville Register newspaper.

John C. James was apparently the husband of Angeline Rorer James. John also accumulated other properties in Pittsylvania on July 10, 1858 from Robert T. Nance for $300, 120 acres on Cascade Creek.

On August 31, 1861 from George T. Lumpkin for $700, 235 acres on Sugartree Creek.

In 1863 from W. Gaulding for $500, 64 acres on Cascade Creek, joining James's mill tract.

Rorer's Cascade Creek Mill was owned by Abraham Rorer, Jr. The last record was in 1863, Subsequent owners were Absolum Taylor and John Gauldin. The location is unknown.

Abram was listed as a customer in Hugh Weir's store in Pittsylvania County, VA in 1835.

From a Pittsylvania County, VA court proceeding: Book 24 page 255 April 1824

Abram Rorer, Jr. appointed guardian of Conrad Crain and Nancy Crain orphans of Conrad Crain, deceased George xxxx and thereupon the said Abram Rorer, Jr. came into court and with George Rorer his security entered into and acknowledged bond in the penalty of $500.00 conditioned according to law.

John Julius enlisted 29th of August 1861 at Rorrer's Mill in Co. B. Keen's Battallion Virginia Volunteers. Was reorganized into Co E 57th Regiment Virginia Infantry 25 September 1861. This unit would have been the Pigg River Greys. Rorer's Mill was on the old Lewis Island Road (an easy walk from Route 750 today) on Harpens Creek just upstream from the creek's entry into the Pigg River.

Rorer's Harpen Creek Mill

Rudolph Rorer received title to this forty-one acres as a gift. The Rorers were millers and Abraham Sr. and Abraham Jr. both owned sawmills in the county. The elder was a son-in-law of Harmon Cook, who owned at least two mills. Cook built one of these on Tomahawk Creek, and the other he bought from George Jefferson on Turkey Cock Creek. There are few records remaining of Rudolph Rorer's Mill on Harpen Creek. The application to build was filed in 1842, and although he owned the land on which Atkinson's Mill sat earlier, he wished to build another. He started paying taxes on a grist mill on Harpen Creek in 1849 and it is known that he operated this mill for several years. Harpen Creek rises up north of Climax and makes two hairpin curves or bends just upstream of its entry into the Pigg. These bends in the creek lead one to hypothesize on the source of the name " Harpen".

Fortunately, Rorer's Mill made the Inventory of Industry in the Seventh Census of 1850 as a prosperous mill of medium size. It produced $2500 worth of finished grain products annually and employed two "dustys". He had a capital investment of $1500 and a pay per month of $15. There was a sawmill attached, which sawed an impressive 20 thousand board feet of boards valued at $700 annually-- the largest output by any of the eight sawmills enumerated in the Northern District in 1850. In fact, the Rorers in other parts of the county were more inclined to be sawyers than millers. Rorer's Mill appeared on tax lists through the Civil War then disappeared from the records. If it can be assumed that the demise of this mill occurred during the Reconstruction, it was a short lived mill. It's location is a short relatively easy walk from County Route 750, which at that point appears to be part of the old Lewis Island Road-- one of the county's oldest.

This information found on page 196 and 197 of Pittsylvania County Mills. There is a picture of a small remaining wing of the dam on page 197.

From the Arkansas Gazette, May 21;28, 1967

David Rorer was born May 12, 1806 in Pittsylvania County, Virginia. He was well educated and studied law with Nathaniel L. Claiborne (in Martinsville, VA). He was admitted to the Virginia Bar at the age of twenty and elected to Congress from 1825-1837. In the fall of 1826, Rorer moved to Arkansas. He settled on the North side of the river directly across from "the little rock" and began to practice law. He married Martha Daniel Martin on March 29, 1827, who had been widowed in 1826. On February 8, 1832, Rorer opened a ferry about a quarter mile below the old ferry at Little Rock. He began to use a new method of ferrying, 'Brown's patent improvement in the propulsion of ferry boats', which cut down on the time of travel by half. Next he lowered the price of tickets on his ferry by half that of his competition, Robert Crittenden. In no time he cornered the market on travel across the Arkansas River to and from Little Rock. In the Spring of 1838, Rorer moved to the Iowa Territory where he became a well known judge until his death in July 7, 1884.

David Rorer (1806-1884), a Virginian, was a liscensed lawyer when he went to Arkansas in 1826. The following year he married a widow, Martha Daniel Martin, whose father owned a large farm on the north side of the Arkansas River opposite Little Rock. Rorer ran a ferry and obtained contracts for improving the road from Memphis to Little Rock. He and his partners rerouted the road to his ferry, allowing him to drive a competing ferry, run by Robert Crittenden, out of business. His ferry was used by Choctaw removal parties who took the route from Little Rock to Fort Towson, Indian Territory. In 1835 he moved to part of the Michigan Territory that later became part of Iowa and he became a successful attorney and recognized writer of legal tracts.

from the Arkansa Gazette 4/8/1834

Mr. (David) Rorer has just procured a ferry boat propelled by horses to use at his ferry across the Arkansas (River). Great improvement. Facilitates crossings.

David Rorer's ferry was established in 1832, at a point directly opposite the Little Rock (at the foot of Rock Street, Little Rock). It was touted as "Brown's patent improvement in the propulsion of ferry boats," which used buoy boats and pulleys that allowed crossing the river in half the time as old style ferries.

Register Report of John Rohrer

Generation 3 (con't)

In June of 1833, the ferry was destroyed by flood, but in the spring of 1834, Rorer re-established his ferry. The steamboat Arkansas arrived from New Orleans with the new horse ferry in tow on March 31, and the next day Rorer announced that the ferry was again open for business.
end Arkansa Gazette

from the Arkansa Gazette, May 21-28, 1967

The Military Road ended at the ferry of Robert Crittenden, on the north bank of the Arkansas reiver. In 1832, David Rorer opened a ferry directly opposite Little Rock with a tavern and stable as a public house for accomodation of travelers who arrived too late to be ferried across the river (the ferry operated only in daylight).

The tavern was one big room, where all guests, men and women slept. Rorer allegedly had the eccentric habit of going about the room jerking covers from people's faces to see who was in bed.

Rorer was said to have parties that lasted all night, with a fiddler who could play only one tune, "Roaring River."

The place had been occupied as early as 1812 by Edmund Hogan, who had operated a ferry, and later by James and Martha Daniel Martin, the latter of whom Rorer married after Martin's death. Rorer owned 632 acres of land with a large frame house. Big Rock Farm, which had been owned by his father-in-law, Wright Daniel, and which Rorer administrated, was a mile and a half above the ferry.

Colonel Alexander S. Walker lived about two miles from Rorer.

In June of 1833, floods damaged the plantations on the north side of the river and destroyed the Rorer's ferry.

In 1832, when money was appropriated to repair the military road, Governor Pope, a good friend of Rorer's let the contract in segments. The segment nearest Little Rock went to Rorer, Samson Gray, and Samuel M. Rutherford. Instead of repairing the old road, they cut a new one from Crittenden's ferry along the riverbank to Rorer's Ferry and the northeasterly toward Samson Gray's, intersecting the old road near Wiley Beasley's home. This gave Rorer a decided advantage because the traffic from Memphis reached his ferry first, and he offered rates at half what Crittenden had offered.

RORER'S FERRY

In construction it (the ferry boat) differed but little from those now in use on our smaller streams, consisting of a long flat bottomed hull, with two bows. It was the method of propulsion that made it unique. This was accomplished by means of of buoys or buoy boats, as they were called. These buoy boats were about twelve feet long and some four feet wide amidships, the two ends coming to a sharp point. These buoy boats were some fifteen to twenty in number and were staunchly built, and entirely floored over. In the center of each of them was a post, varying in height from three to ten feet, according to the location of the buoys. At the top of each of these posts was a large pulley, through which a large rope, one and one-half inches in diameter, ran. This rope was attached to a large cottonwood tree on the north side of the river, opposite the foot of Main Street and about fifty feet above the ground. The other end of the rope was passed through the pulley on the buoy boats. These boats were distributed along the river at regular intervals, the last one being located about one hundred and fifty feet above the ferry landing on the Little Rock side. The rope passing through the pulleys on the last buoy boat had a slack of about fifty feet. To this part of the large rope a plulley was attached, through which a smaller rope was fastened to each of the upper corners of the ferry boat. At each end of the boat was what was called a leeboard, some fifteen inches wide, and which was raised or depressed as to swing the end of the boat quartering upstream, the buoy boats assuming the same position. The action of the water against the leeboard gave the necessary impetus to the ferry boat to carry her across the river. On coming to within forty or fifty feet of the shore a vigorous pull upon the rope would straighten the course of the boat directly across the river and bring it to the landing. To prevent buoy boats from drifting together a smaller rope was tied to the same cottonwood tree lower down, and attached to the bottom of the posts on the buoy boats. The speed of a ferry boat propelled in the manner I have attempted to describe was very rapid, indeed, almost equal to that of the stream.

According to the records of the Iowa Supreme Court, David Rorer was admitted to the practice of law on November 26, 1838 which was prior to the time Iowa became a state. He was admitted again on January 30, 1848, when Iowa had been a state for 2 years.

He was instrumental in getting Iowa out of the Wisconsin Territory into statehood in 1846. In 1907-1908, the State Law Library had a lengthy article about Judge David Rorer. He was born in Pittsylvania County, VA in 1805. He was of Swiss descent and the parents names were Abraham and Mary Cook Rorer. He studied law under a Mr. Nathaniel H. Claiborne and left Virginia in 1826, spending 10 years in Little Rock, Arkansas before coming to Burlington, Iowa. He built the town of Burlington and was responsible for the nickname of Iowa, the Hawkeye State. He married Martha Martin Daniels and they had 4 children, Daniel who died in 1902, Claiborne who died in 1856, Martha who died in 1893, and Francis Crocker who was living in New York at the time of the writing of this article. After the death of Martha, he married Delia Viele. They apparently had 2 children. I do not recall what the name of one was, but Mary Louise married an Attorney in Burlington by the name of John T. Remey. (excerpted from the Rorer history by Theodore Roosevelt Rorer).

The following story is taken from a Biographical Review of Iowa Citizens starting on page 1008 50 1010

Hon. DAVID RORER

Judge Rorer, deceased, was prominent among pioneers of Des Moines county. He was a son of Abraham and Nancy (Cook) Rorer, and was born in Pittsylvania County, VA, May 12, 1806. His father was of Swiss ancestry, while his mother was of an old Virginia family. They lived on a farm, where our subject spent his early days attending country schools of the neighborhood. When seventeen years of age he went to Franklin county, Virginia, and there studied law with a Mr. Claiborne, a prominent lawyer of that county, living with the family, and teaching school at the same time he was pursuing his course. In 1826, just before he reached his majority, he was admitted to the bar, and at once started west on horseback. He located in Little Rock, Arkansas, where he remained until 1835, when he sold out his practice and came to Burlington in 1836, and built the first brick house in Iowa, laying the first brick himself, on the corner of Fourth and Columbia Streets.

In 1841 he erected the old homestead on the corner of Fourth and Washington Streets, where he resided until death, a period of over 42 years. Judge Rorer wrote the Articles of Incorporation of Burlington in 1836 and was elected one of the trustees of the town. He also wrote the first ordinance, assisted in laying out the streets, named many of them, and in various ways aided in the organization and development of the place. His ability as a lawyer soon became known. His ambition to become one of the leaders of his profession, and he was justly ranked among the eminent jurists of his time. He drew up the charter for the Burlington & Missouri Railroad, and also named it. He became the attorney and afterward counselor of that road, and also of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad, until the time of his death, which was about a quarter of a century.

He was essentially a self-made man, who, by incessant study from his youth up, had become a thorough scholar, and enjoyed a national reputation as an author, having written and published 3 most valuable law books, "Rorer on Judicial Sales", "Rorer on Interstate Law", and "Rorer on Railroads". He also wrote and left in manuscript a number of interesting and valuable historical sketches of the early Northwest, for which he diligently searched the earliest records. An interesting item that deserves to be mentioned here, and which illustrates the interest he felt in his adopted state, is the fact that to him belongs the credit of having first given the residents of Iowa the name of "Hawkeyes". We learn from an article published in the Burlington Hawk-Eye, in November, 1878, that the first mention of the name was in the Fort Madison Patriot, in 1838, a paper published by James G. Edwards, the founder of the Hawk-Eye. At the suggestion of Judge Rorer, Mr. Edwards proposed in his paper that the people of Iowa adopt the name of "Hawkeye". This was done to prevent citizens of other states giving the people of Iowa some more opprobrious title. The name was not adopted at this time, however; but early in 1839 after Mr. Edwards had moved his paper to Burlington, the question was again discussed, and it was decided to write a series of letters to the papers then published in Iowa, in which the people of Iowa were to be called "Hawkeyes". Judge Rorer, James G. Edwards, and H.W Starr were the principal parties to the transactions, and it was voted that Judge Rorer write the letters. These letters were so written by him and bore the signature of "A Wolverine among the Hawkeyes". These letters created much interest, and the name "Hawkeye" was ever after adopted to designate the people of Iowa. Soon after this Mr. Edwards changed the name of his paper to Hawk-Eye, in honor of the people of the State of Iowa. Although Judge Rorer was born in a slave state, yet his feelings revolted at the injustice of slavery, and early in the war he boldly advocated the emancipation of the slaves as the heroic remedy for the nation's relief; and with all the firmness of his decided character, Southerner he was, he knew no middle ground between loyalty and disloyalty. He was bold and fearless in his advocacy of liberty and justice for all and oppression for none. Before the war he had been a Democrat in politics, but after that time he became a warm supporter of the Republican party. He was a member of the Episcopal Church.

In 1827, in Little Rock, Arkansas, Judge Rorer married Mrs. Martin, nee Miss Daniel, a native of Georgia. They had four children: Daniel, who was for many years a prominent lawyer in Worthington, Minnesota; Martha, the wife of William Garrett, of Burlington, both deceased; Claiborne, was killed at the battle of Rivas, in Nicaragua, whither he went with the Walker expedition; and Frances, who is the widow of D.J. Crocker, of Chicago. Mrs. Rorer died in 1838.

March 21, 1839, he was united in marriage with Miss Delia M. Viele, of Scott County, Iowa. She was a native of Pittstown, Rensselaer county, New York, and a daughter of Abram and Hannah (Douglas) Viele, the former being French and the latter of Scotch origin. Three daughters graced this union: Virginia D., who passed away a few years ago; Delia M.; Mary L., now the wife of John T. Remey, of Burlington. Judge Rorer died very suddenly, July 7, 1884, ending a notable career in the history of Iowa. By reason of a strong constitution and temperate habits he had exceeded man's allotted years, three score years and ten, and died with the honors of ripe old age. His devoted and worthy wife survived him four years, her death occurring November 4, 1888.

Housing boom hits Burlington

Bob Hansen

It started out with a simple collection of lean-tos, tents, and rough huts of branches and brush. Next came the rough log cabins and, soon after, "lumber houses," made of sawed boards, were constructed.

Then, perhaps in 1836, Burlington achieved a sense of permanence with the construction of its first brick building. But just who built that first house may be open to question.

Local legend has it that the town's first brick house was built for young David Rorer, one of the town's first lawyers, who was described by a contemporary as "full of himself."

Rorer's house was put together by John Sampson, who held himself out as a brickmaker. Sampson felt that the clay near today's South Fourth and Maple streets would be suitable for brickmaking, so he built a kiln and began searching for this first customer.

Sampson thought he had landed a client when he was engaged to produce bricks for the construction of Old Zion Church, but the building committee was unable to come up with the funds, so Sampson looked elsewhere and found Rorer.

Rorer, who had been a judge in Arkansas, had recently arrived in town to set up a legal practice, and a brick house would fill two of his immediate needs. It would be a reasonably comfortable lodging for the Rorer family and it would also tell the town that here was a lawyer of some import.

Sampson and Rorer got their heads together and, after some serious haggling, a price and a plan were agreed to. The house was to be built on a lot at the southeast corner of today's Columbia and Fourth streets. It appears to have been less than 600 square feet per level and, because the lot fell away sharply toward the river, it would be two stories on the rear and one story where it faced Fourth street.

The relationship between Rorer and Sampson was typical of the relationship between any contractor and client. In short, they fought like cats and dogs. Rorer was constantly carping on the quality of workmanship and costs, while Sampson muttered that he wished the ego-drenched lawyer would keep his nose out of the house-building business.

One example of Rorer's heavy hand during the construction process occurred on the first day that Sampson was at the site. Rorer, with a number of his cronies, arrived at Fourth and Columbia streets to discover the brick mason had completed half of the front wall.

Instead of being pleased with the progress, Rorer was furious. As a small crowd watched, he strode to the wall and, with boot and walking stick, he toppled it to the ground. Then he laid the first brick himself, explaining to the appalled Sampson, "Now, damn it, sir, let me show you how a lawyer can lay a brick."

Perhaps Rorer was lucky that Sampson did not lay the second brick up alongside Rorer's head. But tempers were calmed and the home was finally completed in September of 1836. Rorer and his four children and housemaid moved in that winter and rented part of the house to James Cameron, who was sheriff.

Although it was not known at the time, this small dwelling proved to be the first brick house in Iowa or, as it was then, the Michigan Territory. But in 1862, a dissenting voice was heard when the Burlington Gazette published a letter stating, with some authority, that Rorer's house was not the first brick home in Burlington.

The writer, who signed his letter "The old settler," claimed that in July of 1836, one month before Rorer kicked aside his first brick, Isaac Leffler built Burlington's, and Iowa's, first brick house.

This home reportedly was also built by the very busy John Sampson and stood near his brick kiln. Leffler was prominent in Burlington's early city government, so there may be merit to the story.

Register Report of John Rohrer

Generation 3 (con't)

There is, however, no other evidence of the Leffler home and, if it existed, it was removed a few years later when a street and alley were run through the site. So perhaps Rorer did own the first brick house in Iowa.

There were other claims for Iowa's first brick house that also proved spurious. A brick house was put up in Dubuque and that town claimed it was the first such house in Iowa, but records proved it followed Rorer's house by 12 months.

Iowa's first brick house did not survive long. Rorer found his fortunes improving, so he built a brick and stone mansion at Fourth and Washington streets, but this, in turn, was destroyed and the site was occupied by City Hall.

The original brick house was sold to Fitzhenry Warren, associate editor of The Hawk Eye and a colonel of the First Iowa Cavalry in the Civil War. He tore the house down and built the imposing brick structure that now stands at that corner.

AT REST DELIA M. RORER

Death of Delia M. Rorer, widow of Judge Rorer after long years of gradual but steady decline, this estimable lady, one of the earliest residents of Burlington (Iowa), last Sabbath morning, November 4, 1888, at half past seven o'clock laid down the burdens and suffering of a worthy life. Of a gentle and lovable nature from her youth up she was sincerely esteemed by all who enjoyed the privilege of her acquaintance and her death, although not unexpected, will prove a cause of great sorrow.

The deceased was the daughter of Abram and Hannah Viele and was born to them March 28, 1810 in Pittstown, New York. Her parents removed with her to the then territory of Iowa in 1837 and settled in the vicinity of the present City of Davenport, at that period a part of the western prairie. Here she met her future husband, David Rorer, a young lawyer of Burlington whose abilities subsequently brought him into prominence as one of the ablest jurists the state has known. The future judge helped make the first plat of this city and is known as one of the founders of Burlington. He had the first brick house erected in the territory and he himself laid the first brick of the memorable structure.

The young couple starting thus in the married life with the very foundation of the town and state, naturally watched their gradual growth with increasing interest. To them Burlington was home in every sense of that sweet term and their attachment to the city never waned. They grew up with Burlington and with Iowa and entertained for both an affection similar to that of parents for children. They believed in the future of the commonwealth and the fruition of their faith was amply verified many years before the end of time and things temporal came to either.

Judge Rorer died July 9, 1884 leaving behind him a well earned name as one of the most talented lawyers and authors of legal works in the Western Country. Three daughters, Mrs. John T. Remey, Misses Virginia D. and Delia M. Rorer, mourn with their widowed mother for him and now the mother herself has been taken and the family called upon to submit with resignation their more bereavement to the will of him who knoweth the best.

Mrs. Rorer was a life long consistent member of the Episcopalian Church and was confirmed early in the history of Christ Church of this city.

The funeral will be held at the family residence on North Fifth Street Wednesday at 3 PM when the service will be conducted by the Rev. Johnson, rector of Christ Church.

It is interesting to note that one of the the witnesses to this deed was Bartlett Bennett who married Nancy's sister Polly Brown, making him David's brother-in-law.

On January 15, 1827 David and Nancy sold this 137 acres of land to Henry Towles for $620.00. Both David and Nancy signed their name RORER.

David Alexander Rorrer, Jr. and Nancy Ann Brown Rorrer are the ancestors of the Patrick County Rorrer's(most of whom who spell their name with 4 R's).The name spelling from Rohrer to Rorer to Rorrer began with this David. They moved from Pittsylvania County, VA to Patrick County,VA and settled near Woolwine, VA. He farmed, manufactured hats from Beaver fur, and operated a store.

David Alexander Rorrer, Jr. was born August 1, 1791 and died August 25, 1880, the son of David A. Rorrer, Sr. and Elizabeth (Betsy) Debo. He married Nancy Ann Brown on February 21, 1814. Nancy was born in June 1794 and died October 3, 1871 (77 years and 4 months old). Both are buried in the Rorrer cemetery, located on the Chester McKenzie farm, about 1/4 mile northeast of highway # 8, near the old I. M. Akers Store Building, at Buffalo Ridge. (Pilson Cemetery 381). This farm once belonged to one of David's sons, Thomas, who owned hundreds of acres of land near Buffalo Ridge, VA. David lived on the Little Sycamore Creek at the lower end of the farm. David's grave is marked on a rock with a "D" and Nancy's with an "N". There is now a Tombstone with all their information on it that was erected by the McKenzie family who own the land.

David farmed, operated a store, and manufactured hats from beaver skins. It is said that if you wanted a cheap hat or an expensive hat he had them, the only difference was the price he charged.

In Pittsylvania County David had owned 137 acres of land that he purchased from Martin Dalton on November 21, 1814. This land was located on both sides of Kent Creek and he paid 102 pounds fifteen schillings of Virginia Currency for it. On January 15, 1827 David and Nancy sold this 137 acres of land to Henry Towles for $620.00. Both David and Nancy signed their name RORER.

Shortly afterward David and Nancy moved over into Patrick County (about 1835) and settled on Sycamore Creek near Buffalo Ridge, VA. David's brother John D. Rorrer came to Patrick about the same time but after 2 years he moved back to Brights, Pittsylvania County, VA where he died.

The Rorrer families were large and most of them were members of Sycamore Baptist Church. Ellis McKenzie was quite sure that his great-grandparents, David and Nancy Rorrer, and his grandparents Thomas Dudley and Armina were among the charter members of Sycamore. A son of Thomas Dudley and Mindie Rorrer on October 17, 1850 was born and named Daniel Taylor Rorrer. This naming is hardly a coincidence since Sycamore was organized in 1850 by Daniel Gray Taylor. If he was named for the preacher, it is an indication that the Rorrer family enjoyed a good relationship with the Rev. Daniel Gray Taylor. Even today it is estimated that half of the membership of Sycamore, the Buffalo Ridge Holiness Church, and Fairystone Baptist church are descendants of David and Nancy Rorrer.

David and a friend Bartlett Bennett farmed and raised tobacco before marrying. They hauled their tobacco to Lynchburg, VA for market. Two girls Polly and Nancy Ann Brown were tending the toll bridge which they had to cross to get to Lynchburg. On the way back from one of these trips David and Bartlett found the girls still collecting tolls. A romance ensued and they married, David Rorrer to Nancy and Bartlett Bennett to Polly. Bennett and Polly married on 6/2/1817. Both of these families came to Patrick County at the same time. The 1850 Patrick Co. census lists Bartlett Bennett as being 63 years old and Mary Polly as being 52. Five children are listed, Martha 28, Eliza 23, Alexander 21 (Laborer), James 18, and Thomas 15. David and Nancy had 9 children who are previously listed.

The David Alexander Rorrer, Jr. homestead is now owned by Erma McKenzie. She said her house is on the spot where the original house stood. She said her house is the third house to have been built there. She said the first two houses burned. She and her family had lived in the second of the houses and they built the third home about 30 years ago, a nice brick bungalow.

From an interview by Vivian Hopkins Quesinberry with Erma Mckenzie who was 94 years old in 2002.

The above deeds indicate that he bought 100 acres of land on Little Sycamore Creek after he arrived in Patrick County from Pittsylvania about 1827. David was born in Pittsylvania County, VA along with one brother John D. and sisters Mary Polly and Catherine Ann.

Proof of parentage: Pittsylvania County, VA Deed Book 23, page 343, July 17, 1820 , a deed was made by executors of Harmon Cook's estate to John Rorer (son of David) a parcel containing 500 Acres on Old Woman's Creek and adjoining property of one Collier, James Bennett and James Hopkins. This is the location of David's son John D. Rorer's homeplace and later owned by the latter's sons, Charles Rorer and Armistead Rorer. NOTE:The fact that David's son John was specified was to emphasize that it was not sold to Abraham's son John, or any other John Rorer. So this definitely proves that John D. Rorer was son of David and Betsy Rorer. This John D. Rorer also went to Patrick County, VA with his brother David Alexander Rorer in 1835 says Mr. Frank Johnson in 1967 in Pittsylvania Co., VA, renting his land in Pittsylvania at Brights, Virginia to a Mr. McGehee. After living in Patrick County two years he returned to his home in Pittsylvania.

After the death of David Rorer, b 1766, his wife Betsy Deboe Rorer lived with her son John D. Rorer near Brights in a cottage on his farm. She died there and was buried on the farm.

According to the Family Bible, Frances Custard was born 7/3/1798; d June 9,1880.

127th Regiment of the Pennsylvania Volunteers

On the 7th of July, 1862, William W. Jennings, a citizen of Harrisburg, received authority to recruit a regiment for nine months' service. Seven companies, A, B, C, D, F, G, and H, were recruited in Dauphin county, company E was recruited in Lebanon, I, in Adams and Lebanon, and K, in Lebanon and Schuylkill. The companies rendezvoused at Camp Curtin, when, on the 16th of August, a regimental organization was effected, with the following field officers: William V. Jennings, Colonel; Henry C. Alleman, Lieutenant Colonel; Jeremiah Rohrer, Major.

Company A was detached from the regiment soon after its organization, by order of General Wool, in command of the department, and assigned to provost duty in the city of Harrisburg. Just previous to the expiration of its term of service, this company was ordered to Washington, but never rejoined the regiment. The remaining nine companies, eight hundred and sixty-nine strong, broke camp on the 17th, and proceeded to Washington. The Peninsula campaign had terminated disastrously, and the legions of Lee were moving down upon Pope in the valley of Virginia. For ten days the regiment was encamped on Arlington Heights, with other new regiments. It was brigaded with the Twenty-fourth and Twenty-eighth New Jersey, and the Twenty-seventh Connecticut, and on the 23d assigned to duty in guarding Chain Bridge, where it remained until the opening of winter, Colonel Jennings commanding the brigade, and Lieutenant Colonel Alleman the regiment.

At the beginning of December, upon the eve of Burnside's movement upon Fredericksburg, Colonel Jennings was ordered to proceed with his regiment to Falmouth, where he arrived on the 9th, and was assigned to the Third Brigade, * of the Second Division, Second Corps. During the night of the 10th, the engineers commenced laying pontoon bridges in front of the town, but before they were completed, the workmen were driven away by the enemy's sharp-shooters, concealed in houses along the waters' edge. Defeated in his first essay, Burnside ordered up his heavy guns, and opened upon the town. During the bombardment, the regiment supported batteries, and when this failed of effect, Burnside called for volunteers to cross in boats and drive out the rebel sharpshooters. A party from Hall's Brigade was chosen; among whom were members of the One Hundred and Twenty-seventh, and leaping to the boats, and pulling lustily in the face of a shower of bullets, they succeeded in reaching the opposite shore. After a brief struggle the enemy was driven and the bridge was completed. Hall's Brigade was the first to cross, and immediately commenced skirmishing to clear the town. Concealed in houses and coverts, from which they could fire with impunity upon the advancing troops, the rebels clung to their shelter, and by their unerring aim caused grievous slaughter. Captain William Fox was the first man in the regiment hit, being instantly killed while crossing the river. Half of the town was thus skirmished through, the enemy leaving the houses from one side as the Union troops were entering at the other, when the brigade was ordered to halt and occupy the ground gained, and the columns of Sumner commenced crossing. During the night of the 11th, a Sergeant and a squad of eleven men were captured and carried prisoners to Richmond. A fierce fire of artillery was opened upon the town on the following morning, and the streets were torn by solid shot; but the brigade held manfully to its work. At a little after noon of the 13th, when repeated attempts to carry the heights in front of the town had failed, Owen's Brigade, to which the One Hundred and Twenty-seventh was temporarily attached, was led to the assault. Moving out to the low, open ground to the left of the city, all the while under a fierce fire of artillery in front, and a flank fire from a deflection in the hills to the right, Owen formed his men in line of battle, the One Hundred and Twenty-seventh on the left of the One Hundred and Sixth, and dashed forward to his desperate task. Braver hearts never beat than filled the bosoms of the men in that devoted line. Onward they went over the prostrate forms of the dead and the dying, and up to within seventy-five yards of the enemy's lines. But the storm of deadly missiles was here too terrible to breast, and they dropped prostrate upon the ground, and commenced screening themselves behind the dead bodies of their fallen comrades, with which the whole plain was strewn. To raise a head was instant death. In this perilous position the regiment lay for hours, exposed to a pitiless fire of musketry and artillery, and until night had put an end to the contest, when it was relieved with the brigade, and returned to the town. At the conclusion of the battle, it retired to its former camp beyond Falmouth. The loss in the engagement was very severe, being two hundred and fifty-seven killed and wounded. Captain William Fox and Lieutenant James S. Shoemaker were among the killed, and Colonel Jennings, Lieutenant Colonel Alleman, Adjutant A. L. Chayne, Captains James Henderson, and John J. Ball, and Lieutenants James B. Keene, Marcus Novinger, Hudson Denny, Jerome W. Henry, J. W. Dougherty, and William R. Orth, among the wounded, the latter mortally.

The regiment was soon after settled in comfortable quarters, and was employed during the winter in picket and in guard duty. On the 27th of April, at the opening of the Chancellorsville Campaign, the Second Division, now commanded by General Gibbon, moved out to the front of Fredericksburg, and having laid a pontoon bridge, crossed on the 3d of May. Gibbon was joined in the town by Sedgwick's Corps, which had crossed below, and during the night had moved up to the city. An assaulting column was formed, and those frowning heights which had been so successfully defended by the enemy on the previous December, were now triumphantly carried, prisoners, small arms and guns falling to the hands of the victors. Lieutenant Colonel Alleman was wounded in the side, and thrown from his horse. The enemy retreated towards Chancellorsville, and was closely followed by Sedgwick as far as Salem Church, where Lee, having turned back from Hooker's front, fell upon and, crushed Sedgwick's Corps, compelling it to withdraw to the left bank of the Rappahannock, by Banks' Ford. In the meantime, Gibbon, who had been left to hold Fredericksburg, took position around the city, and commenced throwing up rifle-pits. With no barrier left to oppose him, the enemy pushed forward from his triumph over Sedgwick, and soon made his appearance in Gibbon's front, where sharp skirmishing ensued. His position was held until the morning of the 4th, when, under cover of a dense fog, he re-crossed the river. The loss of the regiment in the engagement was fifty-three killed and wounded. Lieutenant Jacob R. Knisley was among the killed, and Lieutenants David Hummel, Jr., William P. Carmany, and J. W. Dougherty were among the wounded.

The nine months' term of service of the regiment expired on the 14th, and in pursuance of orders, it was relieved and returned to Harrisburg, where, two days thereafter, it was mustered out of service. During its brief term of duty at the front, of a little more than five months, it was engaged in two pitched battles unsurpassed in severity, and lost an aggregate of four officers and eighteen men killed, fourteen men who died of wounds, sixteen who died of disease, thirty-eight who were discharged by reason of disability, eleven who were captured, ten officers and one hundred and twenty-two men who were wounded, and three officers who resigned.

The Pennsylvania State Archives shows that Jeremiah Rohrer enrolled in Union Army on August 6, 1862 at Middletown, PA and was mustered in as a Captain on August 12, 1862 at Harrisburg, PA. He was discharged on June 2, 1863. He was 35 years old when he enrolled. His occupation is listed as a farmer. His residence was Middletown, PA. He was promoted to the rank of Major on 8/16/1862 by the Governor of Pennsylvania. The last notation says " Muster in 27th".

Notes for Abram D. Rorer:

Caswell and Abram Rorer started west on March 26, 1843 according to post by Helen Lu at HML@aol.com Also in Dalton Newsletter/archives

This genealogy of Abram is not documented particularly to the authenticity of the parentage of Abraham Dee Rorrer. He is listed as being born in Virginia in the 1850 census and is the only Abraham or Abram Rorer (Rorrer) born in this time period I cannot account for is the one whose parent was John Rorer, son of Abram, Sr. and Nancy Cook. The statement above was listed in an internet posting and taken from a Pittsylvania County newspaper showing that Abram and his brother Caswell started west on March 26, 1843. His father, John Rorer and most of his family also moved from Pittsylvania County, VA to Caldwell Co., KY. The 1850 census shows that Abraham Dee was born in Virginia and that his wife Margaret Wright was born in Kentucky. I cannot document the move to Jackson County, Illinois where they were married on April 11, 1849 according to their marriage liscense. I am enclosing a copy of the liscense in this book.

Therefore we must continue to research and hope for better documentation. My experience with this family indicates that the name Rorrer, Rorer, Roar, Roer, Rohrer is that they were used interchagably since many of our early ancestors could not read and the spelling was left to the discretion of the recorder.

Generation 4 (con't)

He dedicated to the First Presbyterian Church the land on which it was built and with his teams and own money , hauled the old Presbyterian Church fom Gainsborourg (Old Lick) as it was known then. Ferdinand and Rorer Avenues were named for him.

Ferdinand was a member of the Presbyterian Church, being converted under the ministry of the Reverend C.H. Howard, in 1873, and joined the church at the time of his conversion.

Ferdinand Rorer married Julia Ann Hannah who lived near Solitude, near what is now Roanoke, and moved there to live. The Hannahs lived on a large tract of land granted Julia's grandfather by George III of England. Ferdinand turned to farming and raised big crops of wheat and tobacco. Later he owned 1500 acres in Pulaski County, VA beside large holdings of iron ore properties in Craig and Botetourt Counties, VA. He owned and operated the Rorer Iron Mines and the railroad to the mine. He was a large railroad contractor.

In 1881, Big Lick, VA had a population of 700. Ferdinand Rorer and some associates, in 1882, launched a real estate drive that gave Roanoke the name "Magic City". In two years the population was over 6000 and the name had been changed from Big Lick to Roanoke. Patterson Ave, Ernest Ave., Ferdinand Ave., and Rorer Ave. were all named for his family.

excerpted from the History of Roanoke County and City by George S. Jack

Ferdinand Rorer (April 1827- March 1908) was born in Pittsylvania County, VA near the present city of Danville. Early in life he went to South Boston, VA, seat of Halifax County, where he secured employment with a mercantile establishment of Colonel Bennett. He remained there about three years, then in or about 1848, at the age of twenty-one years he began a mercantile business on it's own account at " Rough and Ready" in Montgomery County near the present town of Snowville. He married in 1850, Julia Ann Hannah, granddaughter of George Hannah, who lived at Solitude near Big Lick (now Roanoke, VA) on a large tract of land which was granted to him by King George, II. The young couple made their home at Solitude. This land lies south of the Roanoke River, and within the city limits, occupied by Virginia Heights and Raleigh Court, suburbs of the city of Roanoke. Mr. Rorer purchased a farm from the Shirey heirs, which adjoins the land inherited by his wife and engaged in extensive farming. He owned a large number of slaves; the principal crops raised were tobacco, corn and wheat. He later purchased 1500 acres of land in Pulaski County, Virginia to obtain iron ore. During 1854- 1855 the Virginia-Tennessee Railroad was built through this section and his lands increased in value; he was a wealthy man of his day. The Civil War freed his slaves and he ceased extensive farming and began to manufacture tobacco at Big Lick.

In 1882 he began to purchase and develop iron ore properties, one of which was located about 10 miles south of Roanoke City, to which he built a railroad. It was known as the Rorer Iron Mines and did an extensive business for a number of years. He purchase other iron ore properties in adjoining counties; Botetourt, Montgomery and Craig.

The Rorer Mines are located partly in the Roanoke Mountain Trails and Mill Mountain Park off the Blue Ridge Parkway (this is north of the intersection of Highway 220 and the Blue Ridge Parkway). Mill Mountain spur cuts accross the old pits and the campground occupies part of the old iron mines. Parts of the Rorer Mines are not within the Parkway boundaries and the locality where the wavellite was found may be in one of these pits.

The charter for the Rorer Iron Mines was granted on 1/15/1883 (Charter Book 1, page 72, Salem, VA). A narrow gauge railroad was constructed, from the mine about half a mile north of the present Highway 220, just below Peakwood Drive. The roadbed ran east immediately in front of Piney Grove Church, then on a beeline to where the Winston-Salem Division tracks were laid in the early 1890's. The little road ran up to cross Colonial Avenue, then down to the brow of the hill, northwest to a railroad trestle spanning Murray's Run. Ferdinand would occasionally entertain guests by giving a picnic, the climax of which would be a ride in empty dump cars out to the mines and back.

Generation 4 (con't)

He was one of the leading men in the building of the town of Big Lick, which later became Roanoke City, having owned the land he laid off the first lots, he established and conducted the first real estate office in what was then a beautiful oak grove on the present Commerce Street. Part of the same land (1939) now is occupied by the Municipal Building and the Federal Post Office Building. The Yadkin Valley Stage Coach road passed in front of the property. He laid off and constructed, for the most part at his expense, the streets running east and west through his lands., which embraced the land lying west of Commerce Street and south of the Norfolk and Western Railroad to Ferdinand Avenue and Roanoke River. He built the first Town Hall, known as Rorer Hall which stood on the northeast corner of Campbell Avenue and Roanoke Street. It was a two story frame building headquarters for the town government, jail, police department, and used for all kinds of public meetings and shows. It was removed from the lot about 1920.

When the town of Roanoke was chartered and the name changed from Big Lick, February 28, 1874, Mr. Rorer was placed at the head of the Town Council. When another charter was secured creating the City of Roanoke, January 31, 1884 it contained the name of Mr. Rorer as one of the members of City Council. He was identified with all the civic and industrial activities of the community. He gave the land at the southwest corner of Church Avenue and Roanoke Street on which the First Presbyterian Church was erected, and furnished most of the material and money to put up the building, hauling the lumber from the old church in Gainsboro with his teams. He built the first hotel on the southwest corner of Campbell Avenue and Park Street (5th St.), facing about 200 feet on Campbell Avenue. It was a large two story frame building, and became the center for social activities, and in later years it was converted into a private school building, and furnished the nucleus of the old Alleghany Institute. The financial depression of 1892 caused Mr. Rorer to lose practically all of his properties, his partners in business, northern men, left the state, theirs creditors demanded payment of about $100,000.00 which was impossible for him to secure for them. The latter years of his life were spent in Bluefield, WV conducting a lumber business.

There are some landmarks in the city commemorating the beneficence of a generous public spirited citizen that he was. He gave the street through his land, laid them off and some of them bear the names of the Rorer family as follows: Patterson Avenue, Rorer Avenue, Ferdinand Avenue, and Ernest Avenue. He died in Bluefield, WV in March , 1908 and his remains place by the side of his wife, Julia Ann in the Roanoke City Cemetery. His wife died November 11, 1875.

John Rohrer, the patriarch, immigrated from Switzerland and settled first in Pennsylvania (now Lebanon, PA.) where he knew Harmon Cook, the colonizer, who obtained a grant to a large boundary of land in Pittsylvania (then Mecklenberg) County from the Crown. He and his sons David Alexander and Abram, Sr. went with Mr. Cook to his large estate about 1788, and a little later established a home for his family. Abram, Sr. married Nancy the daughter of Harmon Cook, and became the founder of the Rorer family of southwest Virginia. His son Abram Rorer, Jr. married Nancy Mary Wright , and they were Ferdinand's parents. David Alexander RORRER, Jr., his nephew, founded the Patrick County Rorrer clan. Abram's family used the RORER spelling and David's the RORRER spelling of the family surname.

The will of Harmon Cook recorded May 21, 1910 bequeathed his property to his three sons, John, Harmon and Abraham and to his three daughters, Catherine Wright, Mary Razor, and Nancy, the wife of Abram Rohrer, Sr. Abram and his wife Nancy were the parents of four sons; Rudolph, Charles, David and Abram, Jr. who married Nancy Mary Wright and settled near his father in the northern part of the county. In his will proven September 17th, 1855 he names a son, Ferdinand Rorer, the subject of this sketch, and daughters Angeline James, Elvira Harvey, Aquella Ann Lipscomb and Matilda Miller. He had other sons; Patrick H. and Ernest.

Note- A little of this story was modified for historical accuracy.

There are several entries for Ferdinand Rorer in Chatagne's Gazeteer and Business Directory of 1884-1885.

from Herbert Lester Rorrer

The first child of record of David Alexander Rorrer, Jr. was John Henry Rorrer, Sr., born about 1813-1815 and it is unknown when he died. He was married the first time on January 26, 1836 to Jane Handy, also known as Jency. Jane was the daughter of William Handy and Mary Butler. Jane was born about 1819 in Patrick County, VA and died about 1857. John and Jane had 10 children who are listed previously. On December 24, 1857 John married for the second time to Mary A. Watson. She was born about 1819 and died May 19, 1858 according to the Patrick County Register of Deaths. She was 38 years old. She lived less than one year after marrying John. In many cases the wives died prematurely from complications of child birth. John married the third time to Sarah A. Bryant on December 14, 1858 in Patrick County, VA. She was born about 1821. They had at least 2 children, Elisha and Abner Johnson. Abner Johnson was a family name of the Bryant family.
end HLR

In the 1870 census his wealth was estimated at $297.00. This census also lists 2 children, Abner J. Rorrer age 8 and John W. Rorrer age 6. I have been able to find no further record of John W. as of 11/3/2002. (TWR)

Children of John Henry Rorrer Sr. and Sarah A. Bryant are:

Notes for Michael Andrew Rorrer:

from Herbert Lester Rorrer

Michael Andrew Rorrer was born on February 23, 1820 and died on May 20, 1907, the son of David Alexander Rorrer, Jr. and Nancy Ann Brown. Mike was married the first time to Susan Ingram, the daughter of James Ingram and Ruth Corn. I don't think they had any children.

Mike was married the second time to Elizabeth A. (Lizzie) Ingram, thought to be a cousin of Susan. She was the daughter of Roland (Jimmy) Ingram and Nancy Corn. Elizabeth was born January 6 or 18, 1823 and died on January 11, 1863. Mike and Elizabeth had 10 children, Samuel G., Nancy Jane (Nannie), John Wesley, Susan E., Thomas R., James Tyler, Abraham Alexander, Elam Elkanah (Cain), Daniel Chapman (Chap), and Mary Elizabeth who died young.

Mike was married the third time on March 13, 1866 to Louisa J. (Sarah) Whalen (the widow of Helms) who was 26 years old. She was the daughter of Pleasant Whalen and Lucinda Foley. Mike and Sarah had 5 children, George Wesley, Patrick Sherman (Petro), Barbara Alice, Frank, and Kate.

Michael Andrew Rorrer's wealth was estimated at $700.00 on the 1870 Patrick County, VA census.

Michael Andrew Rorrer lived in the Dobyons Community of Patrick County, VA along with William Dollarhite

The 1880 census lists Elizabeth Hale age 2 as an adopted daughter. Also Elizabeth Davis or Jones as a boarder.

Children of Michael Andrew Rorrer and Elizabeth Ann Ingram are:

- i. Samuel Green Rorrer, B: 23 Aug 1842 in Patrick County, VA, D: 26 Oct 1864 in Patrick County, VA.

Notes for Samuel Green Rorrer:

from Herbert Lester Rorrer

Samuel G. Rorrer was born on August 23, 1842 and died on October 26, 1864 from a gunshot wound he received from a Civil War deserter. Since his job was to bring in deserters from the Confederate Army he wasn't very popular in Patrick County. He was shot about 1 and 1/2 miles east of Howell's Store on Route 58. At that time the road ran close to the river and crossed it 19 times from Howell's store to Stuart, VA. He was shot from a rock bluff above the road.

from Thomas W. Rorrer, Jr.

Samuel G. Rorrer enlisted in Company H of the 51st Regiment of the Virginia Infantry of the Confederate States of America on July 2, 1861 in Patrick County, VA. His enlisting officer was Captain G.R. Conner and he signed for the duration of the war. He was a sergeant. He served for 2 years of active duty. His pay records show that he was then sent on a mission detached from his company on August 24, 1863. According to family story Samuel and another soldier were sent back to Patrick County to round up deserters. One story that I was told said Peyton Graves Jefferson, said to be a 4th cousin of President Thomas Jefferson, was one of the deserters. This story says that Samuel shot Peyton in attempt to capture him. Peyton survived his wound and returned to duty. On October 26, 1864 someone in Patrick County ambushed Samuel and wounded him and he died later that day from the wound. It is still an unsolved crime. He is buried in the Rorrer cemetery located on the Chester McKenzie farm, which is Pilson Cemetery #381.

Notes for Thomas Dudley Rorrer:
from Vivian Hopkins Quesinberry

Thomas Dudley Rorrer was a resourceful businessman. He hauled produce by a horse drawn wagon from Buffalo Ridge area to Danville and Lynchburg, VA. On return trips he brought merchandise needed in the area. He bought several hundred acres of land that made up the Rorrer homestead on which he built a large home. It burned in 1903. He planted the homestead hillside in apple trees and used some level ground to produce food for his family and his livestock. He had several slaves who continued to live with him for a time after the civil war and until they could find other employment. Some of these blacks are buried in the Rorrer Cemetery on the farm.

It is told that during the Civil War T.D. (as he was known) would walk up the hill behind his home daily carrying a basket, supposedly to feed his hogs. In reality he was carrying food to two Confederate deserters who were members of the Rorrer family. T. D. was known to be a Union sympathizer. They were not his sons. His oldest son, John Wesley, died April 2, 1865 of pneumonia as a prisoner of war at Fort Delaware Federal Prison, having been captured in Waynesboro, VA. The deserters who dug a cave in a dense Rhodendron patch and were fed by T.D. must have been nephews or possibly a brother-in-law (Booker Atkins) it is said.

It was said that he was very loyal and generous beyond the call of duty to his family. His parents spent their last days in his home. He cared for his brother Abram's family who returned from Kentucky until the children could care for themselves and their mother. Abram died of cholera in Cincinnati while working on a logging float from his home in Kentucky. He had another sister Judith who along with her husband died early in life and he cared for some of their children. T.D.'s sister, Mary Elizabeth, married John Tatum Morrison. After her husband died and the children had moved from the home, Mary moved to her brother's home and lived there until her death. He seemed to enjoy having people in his home.

He operated the first store at Buffalo Ridge to improve his business prospects and he continued to buy land becoming one of the larger landowners of North Patrick County. After the war his assets began to fall apart, perhaps because of the loss of cheap labor, the extension of the Danville and Western Railroad (known as the Dick and Willie RR) to Stuart in 1884, or his overextended credit. When the homestead was sold, T.D.'s daughter, Louisa McKenzie, bought it for $1000.00. It was customary at that time if a family member bid on a property that belonged to the family, others parties did not bid out of respect for the family.

It was in this generation that the name changed from Rorer to Rorrer. No one knows why it changed unless it was changed by the U S Census or at the local courthouse. Most of these people signed deeds with an X mark.

Note: I called Erma McKenzie's son Michael, to see if the cave was still there to take its picture and he said it was filled to the point of not looking like a cave now. He said his father took him to where it was when he was a small boy. He said it was not a natural cave, just a place dug out of the side of the hill behind the Rhododendrons and covered by planks for protection.

Notes for William Anderson Rorrer:

William Anderson Rorrer was conscripted in Patrick County, VA into Capt. Fry's Light Artillery Company R, Virginia on April 1, 1862 at Patrick County, VA for 3 years. His military records reveal nothing of note as they do not indicate his locations during the war. He had several hospital stays and was admitted to C.S.A. General Hospital in Charlottesville, VA on 5/31/1863 with chronic rheumatism (now believed to be Rheumatic Fever). Another source said that he was conscripted on 4/1/1862 for Turner Artillery, transferred to Orange Artillery on 10/9/1862, sent to hospital from Moss Creek 5/23/1863 with chronic rheumatism, back to duty on 9/11/1863. He was in Charlottesville, VA hospital on 10/12/1864. As you can tell from the letters below he served at the battle of Chancellorsville. He is listed in the official records as W. A. Roarer on Film M382 Roll 47.

Formed in Orange County, the Orange Artillery was originally under the command of Capt. Thomas Jefferson Peyton. Organized in May 1861, the battery was reorganized March 20, 1862. The battery originally reported as Co. F, and also Co. D, of Fitzgerald's 1st Regt. C.S. Arty., which was only an attempt to form a regiment. Sometime after the reorganization of batteries in the Army of Northern Virginia, the Orange Artillery received new members from the old Long Island Artillery formerly commanded by Capt. Abram Wimbish and previously by Patrick H. Clark. The Orange Artillery also received a few former members of William Turner's Mountain Artillery. Under the same orders,

Generation 4 (con't)

Captain Peyton was relieved, making way for the promotion of Charles William Fry to captain. Though missing the 1st and 2nd Battle of Manassas, the Morris Artillery served creditably on the Peninsula, Seven Days, and Sharpsburg before being organized into a battalion with the Morris and King William Artillery. Continuing active service, the batteries of the battalion saw fighting at Fredericksburg, Chancellorsville and Gettysburg before being nearly annihilated at the "Bloody Angle" at Spotsylvania Court House.

William applied for a Civil War Pension as a veteran and amputee on May 2, 1900.

A letter from William Anderson Rorer to his wife Catherine Rorer:

Camp near Bowling Green, VA April 17, 1863

Dear Wife, I seat myself this morning to inform you that I am well at this time and I hope that when these few lines come to hand that they may find you in the best of health. I have no news of any importance to write to you of any interest. I want to come home and see you all very bad but there is no chance for me to come at this time but I will send you my likeness. I had my likeness taken yesterday. It cost me twelve dollars and I want you to write me whether you think it is like me or not. I don't much like to send it by mail but there is no other chance. You must write soon for I will want to know whether you got my type or not. Tell all the children when they want to see their Pa they must look at my likeness. We are looking for a fight at Fredericksburg and I expect we will leave here soon but if we do I will write to you and let you know it, but you must not stop writing to me for your letters will follow me and I will get them if you direct them right. I saw Thomas H. Bennett today, he was well and Zenus was well also. Send his mother word. I sent you a letter by Daniel Robertson and one more that I never got no answer to yet. I did not get a letter from you last mail but I hope I will get one by this mail. When you write to me hereafter you must direct your letter to W. A. Rorer, Milford Depot, VA care of C.W.Fry, Orange Artillery, Major Carter's Battalion and I will sure get them. Tell Isiah W. Akers wife he is well. Be sure to write me if you got the letter I sent by Robertson and if you got the money. Also give my best respects to all my friends and relations. Now I will close for this time and if I get a letter by this mail I will write again.
Nothing more, your husband

Wm. A. Rorer / Catharine Rorer

In a second letter---- 5/16/1863

In a letter to his wife from Caroline County, VA on 5/16/1863 he wrote " I take this opportunity of writing you a few lines and answer your kind and ever welcome letter which came to hand yesterday and found me tolerable well as to health. But breakdown a marching and fighting. I was fighting all day on the 3rd of this month the day after you wrote your letter to me. I can inform you that we lost six men killed and nine wounded of our company.--General Jackson was killed---D.B. Burnett a civilian was killed. A.H. Colerton was wounded, that is all the Patrick men that was hurt in this battle. I saw Capt. Overson killed, he was Peter Rorer's Capt. Peter (Peter) came out safely. I saw him after the fight was over. He came along with us when we was coming out of the fight. It is reported here that General Hooker was wounded. I don't know whether the report is true or not. But I hope it is, for he is the one who fought us so hard on the third of this month at Chancellorsville, but we give them a decent whipping and ran them back across the river. They are camped on one side of the Rappahannock River and us on the other side in sight of each other. But don't think we will have any more fighting to do here soon. At least I hope we will not, for I am getting very tired of fighting. Tell Isaac Akers wife that he is well. I truly hope that this letter may find you all in good health and doing well. I have no good news to write to you at this time. I want to come home and see you all very bad, but I see no chance for me to come home soon, unless we could have peace and I see no prospect of peace at this time as I have no news to write that will interest you. I will come to a close by asking you to write soon and often. Direct your letter to Guinea Depot, Caroline Co. in care of Captain C.W.Fry, Orange Artillery, Major Carters Battalion. So no more at present---

She died on 16 Mar 1926 in Pittsylvania Co, VA.

Notes for Charles Henry Rorer:

He enlisted in the Confederate Army on March 11, 1862 at Pittsylvania Court House, Virginia in Company D. Duty as a hospital attendant through October 1864. He was captured at the Battle of Five Forks and taken to Lookout Point, Maryland on April 5, 1865. He took the oath of allegiance to the United States and was released on June 19, 1865. He was 5 foot 11 inches tall, dark complexion, gray hair, and hazel eyes. His residence was listed as Pittsylvania County, VA. This record is taken from a book "57th Virginia Infantry" by H.E. Howard of Lynchburg, VA.

General George Pickett was the overall commander at the Battle of Five Forks and was told by Gen. Robert E. Lee to hold Five Forks "at all hazards". Also commanding under Pickett were Lee's son Fitzhugh and Gen. Thomas L. Rosser. This was very late in the war and probably was the battle that was the final blow to the Confederacy. Pickett was fighting against Phillip Sheridan, George Armstrong Custer, and Joshua L. Chamberlain. This battle took place one week before the surrender at Appomattox. When the battle was over Pickett's command was left with 120 officers and 911 enlisted men out of 10's of thousands, but after Gettysburg and the infamous Pickett's Charge, few remained. Charles Henry Rorer, who had been a part of Pickett's Command since 1862, had survived a great holocaust. I do not consider him to be a part of the 911 enlisted men listed above because he was captured on 4/5/1865 and the 911 were counted on 4/8/1865. Had he not been captured at Five Forks he could easily have been killed due to the every increasing odds against Pickett. To have survived Gettysburg was one thing, but to have continued to survive through the final days was another. General Robert E. Lee surrendered at Appomattox On 4/9/1865.

Summersett Church is located about 5 miles west of Gretna in Brights, VA.

This is a copy of a letter written by his wife Annis P. Rorer for her son John G. Rorer:

Charles H. Rorer, joined the Confederate Army March the 16th 1862, in Captain David Diers Company D, 57th Virginia Regiment , served in the ranks 6 months, and was given detail service, and drove a team until March 1865, and the soldiers was getting so scarce he was put back in the ranks, he had given perfect satisfaction in detail service. He never had a cross made against him during the war, he was in a battle April 5 at the Five Forks, where the enemy had double their number of Soldiers and arrested the bigger number of the Rebels, he being one and was taken to Point Lookout and kept in prison till June the 22nd, (1865) when with many others he was given honerable parole and turned out to come home again, arriving at home June the 25th 1865.

written 11/21/2000 by Thomas W. Rorrer, Jr, 1721 Greenway Drive, Fredericksburg, VA 22401

He is said to have died in 1862 of measles and is buried in Russell, Greenup Co., Ky but this is undocumented. It is said that he was in Civil War which brought him to Kentucky. This is documented in the obituary of his brother, Peter Thomas Rorrer, which states that his brother Abe enlisted with him. Peter died in Princeton, WV in 1945.

In any event he disappeared from Patrick County, Va and was not heard from again.

In my research I find several spellings of Fanny Dickerson (Dickenson, Dickinson, Dickison) and I am not sure which is correct.

Also according to Mr. Roy Deck of Crab Orchard, WV who is married to the granddaughter of Peter Thomas Rorrer, another Rorrer brother went to Carter County, KY before the Civil War. He married there but before his first child was born he joined the army and was killed in the conflict. When his son was born he was called Abe. This Abe married and had seven children; Walt, Manford, William, Logan, Retta, Lucy and Della.

George Theman Rorrer, Sr. writes that "Along about 1912 when I was 11 years of age I can remember my grandfather tell about one of his brothers going to Kentucky before the war and they never heard from him again, but evidently some of Uncle Petes family found out about this son of Abe and got this information.

My interpretation of the marriage liscense of Abraham Roar and Fannie Dickenson- Thomas W. Rorrer, Jr. It states, Abraham Roar stated he is 22 years old on the 23rd day of April, 1861. Borned in Patrick County, Virginia his father's name is John H. Roar and mother's name is Jane Handy before she married. Faney Dickerson is 20 years old born in Carter County, Kentucky and her father is Levi Dickerson born in Floyd County. Her mother's name Lucinda Waugh before married and that same Abraham Roar and Fanney Dickerson are to be married on the 25th day of July 1860 in the house of Lucinda Dickerson in Carter County, Kentucky.

They all got fair educations in a time when schools were scarce and the children had to walk a long way to attend.

He had 49 grandchildren including 25 boys and 24 girls.

John had a stroke in early 1926 and another on October 28, 1926 which killed him. He made his home with his daughter Nannie and his son-in-law Charles Dillon after his wife's death in 1920.

His second wife Penina Jane Cantley was the daughter of George W. and Drucilla Clay Cantley. Her father was a union army veteran of the civil war. He and his wife are buried in the Kemper Clay Cemetery on Bee Branch in Marsh Fork District in Raleigh County, WV.

Jane was an uncompromising Methodist and Republican. Her father and 2 uncles served in the union army. As far as Jane was concerned this was a fight of Republicans of the north against the Democrats of the south.

OBITUARY of JOHN HENRY RORRER, JR. in The Raleigh Register, Beckley, WV Friday October 29, 1926

John Rorrer, 92, Dies at Maynor

Aged resident succumbs at home of son-in-law following second paralytic stroke

Joh. H. Rorrer, 92, a Confederate veteran of the Civil War and resident of Raleigh County since about the time of the war, died last night at the home of his son-in-law, C. M. Dillon, at Maynor, following a second illness of paralysis from which he had apparently recovered.

Mr. Rorrer was a native Virginian, but moved to Wset Virginia just before the outbreak of the war, settling in Roane County. Within a short time, however, he moved to this section.

He had been very active up until he was first stricken with paralysis during the past summer. Just a month bfore that time he had walked from Sand Lick to Harper, a distance of about 6 miles across the mountain. His mental facultien were clear and he retained an active memory to the last.

During the war he was taken prisoner and was held for some time. It is said that he refused a commission in the Southern army, preferring to serve as a private.

Mtr. Rorrer had lived in the Dillon home for five years, or since the death of his wife. The former home had been on Sand Lick, and the aged man had worked on his farm there until reaching a very advanced age.

Deceased is survived by six children; Ed Rorrer. of Dry Creek; George and jake Rorrer, of Harper;; Mrs. C. M. Dillon, of Maynor; Mrs, Sherman Clay, of Eccles; and Mrs. Richard Holt, of South Charleston, WV.

Union Veteran

Peter Rorrer, 99, dies at home of niece in Princeton (WV)

Register Report of John Rohrer

Generation 5 (con't)

Peter Thomas Rorrer, 99 years and 5 months old, oldest Civil war veteran of Mercer County, died at home of his niece, Mrs. H. E. Spangler, 402 Straley Ave, on Easter Sunday afternoon at 5:45 o'clock.

Funeral services were conducted at the home of Mrs. Spangler at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon by the Reverend Frank L. Stuck, pastor of the First Church of Christ and burial followed in a cemetery near Athens on what is known as the George Bowling farm.

Peter Thomas Rorrer was a native West Virginian. He united with Church of Christ in 1889 and was a member of that church since that year. With three other brothers Rudolph, John and Abe, Peter Rorrer enlisted in the union army at Beckley in 1861, and they fought their first battle at Gauley Bridge. Peter Rorrer also participated in several major battles including Chancellorsville and Gettysburg. He was taken prisoner and was exchanged at Richmond.

Surviving are two sons, B. I. Rorrer of Princeton and E. B. Rorrer of Letart, WV and one daughter, Mrs. J. J. Martin of Princeton and a host of other relatives.

His death marks the passing of the last veteran of the Union Army in Mercer County although several veterans of the Confederacy are yet living.

His service record shows him as Peter F. Rorrer of the 22nd Virginia Infantry, who enlisted on 6/6/1861 in Charlestown, WV. He is listed as absent without cause on 9/4/1861 and there is no further record.

Some speculate that he first joined the Union Army, was a prisoner at that time he was reported to have deserted, since he was captured at the battle of Gauley Bridge, taken to Richmond and exchanged and became a member of the Confederate Army. (This is not documented by the official records)

88. Michael J. Rorrer-5(John Henry-4, David Alexander-3, David Alexander-2, John-1)^[318] was born in Aug 1850 in Patrick County, VA^[135]. He died after 1910 in probably near Athens, West Virginia on George Bowling Farm^[136]. He married Elizabeth Jane Irick on 17 Mar 1870 in Pike County, KY^[137], daughter of William B. Irick and Lydia Clay. She was born on 14 Jun 1849^[319]. She died on 27 Nov 1936.

Notes for Michael J. Rorrer:

Michael J. Rorrer was born in Patrick County, VA about 1850. He later appeared in Pike County, KY and married Elizabeth Jane Irick on 3/17/1870. This is verified through a marriage liscense to Michael J. Rower and Elizabeth Jane Irick. It states that he was over 21 and his mother was born in Patrick County, VA and his father was born in Pittsylvania County, VA. The only Rorrer family I can find there with a Michael J. Rorrer son was John Henry Rorer, Sr. and Jane Handy which matches the demographic information on the marriage liscense. This is not absolute proof but the best I can find of this relationship. Another of his brothers ended up in Carter County, KY and his descendants still live in the area. His name was Abram Alexander Rorrer which was changed to ROAR by the marriage clerk.

Michael J. Rorrer's descendants spell their name ROER for similar reasons. Both of these men were apparently illiterate since the marriage liscenses are signed with an X.

Michael was listed in the Floyd County, KY census in 1880. He abandoned his family around 1887-1890 and was not heard from by the family again. There was speculation he was killed by gamblers sice he left home in the company of two strangers. However he is listed in the 1900 census living with his brother Peter in Plymouth, Mercer Co. WV.

From Douglas Ferguson

My great-grandfather, Michael J. Rorrer (Roer) was a person of mystery, the little information that we have was told to us by my grandmother , Eliza Ellen Roer Ferguson. The marriage records in Pike County, Kentucky shows that Michael and Elizabeth Jane Irick were married on March 17, 1870. The couple had a total of eight children and lived at the head of Island Creek at a place called Piegion Roost which was on the border between Pike and Floyd Counties. The youngest child was born about 1885 and soon they were without a father. My grandmother relates that one day two men arrived on horseback for a visit and after a short while Michael climbed on behind one of the men and was never seen again. His wife speculated that they were some of his card-playing friends who probably killed him for gambling debts.

At the time there were few social programs to help the destitute and my great-grandmother did the best she could by lending her children out to neighbors as household servants in exchange for room and board and a few dollars to support herself and the children too small to work. My grandmother tells of the winter when the snow was high and there were no shoes. When they needed to use the outdoor toilet they would heat a small flat board at the fireplace, run barefoot to the toilet and put their feet on the warm board and then race back through the snow to the house.

My paternal great-grandfather , James Monroe Ferguson, who lived in Wayne County, WV, had divorced and had custody of his two young children. One of his friends had recently married a pretty girl from Pike County, Kentucky and mentioned that she had a younger sister who was looking for a husband. My grandfather paid his prospective brother-in-law to take the two day trip to Kentucky and fetch the young lady, sight unseen. He rode one horse and led a mule for the bride-to-be and returned a few days later. My grandmother was married in June 1897 at the age of 15 and over the next 25 years gave birth to 14 children with 12 surviving to adulthood plus the two step-children. She lived to see 80 and told us many stories of her deprived childhood. After her youth, the great depression, was just a bump in the road. My father, Edgar Ferguson, joined the Civilian Conservation Corp and was sent to Utah in 1935-1936. The monthly pay was $21.00, of which he was allowed to keep $5.00 and the remainder was sent home to the family.

end Douglas Ferguson

Michael J. Rorrer is listed in the 1900 Census living with his brother Peter T. Rorrer and his wife Nancy Jefferson Rorrer in Plymouth, Mercer County, WV and lists his age as 52 making him born in 1848

Michael Roer was living in Floyd Co., KY in 1880 at age 33.

Notes for John William Wesley Rorrer:
from Herbert Lester Rorrer

John Wesley Rorrer was born on March 28, 1846 and died . John was killed by a fellow named Green Witt. It seems that John and Witt had a personal squabble of some kind. Witt presumably called John out and told him that he (Witt) was going to kill him. It was said that John told him he had never seen a Rorrer run. Note that John's brother Samuel G. was also shot.

from Vivian Hopkins Quesinberry

Samuel farmed, had a small orchard, did carpentry work and blacksmithing. He was remembered fondly by his children and grandchildren who sat in his lap as he peeled apples for them.

He hurt his back working in one of his fields and was not able to do much work after that. He operated a blacksmith shop and was said to keep a little brandy around. It was said that he was a little innovative and built his toilet over the creek.

Notes for Louisa Nancy Rorrer:

Nancy Louise Rorrer and her husband Patrick Allen McKenzie apparently purchased all or a portion of the Thomas Dudley Rorrer homeplace for a reported $1000.00. Nancy died intestate in 1903 and the property was apparently mortgaged to the Federal Land Bank of Baltimore in Baltimore, Maryland. When payments were not continued on the mortgage the bank seized the property. A mortgage made the twenty seventh day of July, 1922 was made between Charles E. McKenzie and Nannie L. McKenzie, his wife for $2500.00 allowed them to buy the land back from the bank. They had previously acquired the rights of the other heirs to the land.

The following is a description of the property acquired:

All that certain tract or parcel of land lying and being in Patrick County, Virginia, on the waters of Sycamore Creek, near Buffalo Ridge, Virginia, in Smith River Magisterial District.

Beginning at a corner stone on the Floyd Pike running with I.M. Akers line to I.R. Pilson's line, with his line to Hayne's line, with Hayne's line to Adron Anglin's line, with his line to C.D. Ross's line, and his line to the beginning, containing 185 acres.

Being a part of the land of which N.L. McKenzie (nee Nancy Louise Rorrer McKenzie) died, intestate, seized and assessed, on or about August 14, 1903, survived by as his only heirs at law, Mattie Ross, Lillian Akers, J.T. McKenzie, and said Charles E. McKenzie (in the name of C.E. McKenzie), the said

McKenzie, unmarried, therein having been acquired by the said Nannie L. McKenzie by deed March 18, 1910, and recorded in the said office in deed book 38, page 363.

Notes for John Thomas McKenzie:

Obituary in The Henry Bulletin, Martinsville, VA, 11/2/1923

The many friends of Mr. John Tom McKenzie. of Buffalo Ridge, will be shocked to hear of his tragic death, which occurred on October 29th. He was driving a heavy log wagon, heavily loaded with lumber, when going down grade, with his foot on the brakes, his foot slipped and he fell between the wheels. The back wheel ran over him, crushing him so badly that he only lived three hours. He was 39 years of age, a member of Buffalo Ridge Baptist Church, and stood well in his church and community.

The cemetery consists of 112.5 acres in extent. Roughly translated, "Puowaina" means □ConsecratedHill□or □Hillof Sacrifice.□The Punchbowl was the site of many secret Alii (Royal) burials. It was also the place where offenders of certain kapas (taboos) were sacrificed. Notes for Thomas Wise Rorrer Sr.:

This is a history of Thomas Wise Rorrer, Sr. written by him on 2/3/1967 in Coeburn, Wise County, VA

I was born(ed) on the 18th day of March 1897 at Toms Creek, Va (now called Cranes Nest) in the only 2 story house that now still stands on what was then called Red Hill. On the 13th day of March 1899 my mother died of what is now called asma (asthma) and it was at that time called tistic (phytistic). I lacked 5 days being 2 years old when she died. She and Aunt Martha Rorrer had been to Bondtown, VA shopping that day. It was drizzling rain and they got wet. Late that evening she took sick, and had trouble breathing. The doctor came and gave her a hypodermic and she went to sleep and never woke up. About 10:30 or 11 o'clock Daddy went to the bed to see about her and discovered she was dead. I don't know if dad worked another day there or not, but shortly after mother died daddy left there and went to Radford, VA to work and left us children with Aunt Martha and Uncle Bill Rorrer (William David Rorrer and Martha Easter Bowling), for a month or so. Then when he got a place to live and moved the family there he got Nannie Collins Powell to keep house for him.

About 4 years later the housekeeper became my step-mother. She had been married before and had one daughter Bessie who was 2 years older than I was. I can remember a few things that happened when we lived at Radford the first time. Daddy worked at the Iron furnace which belonged to the Virginia Iron, Coal and Coke Company, the same company that owned the mines at Toms Creek. We lived close enough to the furnace for dad to come home for lunch. Each house at the time had what was known as a cellar dug underneath instead of a basement, with outside entrance, there were no inside stairways. At that time people with medium or large families would buy a barrell of flour at a time, it came in a wooden barrel, and that barrel would sit in one corner of the kitchen.

I remember one day I was out playing and heard a hen cackle in the cellar of the next house, which was an empty house, no one lived there at the time. So I decided to investigate. The door (to the cellar) had been torn away and someone had put an old discarded chair crosswise accross the doorway. I was not large enough to climb over the chair so I crawled between the rungs of the chair. I found the hens nest, it only had one egg in it, so I got the egg and went home, but when I went in the kitchen door Daddy was sitting at the table in the dining room eating lunch. The door being open between the kitchen and dining room and he saw me. I knew I had done something that I shouldn't have done so I tried to hide the egg behind the flour barrell sitting in the corner, but dad saw me. He asked me, what have you got there son? and I told him an egg. He asked, where did you get it? I told him in the cellar under the empty house. He said take it back and put it back where you got it, because it don't belong to us. We haven't got any chickens. So I had another trip back to the cellar.

I don't know how long we lived at Radford but we moved from there to Roanoke. It seems after mother died daddy was so dissatisfied he could not stay at one place long. Therefore he made several moves as long as he was able to work. I don't know what year we moved to Roanoke but I remember we lived there in the year William McKinley was assassinated (September 14, 1901). I can remember hearing people talk about it.

We moved from Roanoke to Bristol, (VA or TN) as best I can remember in the year 1903. It was then that daddy married his housekeeper. Nannie became my step-mother and Bessie became my stepsister and as the years went by, I thought as much of Bessie as I did my own sisters. Neither of us remember the first time we met. When we lived in Bristol we lived on Cumberland Street. I went to school the first time in Bristol. I was only 6 years old. Mom had instructed Bessie to tell the teacher I was 7 years old but didn't tell my sister Dora. So Bessie told the teacher I was 7 and Dora told her I was 6. I can remember them arguing about it, but I went to school anyhow.

Aunt Lerah (Mrs. Alfred) Fain told me last summer about the place where my mother and father started house keeping when they first married, on a farm near Stuart, VA., up above the place where aunt Minnie Martin now lives. She said dad built the house and set out fruit trees of different kinds. Since dad was called JAY Rorrer, they called it the Jay place and it is still called the Jay place to this day. She said their first child (a boy) was born(ed) there and was born(ed) dead and was such a deep snow on the ground they couldn't get to the cemetery and it was buried on the hill above the house. She said for many years after dad and mother moved away she would go to the Jay place each year and get fruit from the trees dad had set out while there.

Later, dad went to Pulaski and while there one of my sisters about 18 months or 2 years old took sick and died. That was before I was born(ed).

Dad moved next to Toms Creek, VA where I was born. He moved from Bristol back to Toms Creek and lived in the same house where I was born(ed), but didn't stay there long and moved from there to Goshen, VA. The Virginia Iron, Coal and Coke Company had an iron furnace there. I remember I reached my 7th birthday while we lived there. I remember one day when dad came home to lunch his right thumb was shaking and I thought he was doing it on purpose. I ask him why he was shaking his thumb and he said he couldn't help it. He later discovered he had palsy (Parkinson's disease).

Dad next moved from Goshen back to Pulaski and from there back to Radford, lived at Radford 4 years and moved back to Toms Creek in the latter part of September, 1909. I was 12 years old at that time. Dad was able to work only about 6 months after we moved there. The palsy continued to get worse and he became disabled to work the first of April 1910.

Since I was the only boy, it was up to me to support the family. Dad had gotten so he could only load 2 cars of coal in one day, so I went to work with him one day a week on Saturday when I didn't have any school, and the two of us could load 3 cars. I continued to work one day a week until Christmas, 1909, and the next day after Christmas I went to work regular(ly) with him, and worked with him until the 18th day of March 1910, the day I was 13 years old. At that time a boy could go in the mines and work with his father at any age, but to have a job of his own, and in his name, be on the company payroll, he had to be 14 years old. That was the law at that time, so in order to get a job on my own I told the foreman I was 14 years old when I was only thirteen. They didn't have birth certificates in those days, so the foreman took the boys word for his age. Neither did they have to pass an examination. All one had to do was give the foreman his name and age. They used boys in the coal mines at that time, All they had to do was open and close a large door, when the driver or motorman went through it with a trip of cars. It was a way they had of ventilating a coal mine in the early days. They use a different method of ventilation now and don't use the doors and boys anymore. I got 75 cents a day when I first started working. These boys were called trappers. These doors that had to be opened and closed were called trap doors. I suppose they got the name because when the door was closed it trapped the air and sent it up another entry (tunnel) and that way it circulated through the entire mine.

I trapped about 2 years then began driving a mule, which was a man's job. I drove the mule a short time then started braking on a motor and from that to running a motor (A motorized engine used to pull coal cars in and out of the mine).

Driving the mule paid me $1.75 a day, braking the motor paid me $2.00 a day, and when I got to be a motorman it paid me $2.50 per day. I got my first job as a motorman when I was 15 years old, possibly lacked a few months being 16. (1912)

Since I was the only boy in the family I had to quit school and go to work to support the family. When I got the job trapping I told the boss I was 14 years old, so he went to dad and ask him my age, and dad told him the truth, said I was only 13. After dad told me he told the boss my correct age, I went back to the boss and told him dad must be mistaken, that I was 14. But knowing dad's (health) condition, and knowing how badly I needed the job, he gave me the job anyway. Just so I told him I was 14, that cleared him as far as the law was concerned. I went back to work with dad one day a week in November 1909 (loading coal) and continued working in the coal mines until the 12th day of February 1954, when the mines at Toms Creek (operated by Blue Diamond Coal Company) shut down.

I was the too old to get another job in a coal mine, so I went to work for the town of Coeburn, VA. I still had 2 children in college so I had to work at something. My last work at the coal mine paid me $20.00 per day. Since I had to work at something, I went to work for the Town of Coeburn at 75 cents per hour or $6.00 per day, digging ditches and laying water lines and sewer lines. I worked at that about 6 months and was put in charge of the (water) pumping station, which paid me a salary of $185.00 per month. I retired from that job on January 1, 1963.

JOB HISTORY

I first went to work in old LEE mine at Toms Creek, VA (now Cranes Nest) for the Virginia Iron Coal and Coke Company. In 1912 I quit there and went to work for the Clinchfield Coal Corporation at the same place (Cranes Nest) and worked there until September 1915. A friend of mine (Henry Salyers) and myself walked from Cranes Nest through the mountains to Jenkins, KY and went to work at number 5 mine at Jenkins. There were no roads in this part of the country at the time. I worked there until Christmas 1915, left there and back home. Stayed through Christmas and went to Wilder, VA on the first day of January, 1916. Worked there for the Clinchfield Coal Corporation until late summer. Came back to Cranes Nest and worked until the early summer of 1917. Then went back to Wilder and worked there until the fall. Then went to Glamorgan, VA and worked there until the first day of August 1918. Then on September 5, 1918 I joined the U.S. Army and was sent to Fort Lee, VA. I was assigned Serial Number 4639888 and was a Private in Company D, Second Development Battalion, 155 Depot Brigade, Tr. Cr. I was discharged on December 8, 1918 since the war ended on November 11, 1918.

After the war (World War I) I came back to Cranes Nest and worked there until the 6th day of September 1922. On the 8th day of September 1922 I went to Heiner, KY and worked there until April 1923. I left there and went to Clinchco, VA again working for Clinchfield Coal Corporation. Then in October 1923, I went back to Heiner, KY and worked there until November 1924. I left there and went to War, WV and worked at Excelsior, WV a while, which is now in the corporation of the town of War, WV. Then I went to the Warrior mine which is now also in the corporation of the town of War, WV.

I will now try to name all the different places where I have worked in the coal mines at some time in my life. First in the old Lee mine at Cranes Nest, VA, Toms Creek, VA, Dale Ridge between Toms Creek and Coeburn, VA. Jenkins, KY, Ulvah, KY, Heiner, KY, Pioneer, KY, Banner, VA, Glamorgan, VA, Wise, VA, Wilder, VA, Clinchco, VA, Emboden, VA, Lick Fork, VA, New Hall, WV, Eight, WV, Inwell, WV, Coretta, WV, Yucon, WV, Excelsior, WV, Warriormine, WV, Helen, WV, Hartwell, WV, Berwind, WV, Amanotte or Faraday, VA both are the same place, Jewell Ridge, VA, Jewell Valley, VA, and ended at Toms Creek, Va.

I came back to Toms Creek on September 16, 1941 and worked there until February 12, 1954 when that shut down. (He worked for a while at Lick Fork, VA about 1947-1948).

I joined the Coeburn Methodist Church in the early spring of 1942 and have tried to live a Christian life ever since. When my children were in college, the mines were working so irregular, 2 or 3 days a week, I have thought many times I would have to bring them home since I wasn't making enough money to keep them there, but I prayed that God would make it possible for them to finish their education. God answered my prayer. When time came for them to have more to pay their way, we got it. Thanks be to God.

This story is taken from a newspaper in McDowell County, WV

Note: The family lived in Eight, WV at the time of this story and Tom commuted to work a few miles away in a Model A Ford. He sat his lunch pail on the "running board" of the car and forgot to put it inside before starting his journey. His false teeth were in the lunch pail since they did not fit well.

The Story Headline;

LOSES LUNCH KIT AND FALSE TEETH, HAS APPETITE

It's pretty bad for a man to lose his lunch, but it's much worse when he loses his teeth along with it.

On his way to work last Friday, Tom Rorrer, of Eight, near Newhall, lost his lunch kit. In the kit were his false teeth.

Mr. Rorrer would certainly appreciate it if the person who found the kit and teeth, would return them. He can replace his lunch but he can't do much eating until his teeth are returned and he hasn't lost his appetite.

end of article  NOTE- the teeth were returned but were broken since a car ran over the lunch pail but were repaired by his dentist.

Also in book 379 pages 169-170 D.C. Baker conveyed to Thomas Wise Rorrer, Sr. Lots 13 and 14 on Centre Street in Coeburn. They built a 5 room house on this lot and lived there until 1973 when they moved to Waynesboro, VA and lived with their son, Tom, Jr. and his wife Katherine and their family. Both Clara and Tom died in Waynesboro, VA Community Hospital.

Notes for Clara Georgia Pruett:

Clara's life story by her son Thomas Wise Rorrer, Jr.

Clara Georgia Pruett was born at he parents home in Dry Fork located in rural Tazewell County, Virginia on September 6, 1907. She was the third child born to William Wade Pruett and Imogene Roena Creed. She was one of 16 children, two of whom were stillborn. Two of the others died young, Sherman at age 4 of diptheria and Steve at age 19 of typhoid. Twelve of them lived to adulthood. Most of those that lived to be adults died of heart related ailments. In 2003 only one, Ada, survives.

As a result of this large number of children their family resources were never enough to provide luxury. Their standard of living can be described only as meager, at best. Clara grew up on what can be best described as a rural hillside farm that barely produced enough to feed them, but somehow they survived. They, like their neighbors, grew their own vegetable gardens for table food and crops of corn and oats to feed the chickens, cows and pigs which was their meat and milk supply. They also kept a work horse to do the plowing and it was also used for transportation to the local store about 2 miles away.

The house she was born in burned and was rebuilt, The new house was quite rustic but had 6 rooms. It had no electricity (which finally came about 1946 long after she had left) and no indoor water or plumbing. The water source was a mountain spring under a huge tree which shaded it in summer, and the toilet was the out of doors and later a privy built by the Virginia State Health Department. There was a barn to store hay and to house and feed the animals in winter. They had a smoke house where pork was salted and stored as well as other things. They had what they called the apple house. This was used to store potatoes, apples, and other things during winter. They had a chicken house and lot where the chickens were fed and allowed to roam. Their was also a second barn. Under the main house they dug a cellar and it was used to store the fruits and vegetables they had canned for their winter food.

Clara walked with her sisters to the Rivermont Elementary School which was about 2 miles away. She attended there through the seventh grade. After completing elementary school she attended Big Creek High School located in War, WV. In order to do this she stayed with her Uncle Arch Pruett in Squire, WV, whose school system had bus service. This was not available to her in Tazewell County. She finished the tenth grade out of a 11 grade curriculum.

At this time she dropped out of school and began to work as a domestic at a boarding house for coal miners run by Etta Mae McNew in Hartwell or Valls Creek, West Virginia. She stayed with her Uncle Arch and Aunt Mae Pruett who lived in the community and earned her keep by doing chores such as helping with the washing, ironing and other chores. She enjoyed her stay there and came to view her Aunt Mae as a second mother. She continued to visit her until Aunt Mae's death.

It was at this time that she met her husband to be, Thomas Wise Rorrer, who worked for the coal company. They were married on October 30, 1930 in War, West Virginia at the home of Tom's sister Bessie Osborne. Tom and Clara lived with Bessie and her husband Willard and their son Tommy for a while. It was here that their first son Thomas, Jr. was born. In a few months Tom's step mother, Nanny, became ill and this small family moved to Coeburn, Virginia where she lived in a house owned by Tom, to take care of Nannie. She died soon after their arrival and Tom rented his house and moved to Squire, WV in a house owned by Clara's uncle Arch and was located next door to her Uncle Carl. Their second son, Gene, was born in this house. Tom continued to work in the various area mines in McDowell County, WV owned by the New River and Pocahantas Coal Company. They lived in Squire for a couple of years and moved to Hartwell, WV where their third son Bob was born. From Hartwell, they moved to Eight, WV where young Tom started to school at the age of 5. The mine closed at Eight so they moved back to Hartwell, and then they moved to Berwind, WV where they lived until 1940.

In 1940 Tom changed jobs and mining companies and they moved first to Richlands, VA and Tom worked at Jewell Ridge, VA. He worked there for a few months and then he went to their new mine in Jewell Valley, VA, and they moved there from Richlands. A few months later Tom resigned this job and this necessitated a third move, and a third school for their children in one year. They decided to go to live with Clara's mother, Imogene Pruett, at the homeplace in Tazewell County, VA so that the children could finish out the school year with no further interruptions. Tom found a job in Bishop, VA and worked there for several months. After the school year was finished in about 3 months, they rented a house in Cucumber, WV. Clara and the family lived there until July, 1941.

At this time, Tom and Clara, who owned a home in Coeburn, VA on Wise Road, decided to return there to live and work. They decided the house they owned there was too small for their family and sold it. They purchased another house on what was known locally as Water Tank hill in South Coeburn. This house was built in the boom time of the 1920's for a reported $25,000 but they were able to purchase it for $1500. After painting and minor repairs they moved in August 1941. This house was huge with 9 rooms, two large hallways, a basement and three acres of land with a small orchard and a large garden. Thomas, Jr. started in the sixth grade, Gene in the fourth grade, and Bobby in the first grade there. Clara and the family lived there until 1943 when this house was sold and they moved into town in a house on Second Street on a steep hill above Lacy Fuller's Junk Yard. They lived next door to the High School Principal, Mr. A.D. Bragg. This was an older house with 7 rooms and a porch almost all the way around it. It had an extra lot with a number of plum trees and the rest they used for a garden. It also had a garage, chicken house, coal storage house and a fish pond.

Tom worked at the Blue Diamond Coal Company mine in Toms Creek, VA about 3 miles away. He worked there from 1941 until his retirement in 1954 when the company went out of business as so many coal companies in the area did at that time. These companies could not compete with more mechanized companies that had begun to operate in the area. Tom worked for about one year during this period for the Clinchfield Coal company at Lick Fork, VA in 1947-1948.

Clara and Tom attended the Coeburn Methodist Church every Sunday along with their children. Clara joined the Methodist Church in Berwind, WV and was baptized in the river there by Rev. Edwin Wysor. Her children, Tom, Jr., Gene, and Bobby joined the Methodist Church in 1940 in Richlands, VA and Tom, Sr. joined about 1943 in Coeburn. Tom was baptized in the local Guest River by Rev. R.H. Ballard. Most Sunday's they started with Sunday School followed by the morning Church service. In the afternoon the children attended the Methodist Youth Fellowship and all of them attended the evening Church service. If the children attended each of these services they could attend the Sunday night movie which started at 9 PM at the local theater, which opened only after last church.

Clara worked in the church and was a member of the Women's Society of Christian Service and served on the Board of Stewards. She loved the out of doors and nature and was a Girl Scout leader. She was an active Democrat politically which was the opposite of her husband who was Republican. This created a few discussions and politically confused children.

Clara was a wonderful mother. She was fiercely protective of her children and catered to their real needs, while teaching them a discipline to do for themselves. They were all assigned chores, and if they were not performed to her high standards she let them do them over, correctly. I think she loved her children equally for she tried to make each of them feel they were her favorite. I think she did the same for her daughter's-in-law and her grandchildren.

She firmly believed in educating her children so that they would not have to become coal miners. Her husband, Tom, seemed to share this mission, but in his heart he thought if they became coal miners it would be all right. They worked together to achieve the goal of getting a college education for all three children. They sacrificed a great deal to accomplish this by skimping on things they wanted and needed. They borrowed on the house from the bank and from friends, and were deeply in debt when the boys education was completed. They were completely unselfish in this. They were extremely proud that they were able to educate all three. Two of the children, Bob and Tom, Jr. became pharmacists and Gene became a dentist. When the boys were through school, they paid off the debts and built them a new smaller house which they were very proud of.

Register Report of John Rohrer

One story that illustrates the importance she placed on going to school occurred in the winter of 1941-1942.. We got up at the usual time to go to school only to find out that it was snowing furiously. Tom, Jr. suggested to her that we should probably stay at home because of the snow. She insisted that Dad had made it to work and that we could make it to school. This involved a walk of over a mile. We dressed and started the journey. The snow was waist deep on Tom, Jr. and up to Gene and Bob's shoulders. After about 200 yards of travel the children turned back and told mother how deep the snow was. She was finally convinced. Of course, the school did not open that day, but in 1941-42 there were no public announcements on Television since it had not yet arrived in Coeburn.

Tom and Clara continued to live on second Street until 1960 when they moved into their new home on Centre Street. It was located across the street from Bill and Ruby Patterson and Nookie Baker and next door to Georgia Nickles. They lived there until 1973 when they became ill and moved to Waynesboro and lived with Tom, Jr. and Katherine and their family.

One of the highlights of their life was a trip they took to London. They went with daughter-in-law Katherine. Tom and Clara loved to travel and had already been in most of the continental United States. This trip was always talked about to anyone who would listen and was very special. I think it ranked just behind their love for their children and grandchildren.

Clara suffered several heart attacks and developed congestive heart failure. She died in the Waynesboro Community Hospital on November 18, 1978.

Notes for Abraham Lincoln Rorrer:

Abraham Lincoln (Link) Rorrer lived his last days with James William Compton who cared for him until Link's death.

Abraham Lincoln Rorrer was always known as LINK Rorrer. He was adept at quoting scripture. He was a man of limited schooling yet he never ran out of passages of scripture when anyone would listen to him. Link did not have an easy life and Ellis McKenzie (a cousin) often invited Link to Sunday dinner to give him some relief from his rather humdrum way of life. Nannie McKenzie, Ellis's wife, often told the story of Ellis and Link sitting before the fireplace while she prepared dinner, and Link immediately began quoting scripture with never a letup and Ellis would soon be nodding in his chair. The scripture recital continued until dinner was announced when eating ended the scriptures. Link was not particular about whom he quoted the scripture to. It would be anyone who would listen. Link was a genius about composing songs and he did it on the spur of the moment. He made up songs about everything and everybody. If he liked you he would compose a song and if he didn't like you he most certainly would make up a song for you. His artistic compositions must have numbered in the hundreds and all were sung to the same tune. It is a cultural loss that Link's songs were not written down for posterity. Two have survived in the memory of a few persons. One is about Dr. J. W. H. Dyches who was principal of the Mission School in Patrick County, VA and pastor of Sycamore Church.

Old Dr. Dyches lived near the pike

Near John Chap Terry's

You can tell by his looks

he believed in books

and wants you to learn a little faster.

Around the turn of the century (1900), there was a practice of conscripting labor for public road maintenance. At age 21 Link was performing his first duty on the road program. At noon time he was eating his lunch along with other workers on the porch of Buffalo Ridge Store when Chap Harbour joined the group. Chap was an important person in the community. He had money and made loans to many people who deeply regretted the borrowing, including Thomas Dudley Rorrer. Chap was not a popular person but was often at the store to learn what people were doing and saying. He liked to have his hand in whatever was going on and acted as a sort of straw boss about road maintenance. He felt it was his duty to see that the work was done properly. He provided a plow, a scraper, and a yoke of oxen for the road work. When he joined the group of road workers, he noticed a number of buzzards flying overhead apparently with little effort, he asked Link if he knew how the buzzards could stay up in the air. Well, Link did not know. Then, Chap asked more questions about the buzzards and Link had no answers. Having received no response other than he did not know, he said to Link, I hear you can write songs," can you make up one about me?" Link readily replied with the following song.

There is a man of Adam's race

Chap Harbour is his name

Register Report of John Rohrer

Generation 6 (con't)

He works the road from place to place
with buzzards on his brain
When the overseer comes around
he promptly volunteers
He bring his plow and scraper down
And, also, his yoke of steers.

When Link finished, all the listeners laughed and cheered. Chap feeling somewhat uncomfortable spoke in a commanding voice, " All right, Boys, come on and get to work"..

Link married Lucinda Ross (Pilson) but it was not a sucessful marriage. When Lucinda felt the situation was intolerable, she gave Link $2.00 and rations for two days and told him to go. Link did not want to go but left the house and sat on a rail fence nearby. Observing his reluctance to leave, Lucinda picked up a shot gun and shot over Link's head. That insistence was all Link needed to take off in a hurry to a neighbor's house. Breathlessly he fell in the door and cried out, "She's a shootin at me".

Like others from the area Link went to West Virginia. Lucinda divorced him and he married a West Virginia girl. Later, for some unknown reason, Link left his wife, sold his home, and returned to Patrick County with money in his pockets. He was plagued by attempts to take his money from him. He lived with one family until the lady of the house hit him on the head with a stick of wood trying to make him give her his money. After that episode, Link gave his money to Ellis McKenzie for safe keeping. When Link needed money, he went to Ellis McKenzie for it, always in small amounts. Unfortunately, Link's money did not last as long as he lived and the county had to bury him. It was John Compton who took Link in and cared for him as long as he lived but Jim was financially unable to pay his burial expenses.

It is sad when a person who has so much potential and lacks the opportunity or the desire to bring it to fruition. Links knowledge and use of words was amazing for one with so little formal education. He could select proper words, arrange the effortlessly in rhythmic formation to express beauty and meaning for the entertainment of all who heard his songs.

Abraham Lincoln Rorrer filed for divorce from Lucinda Ross Pilson Rorrer on February 2, 1899 with a summons for her to appear in court on July 1, 1899, delivered by J. A. Adams , deputy for R..J. Woolwine, Sheriff of Patrick County, VA on February 3, 1899.

Hom. S. G. Whittle, Judge of the Circuit Court of Patrick County, VA. Your Orator A. L. Rorrer, humbly complaining, showeth unto Your Honor that in the year 1888, he was married in said County to one Lucinda Pilson, and that they resided together for--some--or years, and there was born to them by said marriage two children. Your Orator complied with and performed all his marriage vows, and provided for and maintained his said wife in the best manner that his station in life admitted, and yet not withstanding all his efforts to please, and all attentions to care for his wife she in the year 1891 wilfully deserted him with the intention never to live with your Orator again, and from that time to present she has refused to live with him, and has spurned all his offers and solicitations to her to again live with him.

The children of their marriage have been with her since their separation, and your Orator does not now ask for said children, unless she desires to send them to him. Your Orator avers that his said wife, Lucinda A. Rorrer, deserted him more than five years ago and has since refused to live with him, although she has known all the time he was anxious and willing for her to live with him again. Your Orator is advised that his said wife deserted him for more than three years, he is entitled to a complete divorce from his bonds of matrimony with her.

Being without remedy save in a court of equity, Your Orator prays that Lucinda Rorrer, be made a party defendant to this bill and required to answer same, but an answer under oath is expressly waived. That Your Honor will grant your Orator a full and complete divorce from the bonds of matrimony existing between him and his wife, and all such further and general relief as he is entitled to. Grant commonwealths writ of spa, and as in duty he will ever pray etc.

J. M. Hooker, P.Q.

The divorce was granted during the October session of the Circuit Court on grounds of desertion, to be effective when all fees were paid by A. L. Rorrer. This was done on November 22, 1899 making the divorce official. A. L. Rorrer's attorney was apparently J.M. Hooker. A William Law gave depositions for Abe.

Notes for Alexander Abram Roar:

From a letter sent ot Bernadine Roar Carroll

Abram Alexander Roar was born after the death of his father. It was a local folk tale that if a child never saw his father he could cure thrush. Many people of the area brought their children to him so that he could blow in their mouth and cure their thrush. (Thrush is a fungal (yeast) infection in the mouth.)

In this same letter it said that Alex received his fathers's army money. (Perhaps from the Civil War).

Notes for James Henry Rorrer:

James Henry (Jim) injured his shoulder trying to roll a wagon wheel to help his team pull a load out of a mud hole. The shoulder later became infected and turned to blood poisoning, killing him.

Obituary from The Raleigh Register, Beckley, WV Friday, November 5, 1926

James H. Rorrer, prominent farmer of the Dameron section of the county, died on Wednesday last, following blood poisoning brought on by an injury to his arm. Mr. Rorrer was 62 years of age and had lived in the county for thee past 40 years or more.

A native of Roane County, he came to Raleigh as a young man and here married Miss Louisa Clay, daughte of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Clay. To this union eleven children were born, eight of whom are now living. They are: Mrs. Burrel Miller, of Stover; Mrs. Tracy Daniel, of Edwight; Mrs. John Lafferty and Miss Elsie Rorrer, of Dameron; Walter, Henry, Frank, and Fred, of Dameron.

His father, John Rorrer, died only last week, after attaining the age of 92 years. Several brothers and sisters also survive him. They are: Ed Rorrer, of Dry Creek; George and Jake Rorrer, of Harper; Mrs. C. M. Dillon, of Maynor; Mrs. Sherman Clay, of Eccles; Mrs. Richard Holt, of South Charleston. He was also a brother-in-law of N.C., A. L., and A. W. Clay, of Beckley.

Mr. Rorrer suffered an attack of Flu and while he was recovering from that, he suffered an arm injury while driving a wagon. The horses turned as he was reaching through the wheel for some purpose and painfully crushed his arm. Later blood poison set in, and this was thought to be the cause of death.

Funeral services were held on Thursday and interment made in the Clay Cemetery at Dameron. The services were conducted by Rev. Skelton, of M. E. Church at Eccles, and by Rev. Henry Pettry. A large number of friends attended thelast rites, showing high esteem in which he was held in the community.

Notes for Robert Lee Rickman:

From a story excerpted from a story in The Enterprise newspaper of Stuart, VA appearing 6/5/1912

Robert Lee Rickman died from Rabies. He was sick thirteen days before his death on May 23, 1912. His symptoms started with depression and feeling very bad. Then he developed convulsions which lasted for a couple of days. He then became quiet and talked to the family, all the time suffering terribly. The family hoped he would soon be better but became worse and died a few days later.

He had been bitten by a rabid horse. The horses head was shipped to a laboratory in Washington, DC for testing but the test was inconclusive due to deterioration. The head was returned with the advice that all who had attended him should go to Richmond, VA to have the State Pasteur Treatment for hydrophobia. As a result his entire family, except his sons Ben and Fred, went to Richmond and received the vaccine. They subsisted in a rental house in West Richmond during their treatment.

Notes for William Elcaney Rorrer:

from Vivian Hopkins Quesinberry

Elcaney and Laura Belle eloped and rode a horse to Winston Salem, NC to get married. It was said that her feet nearly froze, since it was a cold January. It was also about 75 miles to Winston-Salem, a long way to ride on a horse.

He loved to racoon hunt, and it was said he sold a little bootleg whiskey. It was told that he hollowed out a log in his house to put the bootleg in, and then put the dresser in front of it. When the Revenue agents came to search, they could not find it. He had a large apple orchard at his home.

I found several spellings of his name, Elkanah, Elkanie, but the family bible had it Elcanie. His birth certificate lists his name as Wm. E. Rorrer.

from Herbert Lester Rorrer

Charles Ellis Rorrer, Sr. was a master of many trades. He owned a general store until the depression wiped him out in 1929. He lived at the Howe place, now known as Claytor Lake State Park, Dublin, VA in Pulaski County. The house he built is still standing as is the one room school house. Gladys's older brothers and sisters attended is also.

Charlie made lots of furniture, using hand tools and raw materials. He made chairs using hickory caning for the seats. He built homes for other people as well as his own. He had a blacksmith shop where he made horse shoes, repaired wagons, even made the wheels for them. He also ran a cannery, raised tomatoes, and canned and labeled them for Virginia Foods of Pulaski, VA. He was also a lumberjack, and supplied pulp wood for paper mills in Lynchburg, VA. He shipped it by N&W railroad from Pulaski.

He played the banjo and entertained the children by putting his hands behind the oil lamp, casting shadows on the wall and by changing the position of his fingers he made many different characters, making up stories to go with each one.

There was one thing he never learned to master, that of driving an automobile. In trying he even took the fenders off an Model A Ford so he could see where the wheels were running. He was teased by everyone about this and he never lived it down.

This information was given to me by Charles Ellis's daughter Gladys, and as I wrote down the things, I remembered all the things my Dad could do and that he showed me how to do. I also remember the blacksmith shop my grandfather, Samuel Adolphus Rorrer had. It was located by the Mayo River beside the Dobyns road in front of Dennis Hall's home. It was built by my grandfather Sam. All of the Rorrer's that I know most of my life, could and liked to work with wood.

Generation 6 (con't)

In 1935 my grandpa, Sam Rorrer, left Patrick County and I did not see him again until about 1952, when he came to my Dad's house with uncle Ed. I recognized grandpa immediately. He spent the last several years of his life living in Charlottesville, VA. He died from a heart attack while working in the garden on his farm in Woodridge, near Charlottesville. He is buried in the Rock Gate Cemetery in Crozet, VA.

I remember his blacksmith shop near the home he built, which Dennis Hall has lived in the past several years. He had a store there. When he quit the store they held school classes in the building. Grandpa's uncle Cain Rorrer's daughter taught school there. My dad told me many times that grandpa could make anything they needed in his farm shop.

Notes for George Elbridge Hopkins Sr.:

From Vivian Hopkins Quesinberry

George Elbridge Hopkins
Eleonora (None) Morrison

George Elbridge Hopkins is the son of Samuel Austin Hopkins and Mary Elizabeth Rorrer. Eleonora "Nora" is the daughter of James Tyler Morrison and Nancy "Nannie" Ann Shelton. They were married February 5, 1891. They lived in Patrick County, VA all their lives.

George went to school at the old Shamlyn school and Eleonora went to the old Morrison school in Patrick County.

George was a farmer and worked in West Virginia with his brother Joe, who was a contractor, building houses for the miners, between 1910 until approximately 1917. He bought Samuel Austin Hopkins' blacksmith shop tools when they were sold at auction after he died in 1921. He used them to shoe his horses and weld. It came with an old blower that pumped air into the furnace instead of a fan. He and brother-in-law, Charlie Akers owned a cane mill that was used to make molasses. The children grew up enjoying molasses all year.

The children have fond memories of their parents sitting around the fire singing, and "Nora" knitting and tatting. She would knit socks and stockings for the family and tat lace for handkerchiefs, to give as gifts. She had a spinning wheel that she made yarn for the knitting. They were called "Ma and Pa" by the children.

George and "Nora" were members of Sycamore Baptist Church. When the new church was built in 1926, George built the foundation for the church, brother Joe built the church.

They are in the 1993 The Guinness Book of World Records, on page 196 under Golden Weddings. "Six sons and four daughters of George and Eleonora Hopkins of Patrick County, VA, all celebrating their golden weddings between November 1961 and October 1988."

Children are: Arminda "Alice" Cochran, born October 14, 1892, Samuel "Sam" Green, born October 28, 1894, William "Will" Tyler, born July 01, 1896, Della "Eunice" Nolen, born November 21, 1898, Walter Thomas Dudley "Dud", born November 23, 1900, Clara "Beatrice" Carter, born November 02, 1903, Charlie (none), born July 12, 1905, Joseph "Guy", born March 02, 1909, Mary Ruth, born February 25, 1911, "Nancy" Lou Dyches, born March 13, 1913, George "Elbridge", born March 07, 1916.

"Nora" died December 26, 1958, George died December 14, 1960. Both are buried in Fairystone Baptist Church Cemetery.

Notes for Eleonora Morrison:

from Vivian Hopkins Quesinberry

It was said that Grandma loved to knit and tat. She would tat lace to put on handkerchiefs to give as gifts. At Christmas she would make a cake and decorate it with peppermint candy and boxwood leaves. She had the boxwoods all around their house. Uncle Guy said that she made the cake before Christmas and kept it until after Christmas and they were dry when we ate them. He did say if company came, they would eat them before Christmas.

Uncle Guy also said after supper, the family would sit around the fireplace and Grandma would knit socks for the boys and hose for the girls. He said the children would be working on homework or just sitting there listening to grandma and grandpa talk. He said that sometimes they would start singing, and Grandpa played the fiddle. He said he remembered one song in particular that they would sing was "The Lord Will Provide".

We are not quite sure how to spell Grandma's name. Louise Weddle (Aunt Alice's daughter) has the family bible and she said it is in there as Ellnora and in another place as Eleonora.

Notes for Charles Ellis McKenzie:

Paraphrased from the History of Sycamore Baptist Church:

Ellis McKenzie, a member of Sycamore Baptist Church, lived all of his 97 years, except for his last few years, in the vicinity of Sycamore Baptist Church in a home occupied by his family for four generations. His family was always active in the church, and he enjoyed recalling what he knew personally and what he had heard people say about the church. The Rorrer homestead was adjacent to the church and it's pastors and visiting ministers were almost always entertained in the Ellis McKenzie home. He was exposed to much church conversation about the church. He was positive that the first members of Sycamore Baptist Church included, among others, Elder John Turner, Betsy A. Akers, Polly Harbour, a Mrs. Chaney, Bill Shelton and his wife, John T. Morrison and his wife, Joe Morrison and his wife, and he was sure that his great-grandparents, David Rorrer and his wife, his grandparents, Thomas Dudley and Arminda Rorrer, belonged to the group.

Notes for Posey Wilson Rorer:

Posey was a musician and played the fiddle with Charlie Poole and the North Carolina Ramblers. They made a number of recordings that were sold nationally. A complete story of this band is written by Kinney Rorer, called the "Rambling Blues, The Life and Songs of Charlie Poole", published by McCain Printing Company, Inc, Danville, VA.

Posey was afflicted from birth with club feet.

The Posey Rorer Edison Recordings, Including the rejected ones are not only not "not so good" they are stunning and obviously ahead of their time for not only Edison, but for the entire country in the 1920s. Have you heard all of the recordings, and if so where? They are not "ancestors" of bluegrass, they are bluegrass music, which part of the your description don't they fit?-

An Article about Posey Rorer by Kinney Rorer

Posey Rorer was born badly club-footed which may well have influenced him to take up fiddle as a youngster. Born in the hills of Franklin County, Virginia in 1891, his crippled feet would not allow him to run and play with older siblings. Posey's father, Wilson Taylor Rorer, played old time banjo a little and no doubt fired his son's desire to play string music. Posey made his first fiddle out of a wooden cigar box and began playing with his cousin and neighbor, Bob Moore, an old time banjo player. The two would often play dance music in the one room log cabin where the Rorer family lived. During World War I, Posey took a job working as a trapper in the coal mines of Big Stick, WV. It was there where he encountered the free-spirited Charlie Poole. The two became brothers-in-law in 1920 when Poole married Posey's older sister, Lou Emma. In the early 1920's Posey was freed from his club feet by surgery at Johns Hopkins Hospital. The surgery was paid for with money made from a run of moonshine whiskey.

Rorer began playing more dances and shows with his brother-in-law. Rorer and Poole, along with guitarist Norman Woodlieff, went to New York City in 1925 on their own initiative to try to record. Their recordings, released as "Charlie Poole with the North Carolins Ramblers", were smash hits.

Rore's reputation as a smooth mountain fiddler led other musicians to seek him out as a back-up fiddler for their recordings. Between March of 1927 and February of 1928 Posey fiddled his way through six different recording sessions for Victor, Columbia, Gannett, Paramount, and Brunswick Record Companies. Posey accompanied Kelly Harrell, Roy Harvey, Bob Hoke, and of course Charlie Poole. Early in 1928 Rorer and Poole split. Posey went on to record with two Stokes County, North Carolina singers: Matt Simmons and Frank Miller. In the years 1929 and 1930 Posey recorded with Walter "Kid" Smith for Gennett, Columbia, and American Record Companies. The records were issued by "Smith and Woodlieff. The "Carolina Buddies" and "The Dixie Ramblers"..

A few weeks after Poole's death, in Spring 1931, Rorer entered the recording studios for the last time. Posey along with Buster Carter and guitarist Preston Young, cut ten sides for Columbia including the very first recording of "I'll Roll in My Sweet Baby's Arms". Rorer followed Poole in death five years later, at age 44. He was found dead in the Spray, North Carolina park where he and Poole had so often played together in happier times. Rorer left a fine legacy of traditional fiddle tunes, still revered to this day by fans of old-time music.

Daisy Etta was the second child of George and Susan Rorrer. She married Marion Columbus Stanley at the age of 15. They had seven children. Daisy and Lumb, as her husband was called, spent their lives on a farm at Meadows of Dan, VA in Carroll County.

Daisy and her daughter Alva and Alva's husband, Jess Harrell, were killed in a car wreck in 1938 at Meadows of Dan, Virginia at the curve in the road near Cockram's Mill Pond. Their car was hit by a truck belonging to Stuart Lumber Company, driven by an intoxicated driver. He lost an arm in the accident and I believe was given a ten year sentence for manslaughter. Jess Harrell burned with the car. Daisie was thrown from the car. Both Alva and Daisie lived until that night.

Notes for Theodore Roosevelt Rorrer:
from Theodore Roosevelt Rorrer--

Theodore Rorrer was the youngest child of George Floyd Rorrer and Susan Ruth Handy Rorrer. He was born on a farm in Carroll County, VA on October 12, 1901. Here he attended grade school and attended high school in Berea College, KY. While there he was awarded a teacher's certificate, but did not teach. He graduated from a two year course in the National Business College of Roanoke, VA.

The early part of his life was on the family farm. While still young he spent two years in the mercantile business in Bankstown, Meadows of Dan, VA, in the same store his father had opened 30 years earlier. Later he worked as a meat cutter and grocery clerk in Greensboro, NC and the coal fields of West Virginia in such places as Gary, above Welch, Bud, Glen Alum, and Logan.

After graduating from business school, he worked for a while in the general office of the Norfolk and Western Railroad and quit his job there to to accept a position with the Gem-Dandy Garter Company of Madison, NC. Later the name was changed to Gem-Dandy, Inc. He had charge of the Belt Department as Manager and was also a Director and Vice President of the firm. He was a Baptist, Rotarian, Mason and Shriner. His Hobbies were hunting and fishing.

In 1938 he had a most unusual illness; Strep sore throat, abcessed inner ear, hemorrhage from a stomach ulcer, leaking heart valves and double pneumonia. His heart beat 148 times per minute and respiration 45. For 25 days he had no food of any kind. During this period he lost 52 pounds. He gained 47 pounds back in 60 days, was hunting in the mountains in four months and did not miss a day of work due to illness in the next 14 years, The five doctors who attended him said it was prayer and not medicine that was responsible for his recovery. (This was also before antibiotics were available for the treatment of infections).

Theodore married Clarice Catherine Alley Sharp Madison, NC on May 23, 1945. She was the only daughter of Alex and Hettie Alley Sharp.

Clarice had been previously married to James Goad of Mayodan, NC and later divorced from him. She had one son by this marriage, Charles Stephen Goad (Sharp) , born in March, 1930.

Ted and Clarice had one son, George Stephen Rorrer, born January 1, 1948 who was named after his grandfathers Rorrer and Sharp.

Notes for William Asbury Rorer Sr.:

from John Davis Rorer

William Asbury Rorer, Sr. was the president of his senior, junior, and sophomore classes and the Boy's High School Club of the Central Virginia High School Boy's Conference. He was a representative of the Honor League in 1916, and a member of the Webster-Calhoun Debating Society, John W. Daniels Debating Society, Boys High School Club 1915-1919, Lynchburg High School band 1915-17, and winner of the 6th district Debating Medal in 1915. He was the manager of the Lynchburg High School Football team in 1916. He was also voted the handsomest and the most popular boy in his class. He attended College at the University of Virginia and earned a law degree. he also attended the National Law School in Washington, DC.

After college he joined the Federal Bureau of Investigation and served from 1920 to 1937. He served as Bureau Chief of 13 different FBI offices including New York, Philadelphia, Cincinnati, Nashville, San Francisco, Atlanta, Salt Lake City, Birmingham, and Memphis, reopening some and reorganizing the rest under the orders of J. Edgar Hoover.

He was in charge of the St. Paul FBI office at the time of Dillinger's capture. His team and Melvin Purvis's team from Chicago met up at the "Little Bohemia Lodge", in a failed capture attempt on Dillinger and "Baby face" Nelson. He was in charge of the investigation of the Edward G. Bremer $200,000 ransom kidnapping by ("MA" Barker , Alvin Karpis) while in St. Paul and worked on the Lindberg baby kidnapping case and the Robinson-Stoll kidnapping at Louisville, KY. He was active in the capture of "Pretty Boy" Floyd as well.

He captured "Machine Gun Kelly", his wife Kathryn Kelly and his gang, as well as kidnappers of Charles F. Urschel, the Oklahoma oil millionaire, in Memphis Tennessee on September 26, 1933. He was in charge of the Birmingham FBI office when it was discovered that Kelly was hiding out in Memphis. Under orders of J. Edgar Hoover, Rorer headed for Memphis and orchestrated the capture. He placed men in front while he worked his way to the rear. When he stormed the rear of Kelly's hideout, and got the drop on Kelly, Kelly exclaimed "Don't shoot G-man"; the once feared gangster was trembling and cowardly. The G-man term stuck as a name for an FBI agent and is now history. After his time at the FBI he was a businessman owning Colonial Dairies and also Colonial Refrigeration.

He later had several strokes which partially paralyzed his left side. As a result of his weakened condition he fell backwards off the rear door steps of his home, fracturing his skull, and died as result of the injury.

He is buried in Crown Hill Cemetery in Albany, GA.

She was born on 31 Dec 1931 in Richmond, Virginia, USA.

Notes for Thomas Wise Rorrer Jr.:

Thomas Wise Rorrer, Jr. was born at the home of his Aunt Bessie Powell Osborne in War, WV on February 25, 1931. He lived there for a few weeks and then moved to Coeburn, VA so that his father could be with his stepmother who was ill. She died on April 27, 1931. The family stayed on here for a few months.

The family then moved to Squire, WV and lived in a house next to my mother's uncle, Carl Pruett. We lived in a house owned by another of her uncles, Arch Pruett. My brother, Edward Eugene was born while we lived here. We then moved to Valls Creek, Hartwell, WV where my other brother Robert Wayne was born. We then moved to Eight, WV which was so named because it was the Number 8 mine of the New River and Pochantas Fuel Co., a coal mining firm. He started to school here at the age of 5. A short time later this mine "worked out" and we moved back to Valls Creek or Hartwell which was a short distance away. I continued in school here through the second grade. In this school one teacher taught both the first and second grade in one room.

Our next move was to Berwind, WV. I continued in school here through the fourth grade. My brother Gene started to school here also. We moved so often because Dad was employed by The New River and Pochantas Fuel Co. and was on 24 hour call in his job. Each of these towns had a Pochantas mine and we lived in Company housing.

Generation 7 (con't)

During the summer of 1940 we moved to Richlands, VA where my father had taken a job with the Jewell Fuel Company. He worked first at Jewel Ridge and then to Jewel Valley, VA. I started in school in Richlands and attended for about a month. Since I had moved from West Virginia which had a 12 year school system to Virginia which had an 11 year school system I was demoted back to the fourth grade.

We then moved to Jewel Valley since housing there had just become available. This was a new mine and they were building the houses very rapidly to accomodate the workers.

I enrolled in this school in the fourth grade. After a few weeks the teacher we called Miss Lou decided I should be in the fifth grade and promoted me. After a few months, but before the end of the school year my father lost his job and we had to move out of the company housing. Since there was no private housing there we went to live with my grandmother Imogene Pruett who lived in North Tazewell, Dry Fork, VA. Dad thought this would keep us from being in a 4th school in the same year. I enrolled in school there and completed the fifth grade. This was a small school that had 1 teacher and she taught 5 grades. There was one row of each class. She worked a few minutes with each grade, gave them an assignment and moved to the next grade. This was called the Rivermont School and part of the Tazewell County, VA school system.

By the time the school year was finished my father had found other employment at another mine in Bishop, VA and we moved to Cucumber, WV where we lived for about three months. He was dissatisfied with this job and since he owned a home in Coeburn, VA he decided to seek emploment there. He found a job at Toms Creek, VA with the Virginia Iron, Coal and Coke Company. He sold his original home in Coeburn and bought another larger place on the Water tank hill, also in Coeburn. He commuted the 3 miles by private auto to work each day. We moved to the new house in Coeburn in August, 1941. We moved to another house in Coeburn in 1943.

I started to school here in September, 1941 in the sixth grade and continued there until I finished high school in June of 1948.

1941 was a traumatic year with all the moves, but more importantly the start of World War II on December 7, 1941. This was a troubling development for a 10 year old, and difficult to understand what it would mean.

In September of 1948 I entered the School of Pharmacy at the Medical College of Virginia in Richmond, VA. I finished in June 1952. While in Pharmacy school I found a job at a local pharmacy run by a woman, Camilla Jeffries. This was one of the most fortunate happenings in my life. She gave me a job which provided enough money to be able to continue my education. This was a tough period for our family's finances because my fathers job with the coal mining company was threatened. The mines was working only a day or two each week and eventually closed. I continued to work there part time until I completed my schooling. When my senior year arrived she invited me to live at her house rent free during the senior year and I could repay her after I graduated. I recruited a room mate, Jack Stallard, a friend from Coeburn High School. He paid for his room. At my graduation she gave me a note which stated that she was giving me the room and board for that year since her uncle Joe had done the same for her during her senior year. The only condition was that someday I should pass it on to another student. I did this with a donation to the Pharmacy School to be used for scholarships to graduate students.

This was only a part of my good fortune. Later in the same year another renter moved in to one of the other rooms. Her name was Katherine Elizabeth Merryman. She became my wife on June 20, 1953. She was originally from Lynchburg, VA. She had attended high school at Salem Academy in Winston Salem, NC, college at Randolp Macon Womans College in Lynchburg, VA, and had a master in American History from the University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill, NC.

She worked for the American Red Cross in Lakeside, Henrico County, VA for a year and then began to teach at Hermitage High School in Henrico County, VA. She taught until our first child was born in

Register Report of John Rohrer

December 1955. Her last year of teaching was at Douglas Southall Freeman High School in Henrico County, VA.

After graduation in 1952, I went to work for Camilla and worked at Jeffries Pharmacy for 3 years until 1955. After Katherine stopped working I needed more income and so I took a job with Isadore Bass at Laburnum Pharmacy in Richmond, VA as pharmacist and later store manager. Here I was able to polish my skills as a manager and businessman.

Our first son was born on December 26, 1955 and was named after me and his grandfather, Thomas Wise Rorrer, III. He brought new joy and meaning to our lives.

I worked at Laburnum Pharmacy for 5 years. In 1960 a friend, through our mutual friend Douglas Hope Clark, asked if I would consider a partnership with him in a Drug Store in Waynesboro, VA. This friend, William C. Combs, was working in Abingdon, VA at the time and had finished Pharmacy school 2 years after I did. After meeting and discussing it, we decided it would be a worthwhile adventure, so we proceeded enthusiastically to purchase it. This was on September 1, 1960. Bill went to work immediately and I joined him 2 weeks later after giving notice where I had been working.

The store grew steadily during our period of ownership. So too did my family. Our second son, John Merryman Rorrer was born on August 6, 1964 and added great joy to our lives. He was named after his maternal grandfather.

This store grew and in 1964 we opened a second store in Fishersville, VA and in 1965 a third store in Stuarts Draft, VA. The store in Fishersville did not do well and was closed about 1966. The store in Stuarts Draft flourished. We sold these stores to Rite Aid, a drug store chain, in November 1997 and I retired.

Notes for Katherine Elizabeth Merryman:

Katherine was born in Lynchburg, Virginia on February 7, 1925 to John Ayers Merryman and Gertrude Buckingham Merryman. Her father was from Buckingham County, VA and was a traveling salesman for a Lynchburg Shoe Manufacturer and then later he was a Lynchburg merchant. He was employed by the J.R. Milner Department Store in Lynchburg, where he was partner and served as president at the time of his death in 1944. Her mother, Gertrude Buckingham was born in Newark, NJ and her family had moved to Lynchburg, VA. She was a school teacher and died very young in 1931. Katherine's father never remarried. She had one brother, Thomas Buckingham Merryman, who was adopted.

Katherine's mother was the daughter of a jeweler who had lived in Connecticut and New Jersey before coming to Lynchburg. He co-founded a jewelry store there known as Buckingham-Flippen Jewelry Store that is now run by the Flippen family and is still in business at this writing.

Katherine's father was from a farm family in Buckingham County, VA. It was through her grandfather that she was able to join the United Daughters of the Confederacy.

After Katherine's mother died in 1931, her father sold their home, stored the furniture, and moved them in with her maternal grandmother, Kate Brooks Buckingham on Rivermont Avenue in Lynchburg. She shared this home with them when she was not away in school until her father's death in 1944 and her grandmother's death in 1946, shortly before she graduated from Randolph Macon Womans College. At the death of her grandmother the house was sold and the possessions divided between Katherine, her brother Tommy, and her uncle Edwin Wheeler Buckingham, Jr., a physician from Newport News, VA.

Katherine attended grade school in Lynchburg, partly in private and then public schools there. Her father with the aid of her aunt, Florence Merryman who was Ben's wife, decided that in the absence of her mother she would be better served in a private high school. Together they chose Salem Academy High School in Winston Salem, NC, where aunt Florence had attended. She attended school there for 4 years and graduated with honors in 1942.

She attended college at Randolph Macon Womans College in Lynchburg, VA, which was her mothers wish. I think she would have liked a little more say in this decision, but her father insisted. She graduated after 4 years with a BA in American history. The joy of attending college was shattered by the death of her father by suicide and later by her grandmother's death.

Since her grandmother died shortly before her graduation she now needed a place to live as well as a job. She stayed at the home of her Aunt Elizabeth Candler in Lynchburg during the summer after graduation from RMWC. She was offered a position as a history teacher at St. Margaret's Episcopal School in Tappahannock, VA. She accepted it since it offered a place to live as well as a teaching job. She taught there for 4 years. She enjoyed this job very much.

At this time she decided to go to graduate school and get a masters degree in history. She enrolled at The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and received her masters in American history in the summer of 1951. She set out then to find a job.

It was too late to land a teaching job since the contracts for teaching positions were made earlier in the summer. She accepted a job at the Lakeside Branch of the American Red Cross in Richmond, VA and worked there for 1 year.

She found a place to live in the home of a friend of her boss, Margaret Bowers. The friend was Camilla Jeffries, a pharmacist and pharmacy owner of Jeffries Pharmacy at 3336 N. Boulevard in Richmond, VA.

Their home was located at 1609 Wilmington Avenue in Richmond. There were several other people living in the home. Dr. Susan Lough a retired history department chairwoman at Westhampton College, Maude Woodfin, Camilla's grandmother, Chester Jeffries, her mother, pharmacy students Jack Stallard and Thomas Wise Rorrer, Jr., her future husband.

Thomas and Katherine were married on June 20, 1953 by Reverend Stamo Spathy, Rector of Christ Episcopal Church located on Laburnum Avenue at Hermitage Road in Richmond. This is the church at the famous A.P.Hill Monument site. They were married at Emmanuel Episcopal Church at Brook Hill on Brook Road in Richmond since Christ Church was not yet finished. The congregation was meeting at a theater on MacArthur Street.

They moved into a home in Lakeside in Henrico County, VA located at 6005 Clover Lane, on June 23, 1953. Katherine furnished the money for the down payment on the home. At this time she took her mother's furniture out of storage, had it refinished and moved it to Richmond. In September Thomas' two brothers, Eugene and Bobby moved in so that they could afford to attend college. Eugene was enrolled at the University of Richmond and later graduated from the Medical College of Virginia Dental School in 1958. Bobby enrolled in the Medical College of Virginia Pharmacy School and graduated in 1957. A good deal of her salary and resources supported this effort. Each brother continued to live there until their graduation. She was a very generous and understanding person.

Katherine accepted a job with the Henrico County School system in September 1952 and worked at Hermitage High School until June 1954. In the fall she transferred to a new school, Douglas Southall Freeman High School, to become the Chair of the History Department. She taught there for 1 year.

Katherine and Tom's first son Thomas Wise Rorrer, Jr. was born on December 26, 1955 at the Medical College of Virginia Hospital in Richmond. I am sure this was one of the two high points in her life. After Buddy was born she did not work regularly again. She became a devoted "stay at home" mom.

Register Report of John Rohrer

On September 1, 1960 they bought a drug store in Waynesboro, VA. with a partner William C. Combs. She contributed Tom's part of the down payment. Thomas had worked 3 years for Camilla Jeffries and 5 years for Isadore Bass at Laburnum Pharmacy in Richmond, where he had gained enough experience to strike out on his own.

Katherine and son Buddy stayed on in Richmond until November 1960 when they rented a house at 129 DuPont Circle in Waynesboro, VA. In December 1961 they bought a house at 1601 Edgehill Road.

On August 6, 1964 their second son, John Merryman Rorrer, was born at the Waynesboro Community Hospital in Waynesboro. This was another high point in her life. She adored her children.

Katherine was born into a Presbyterian family and remained there until college. At this time she attended St. John's Episcopal Church in Lynchburg and joined this church. She was confirmed by Henry D. Phillips, Bishop of Southwest Virginia on March 31, 1946, who was assisted by Rev. Robert C. Magill. She attended the Episcopal Church in Tappahannock while living there and on moving to Richmond she joined Christ Episcopal Church. In Waynesboro she joined the congregation of St. John's Episcopal Church. While attending St. John's she served on the vestry, taught Sunday school, tried Altar Guild, and served several years as treasurer until her death. She also helped Amy Warren establish a primary school in the church and served as its treasurer.

At some time during her life Katherine was a member of The American Association of University Women, the League of Women Voters, The Waynsboro Republican Committee, Chair of the Waynesboro Safety Commission, member of the Waynesboro Historical Commission, The United Daughters of the Confederacy, the John Alden Kindred Society, and the Judea Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution in Washington, Connecticut and at times served as a delegate to their national convention in Washington, DC along with her cousin Estella West. Her eligibility for these organizations came from her mother's heritage.

Katherine died on July 6, 1996 of Malignant Histicytosis, a type of cancer, at the Augusta Medical Center in Fishersville, VA. She was cremated and is buried in the Churchyard of St. Johns Episcopal Church in Waynesboro. This is recorded on a plaque with the other burials in the Chapel of St. Johns, and she is memorialized by a plaque on a building she helped her sons purchase for their business, E&E Plumbing & Heating, in Stuarts Draft, VA.

She was a wonderful person, wife, mother and friend.

Children of Thomas Wise Rorrer Jr. and Katherine Elizabeth Merryman are:

- i. Thomas Wise Rorrer III, B: 26 Dec 1955 in Medical College of VA Hosp., Richmond, VA^[943].

Notes for Thomas Wise Rorrer III:

Thomas W. Rorrer, III, who we call Buddy to distinguish him from his father and grandfather, was born in the Medical College of Virginia Hospital in Richmond, Virginia on December 26, 1955 to Thomas and Katherine Merryman Rorrer. The family lived at 6005 Clover Lane in Henrico County, VA just outside the Richmond city limits in a three bedroom frame ranch house. Buddy was the first born of their two sons.

On September 1, 1960 the family purchased a pharmacy in Waynesboro, VA and over the next 2 or 3 months completed a move there. Buddy was not quite five years old. He had to leave his old friends behind and begin to make new ones there. The family moved into a rental house at 129 DuPont Circle, just across the street from the pharmacy. There were only a few children his age in this neighborhood. In order for him to meet new playmates we entered him into Mrs. Kerlin's Kindergarten. At the end of that year the family moved to 1601 Edgehill Road in Waynesboro and Buddy still lives there. The next year he entered first grade in her school and completed his first year there. When he entered second grade the next year he attended Westwood Elementary School and finished the seventh grade there. He entered eighth grade at the Waynesboro High School and finished the twelfth grade there, graduating in 1973. Buddy was active in the Boy Scout Troop sponsored by the Waynesboro Kiwanis Club and was a First Class Scout. During his scouting time his most exciting activity was a trip to the Philmont Boy Scout Ranch in New Mexico. This was a two week hiking trip with field pack and sleeping outdoors. He was always interested in automobiles, motorcycles and the like. He started with a 50 cc Honda minibike, then a 70 cc one, then a larger 125 cc Yamaha and then a Rickman for motocross. He tried this but was more interested in taking it apart and tinkering, than in riding it. He also tried his hand at action photography at the local motocross races. This photography has been a lifetime pursuit and he still enjoys auto racing. He is also a technology buff in stereos and computers.

He attended Christ Episcopal Church in Richmond and was baptized there by Rev. Stamo Spathy. His Godmother was Nancy Alexander. In Waynesboro he attended St. Johns Episcopal Church and is still a member in 2003.

He went to college at Virginia Commonwealth University in Richmond where he was an Dean's list student and has a degree in Business Administration. After college he returned to Waynesboro and worked in the two pharmacies owned by his father and his father's partner, William C. Combs. He continued there until the stores were sold to Rite Aid in 1997. While working at the pharmacy, he and his brother John opened a Plumbing and Heating business in Stuarts Draft, Va. Buddy kept the financial records for this firm while continuing his work at the pharmacy. In 1997 he went to work full time at E & E Plumbing and Heating and continues there. The firm has expanded from the four earliest employees to more than fifty in 2003. He purchased the family home from his father in 1997 and still lives there in 2003.

E&E Plumbing and Heating was founded in 1976 by E.N. Eavers of Stuarts Draft, Virginia. The Current owners, John and Thomas Rorrer, Purchased the company in April of 1990. In the last 10 years E&E has grown from 3 employees to 60. E&E was built on the simple but important philosophy of customer satisfaction at any price.

E&E Plumbing and Heating runs 4 full service divisions:

HVAC & Plumbing Service, Repair and Preventive Maintenance

New Construction Plumbing & HVAC Projects

Kitchen and Bath Remodeling

Excavating, Water and Sewer Line Installation & Repair, Septic System Installation & Repair

E&E Plumbing & Heating also contributes heavily to local charities because we feel it is equally important to have civic responsibility in everything we do.

- ii. John Merryman Rorrer, B: 06 Aug 1964 in Waynesboro Community Hospital, Waynesboro, Va 22980^[943], M: Kathryn Lynn Krane, 18 Aug 1994 in Waynesboro, Va 22980 at Attorney Gordon Poindexter's office^[539].

Notes for John Merryman Rorrer:

John Merryman Rorrer was born in the Waynesboro Community Hospital in Waynesboro, Virginia on August 6, 1964 to Thomas and Katherine Merryman Rorrer. The family lived at 1601 Edgehill Road in Waynesboro in a ranch style 3 bedroom home next to the ninth tee at the Waynesboro Country Club.

He attended early pre-school at the Presbyterian Church in Staunton, which was run in conjunction with an education program at nearby Mary Baldwin College. He went to public school kindergarten and elementary school at the Truman Southall Elementary School in Waynesboro. From there he attended the Kate Collins Junior High School and won an award as the most improved intramural athlete. He graduated from Waynesboro High School in 1982 and was a member of the Beta Club. While in high school he was a member of the golf team, and they won the Virginia State Championship during his senior year. I guess it pays to live next door to the golf course. He attended St. John's Episcopal Church in Waynesboro and was active and a regular attender. During his senior year he attended the First Baptist Church Sunday School. He was a member of the Waynesboro Methodist Church sponsored Boy Scout Troop and attained the rank of Eagle Scout. He was also active in Demolay, a masonic order.

He then attended Virginia Tech in Blacksburg, VA and received a degree in Business Administration in 1986. After graduation he decided to become a plumber and worked with two different Plumbing Companies in Blacksburg for two or three years. In 1990, he and his brother Buddy purchased the E & E Plumbing Company in Stuarts Draft, VA. It was a small firm and John made their third employee. This year, 2003, it is a prosperous firm with more than 50 employees and probably ranks second in their trading area of Waynesboro, Staunton and Augusta County.

On August 18, 1994 he was married to Kathy Romig in the office of his friend and family attorney, Gordon W. Poindexter, Sr. Kathy had been previously married and he immediately became the step-father of a 5 year old daughter, Ellen Midyette. Soon after, they built a home in Staunton and live there at this time.

He married Glenda Fay Stanley on 17 Jun 1961 in Richmond, VA, daughter of Edward Reed Stanley and Mary Velma Newberry. She was born on 17 Feb 1941 in Clintwood, VA^[944].

Notes for Edward Eugene Rorrer Sr.:
from Edward Eugene Rorrer

A Matter OF Faith by Dr. E. E. "Gene" Rorrer

I grew up in the coal fields of West Virginia and Virginia in the 1930's and 40's. My early memories of coal camps are generally dark and vague, but I have vivid memories of special events. Usually these clearer memories involve some event that evoked either a pleasant feeling or an incident which was decidedly unpleasant. Either way, I have had cause for periodic reflection over the years and I suppose that kept the memories clear and dear.

One memory of sixty years ago stands out as if it happened yesterday. I was a first grader, brother Tom was a third grader, brother Bob was a four year old. We were in the kitchen in Berwind, WV with Dad and Mother discussing our educational prospects. Dad led the conference and laid out the plan. Boys, on a coal miner's salary, I know I can't send all three of of you to college , but to college you will go. I'll send Tom, who will send Gene, who will send Bob. Then he discussed the plan in a little more detail. I'll never forget the sensation I felt, because Dad made us feel so much a vital part of the discussion.

Looking back, that seemed like an ambitious plan that could work as long as nothing unexpected came up and everyone did his part. But to me, the most important aspect of these conversations were that they took place at all. Why were parents discussing college with four, six, and eight year old children? Yet, those memories were to sustain me so well during the trying years of working to implement the simple plan, conceived early on, and reinforced by periodic follow-up sessions over the years.

Just knowing how much depended on me to do my part made the hard work seem less like drudgery than just the right thing to do. Though I was no dedicated scholar, I never considered not finishing the job.

Our parents support was a given. I always felt they would somehow see that it got done, if I would only put forth a reasonable effort. Of course, at times things seemed hopeless, when I hated so badly to ask them for money which I needed and they often did not have.

In later years, Dad told me that " when things looked so hopeless, I prayed that God would help us, and he always did". Things just seemed to fall into place, and help often came from the most unexpected sources. This certainly made it easy to believe the concept that " God works in mysterious ways". Else, one would have to think that an awful lot of coincidences occurred.

In order to understand their fierce dedication to educating us, I guess you need to consider their personal experiences in growing up. Dad had to quit school at age 13 to support his ailing father and step-mother. He always regretted that he only got to the fifth grade. He worked in the coal mines, driving mules which opened and closed air vents, loading coal and other menial jobs,. Eventually, he became a blacksmith and then an electrician.

He thus missed not only the carefree years of childhood, but also most of his formal education. Dad completed high school by correspondence courses, and also also completed several years of work toward a degree in electrical engineering in the same way.

Mother was one of sixteen children growing up on a mountainside farm in Tazewell County, VA. They raised all their food except sugar, salt, flour, spices, etc and bartered with eggs, milk, and produce for the other things they needed. Since roads were poor and there were no buses, she lived with her uncle Carl for a time so that she could attend high school.

Life was not easy, nor was acquiring an education. I expect this is an adequate explanation of their strong emphasis on getting an education and on their willingness to back up their interest with years of hard work and sacrifice.

They created a stable, loving, family atmosphere with emphasis on religious activity, strong family ties and goals which were established early, and followed up with unrelenting tenacity. Their aim was for a close-knit family life, attaining optimal educational development for their children, within the bounds of religious and social responsibility. They were much involved with Methodist Church work. Mother with Womas Club, the women's organization of the church, and with Girl Scouts. Dad sang in the choir, served on the Board of Stewards, and contributed countless hours repairing things at the Coeburn Methodist Church in Coeburn, VA. He constructed a concrete floor in the church basement, manufactured and installed the first metal coal-chute door, and was always installing plumbing and doing electrical work. We boys sometimes helped. Dad believed in strict tithing as well..

I remember going to church several times a week; Sunday School, Sunday Morning Church Service, the Methodist Youth Fellowship on Sunday afternoon followed by the Evening Church Service. Then there was Youth choir practice, Wednesday night prayer meetings, Revival Services and inter-church meetings. If you did all these things you could go to the 9 P.M. Sunday night movie.

Dad always went out of his way to praise us, pointed out our strong points, and made us aware of them. Mother was a little more critical at times, but fiercely protective and proud of our accomplishments. She was a woman of great personal pride.

Working in the mining industry was always an uncertain financial situation. When economic times were good in the country, miners made good money, but in bad times, general and "wildcat" union strikes against their employers were common and sometimes lasted for months. Therefore, even the people who were financially better off were strapped at times. To me it seemed we were about as well off as most but not better off. We had pretty much what we needed while there was no abundance. I was a little shocked when someone told me at age 35 that we had been poor. Everything is relative, I guess.

By the time college time came the mines were not working regularly, and money was a big problem and continued through all the college years. Brother Tom began Pharmacy School at the Medical College of Virginia in Richmond in 1948. The insurance policy Dad had bought some years earlier was for $1000.00 which when purchased would have covered 4 yearss in college. By 1948 it did not cover a full year. Dad worked all he could get, but it was never enough. One week he worked eleven 8 hour shifts plus 5 hours.

By the time I started pre-dentistry at Hiwassee College in Hiwassee, Tennessee we were borrowing money to make ends meet. We boys worked at part- time jobs while attending school. I earned 25 cents an hour at Hiwassee College. However it only cost Five Hundred Dollars a year to attend, including room and board. But these dollars were hard to come by.

We borrowed money from relatives, colleges, fraternities, lodges, and anywhere it was available. The family home had been paid for but was again mortgaged to provide funds. Tom finished Pharmacy School in 1952 and Bob started Pharmacy School in 1953. I transferred to Union College in Barbourville, KY after 1 year at Hiwassee. After one year there I transferred to the University of Richmond (VA) in 1952. Bob came to Richmond in 1953 also so we were there. Tom married in 1953, and he and Katherine bought a house in Lakeside, and Bob and I moved in with them and commuted to school.

During those years from 1948 until I graduated from Dentistry School in 1958, Mother and Dad had at least two of us in college every year except one. They literally ate beans instead of steak, and gave us their total support. They sacrificed in every imaginable way to get us wherever we needed. Dad's credit was impeccable. People would extend credit to the extent of "whatever he would promise to repay, and he repaid ever cent we borrowed from all sources.

During summers, we worked whatever jobs we could find. There were none available to us in our hometown of Coeburn. One summer Tom and I worked at Colonial Beach Restaurant for $10.00 per week plus room and board. Two summers Bob and I worked in the food canneries of Illinois and Wisconsin for $1.07 per hour. We hitch-hiked to and from the jobs as well as to school. During the school year, Bob and I worked at a drug store where Tom worked as Pharmacist. We delivered prescriptions and worked the soda fountain 30 or 35 hours per week.

One summer I worked the 40 hours per week at one job, 30 hours at the drug store, and 15 to 20 hours per week gardening, as long as I could stand it. I eventually gave up the gardening job.

In 1954 the mine where Dad was working, Toms Creek's Blue Diamond Coal Company, went out of business. Most other mines in the area ceased operating also. Dad was 57 years old. He took a job with the Town of Coeburn making 75 cents an hour, which was quite a bit less than he made in the mines. Before long he was promoted as superintendent of the Coeburn Water Works.

During Tom's second year of Pharmacy School he took a part time job at Jeffries Pharmacy. It was owned by Pharmacist Camilla Jeffries. Her mother Chester Woodfin Jeffries allowed students to board in her home. In Tom's senior year Chester and Camilla worked out a deal whereby they would allow him to stay with them and pay for it after he graduated. On graduation day they forgave the debt as graduation present, to pass along a like gift she had received when she was in Pharmacy School. This freed up much of the money for my school expenses. The advent of the Jeffries in our lives surely qualifies as one of the ways God answered Dad's prayers, for they played a significant role in our education. I boarded there for one year and Tom for two years. It was in home where Tom met his wife, Katherine Merryman.

I lived with Tom and Katherine for five years, and Bob for 4 years. Katherine had to be one of the world's truly great persons to put up with us during the first years of her marriage. She was always supportive and proud of our accomplishments. She played a major role in helping bring Dad's plan to a happy conclusion.

Mother's role was heroic of it's own accord. She stretched the budget, laundered our clothes and mailed them to us, and often repaired them and hers, to avoid the expense of new ones. Yet she always managed to look neat and well groomed. She always built us up when we were discouraged.

It was a full-time job doing the school work. You needed good grades to be accepted into Dental School. Once there it was even harder. There were certainly times I felt like quitting but when I thought how hard Mother and Dad were working, I felt ashamed and rejected the idea. Theirs was leadership by example.

I now know there is much truth in the assumptions that "God will Provide" and "The Lord Works in Mysterious Ways". Certainly, Dad and Mother received some unexpected and timely support along the way. I found it nothing short of miraculous, the sources of help we received.

But, It all started with my parents dream. They conceived a goal, dedicated themselves to accomplishing it, and sacrificed unstintingly to make it come true. A little extra help along the way could very well have been the answer to prayers they offered when things seemed too much to handle.

Of course, there is no way we could ever repay them. Since it took me eight years of school, I figured I owed them the most. As a token I paid off the remaining home mortgage so that they were out of debt for probably the first time since they were married. They were appreciative and it surely made me feel good.

In Loving Memory of Jane Stacy Robbins Rorrer

Thro' many dangers, toils, and snares,
I have already come;
'Tis grace hath cro't me safe thus far,
And Grace will lead me home

When we've been there ten thousand years,
bright shining as the sun,
We've no less days to sing God's praise
than when we first begun.

Notes for Bessie Alma Rorrer:
From Vivian Hopkins Quesinberry

Bessie Alma Rorrer, daughter of William Elcaney "Cain" Rorrer and Laura Belle Cruise Rorrer, was born April 24, 1900 in Patrick County, VA. She went to school at Central Academy, located at the crossroads outside of Stuart, VA. During bad weather, she would stay with her grandparents, James Tyler and Lucinda Rorrer, who lived close to the school.

Mama never had an outside job, but the family kept her plenty busy. She was chief cook, bottle washer, gardener, seamstress and doctor.

Mama made a lot of our clothes over the years. She made quilts out of the scraps of cloth. She learned to crochet, embroider, when she was young and made many pairs of pillowcases, doilies, etc. She would always look at the Almanac and tell Papa when it was time to plant the garden. Papa would get everything ready for the planting. He was always so busy working, that he depended on her to say when it was time to put what seed in the ground. She always said there was a certain time for below ground and above ground. My brother Ralph, learned the hard way on when to plant the seed. He planted green beans when it was time to plant below ground, and Mama told him he wouldn't have any beans to speak of. He showed her how pretty and bushy the plants were and Mama still told him he wouldn't have any beans. Well, who do you think was right?

Christine ran a sewing machine needle over finger and nail when she was young. . Mama put turpentine on it, put it in place, wrapped it, and Papa put a splint on it. It healed nicely, but is just a little crooked if you look at it closely.

Another time Dewey and Leonard were cutting wood, and as boys will do, started getting a little mischievous. Leonard kept putting his finger on the chopping block, daring Dewey to hit it. Well, the obvious happened, and Leonard ran to the house hollering. Dewey looked down and there was the end of Leonard's finger on the chopping block. Mama got the end of the finger, put turpentine on it, put it in place, wrapped it, and it grew back together too. That finger was always a little longer than the one on the other hand. Dewey and Leonard were about 10 and 12 years old.

Mama canned meats and vegetables, made preserves, jams and jellies every year. Dr. Dillard came to the house to see one of the children, saw all the canned food, and told Mama that he knew why the children were so healthy! Earlier years, with so many children, she canned in half-gallon jars. Later years she canned in quarts and pints.

Not only did she cook for the family, but also cooked for other family members that boarded with them from time to time. She said she washed clothes on a wash board before she got a Maytag washer, and her knuckles stayed sore from one week to the next. When I was old enough to help with the washing, Mama would get me to empty the water from the washer. Being the smart lady she was, she would put a dime or a nickel in the washer for me to find. If I was lucky, I would find more money if some was left in Papa's pants or the boys jeans. I always looked forward to wash day, which was Monday.

Mama and Papa were members of the First Baptist Church in Draper. He was a deacon. Mama would get up and cook Sunday dinner before she went to church.

Notes for Samuel Green Hopkins:
From Vivian Hopkins Quesinberry

Samuel Green Hopkins, son of George Elbridge Hopkins and Eleonora (none) Morrison, was born October 28, 1894, in Patrick County, VA. He went to Shamlyn School in Buffalo Ridge, and Central Academy at the crossroads, outside of Stuart, VA. He said he went through the 7th grade. It was probably equivalent to a high school education now, maybe more.

Papa and Mama were married January 18, 1917, in Buffalo Ridge, VA. They had 12 children. Papa said "they were cheaper by the dozen." He made us call him "Papa"; said he didn't like "daddy". He called his parents Ma and Pa.

They started married life in Stotesbury, WV. He went there to work in the mines, but had claustrophobia, and couldn't work under ground. He helped build the boarding house that was used by the miners. They moved back to Buffalo Ridge, VA, after a few years. Papa, along with brother Will, owned and operated a lumber yard and blacksmith shop until he moved to Draper (now Eden) NC.

First child Christine, was born in Stotesbury, WV. Ralph, Ernest, Gordon, Pauline and Virginia were born in Patrick County, VA. Dewey, Leonard, Vera, Lawrence, Vivian and Janice, were born in Draper(now Eden), Rockingham County, NC.

Their move to Draper, NC was in 1929. Papa worked for Fieldcrest Mills as an electrician during the day, and boiler man on the third shift. He said he could catch a nap between stoking. He, along with brothers Charlie and Guy, owned Hopkins Grocery Store. Papa and Uncle Guy later owned Hopkins Coal and Wood Yard. Papa moved people in the truck used to haul wood. After he sold the coal and wood yard, he bought two tractors and went into long haul trucking, leasing them to Morgan Trucking Company. Branch Motor Lines bought out Morgan Trucking Company, so he sold his trucks and drove for Branch Motor Lines until he retired at age 67.

Sam and Bessie bought 36 acres of land in 1936, built a house in 1937, and lived there until their deaths. Papa died in 1983, Mama died in 1989. Both lived to be eighty-nine years old.

When he first moved to Draper, he and Uncle Guy belonged to the "Odd Fellows Lodge". Later, he became a Christian and joined the First Baptist Church in Draper, where he was a deacon. Both Mama and Papa were members of First Baptist Church in Draper.

Papa loved peppermint candy, lots of sugar in his coffee, and teared when he laughed, like his father. He was both a loving and stern father. He didn't believe in "sparing the rod and spoiling the child". I deserved every spanking I got from him. They made me a better person I'm sure. I remember each one and why I got it. Each one of us loved and respected, and miss them very much.

She traveled with him to France, Japan, the Phillipines and then divorced him. The fourth marriage was to George Stewart of Panama City, FL. Stewart died on April 15, 1979 and both are buried in Panama City.

The only children were by Luddie Groom, Luddie Maurice and Victor Dale.

Agnes was a very kind gentle person and had a smile for everyone she met. She died of cancer of the liver and spleen. She was a "free bleeder" so she could not have surgery. She had a stroke that left her right hand paralyzed. Even with all the illnesses she still tried to live a near normal life as she could. Her sister Gladys visited her in March 1980 and said she sure had the will to live. She ran a day nursery called Danna's Day Nursery which was named after her only grandchild.

Generation 7 (con't)

698. Gladys Clarabell Rorrer-7(Charles Ellis-6, Abram Alexander-5, Michael Andrew-4, David Alexander-3, David Alexander-2, John-1)^[2] was born on 15 May 1929 in Pulaski, VA^[2]. She died on 21 Mar 2006 in Canton, Stark Co., OH^[248]. She married Edwin C. Parks Jr. in May 1947, son of Edwin C. Parks Sr. and Hattie Turman. He was born on 11 Jan 1900. He died in Jan 1974 in Canton, Stark Co., OH^[248].

Notes for Gladys Clarabell Rorrer:
from Herbert Lester Rorrer

When Gladys was about 9 months old, her brother Troy cut his toe. They were putting turpentine on his toe and set the open bottle on the floor. Gladys crawled over to the bottle and drank the turpentine. She almost died in spite of what they could do for her. Her dad rode his horse 7 miles to get the doctor. For several days they did not expect her to live and the turpentine did permanent damage to her body. Her internal organs never developed and she attained the size of an eleven year old. Gladys said her mother and all her sisters have heart murmurs, hers being worse. She has had many major operations and several minor ones. Gladys gave me this information.

Gladys worked in a garment factory, then went back to school and took a course in cosmetology and opened her own shop. Health problems forced her to give it up. Five of the girls in her family had hysterectomies while they were in their twenties or thirties. Gladys said that all of her mother's people except Grandpa Shockley died from cancer. On her dad's side all have lived to seventy and beyond and died of a heart attack. Their parents home was completely destroyed by fire in 1952. Gladys remembers her grandmother had a truck but someone else had it at the time of the fire. Gladys's father had his appendix removed in 1957 and was sent home with the stitches still in to recover his strength so that he could have a hernia repair. He died from a heart attack on January 10, 1958 and is buried at the homeplace on Robinson Tract Road in Pulaski, VA.

Notes for Thomas Stearns Rorrer Sr.:
from Herbert Lester Rorrer

Thomas Stearns Rorrer likes hunting, fishing, camping. He is a Baptist. When he was about 4 months old he fell off the bed and broke his collar bone. He once tried to teach Gladys and Ann, his sisters, to swim. They went out on a boat, tried to swim, but got scared and he rescued them. This made them afraid of the water and they never learned to swim. Once he had friends visiting from school and they decided to have an egg cook out. They took a five gallon bucket to get eggs. They gathered eggs including the one under the setting hen. They started a fire in the barn and when the smoke started coming out everyone thought the barn was on fire. When their dad found out the cause of the smoke he did not spare the rod and spoil the child. Thomas was in a car wreck and has a steel plate in his head and got his nose broken.

Generation 7 (con't)

The town of Stuart used to be the only place that had electric power, about 1928-1929. The power house was in an old building near the Stuart Lumber Company. My Dad and Mama lived up on the hill above the power house near the Green Hylton home. Dad went down each evening and pulled the switch to turn the power on and went back in the morning and pulled the switch to cut the lights off. Once he was too sick to go down in the evening and mama went down and pulled the wrong switch and Stuart did not have any lights that night and maybe another night. This information came from Dad's half brother, Uncle Curtis. Mama remembered the power house when I mentioned it.

All of the children gave Dad and Mama a reception at the Patrick County Bank on their Fiftieth wedding anniversary, November 28, 1978.

Notes for Arminda Alice Hopkins:
From Vivian Quesinberry

Aunt Alice wrote a story of her childhood for her family. She told of growing up in Patrick County, of her school days, teachers, etc. She told about each brother and sister born, and what they meant to her. Her children had asked her to write about her life, and when she died, they found the story in her trunk, written in long hand, in a composition notebook. Copies were made and given to all of the children. Her daughter, Sylvia, has the original copy. She started it March 6, 1933.

Aunt Alice's land joined Papa's land so I saw a lot of her. She was a very sweet lady, and everyone loved her.

She was born on 24 Apr 1900 in Buffalo Ridge, Patrick County, VA^[335]. She died on 18 Apr 1989 in Eden, Rockingham County, NC^[335].

Notes for Samuel Green Hopkins:
From Vivian Hopkins Quesinberry

Samuel Green Hopkins, son of George Elbridge Hopkins and Eleonora (none) Morrison, was born October 28, 1894, in Patrick County, VA. He went to Shamlyn School in Buffalo Ridge, and Central Academy at the crossroads, outside of Stuart, VA. He said he went through the 7th grade. It was probably equivalent to a high school education now, maybe more.

Papa and Mama were married January 18, 1917, in Buffalo Ridge, VA. They had 12 children. Papa said "they were cheaper by the dozen." He made us call him "Papa"; said he didn't like "daddy". He called his parents Ma and Pa.

They started married life in Stotesbury, WV. He went there to work in the mines, but had claustrophobia, and couldn't work under ground. He helped build the boarding house that was used by the miners. They moved back to Buffalo Ridge, VA, after a few years. Papa, along with brother Will, owned and operated a lumber yard and blacksmith shop until he moved to Draper (now Eden) NC.

First child Christine, was born in Stotesbury, WV. Ralph, Ernest, Gordon, Pauline and Virginia were born in Patrick County, VA. Dewey, Leonard, Vera, Lawrence, Vivian and Janice, were born in Draper(now Eden), Rockingham County, NC.

Their move to Draper, NC was in 1929. Papa worked for Fieldcrest Mills as an electrician during the day, and boiler man on the third shift. He said he could catch a nap between stoking. He, along with brothers Charlie and Guy, owned Hopkins Grocery Store. Papa and Uncle Guy later owned Hopkins Coal and Wood Yard. Papa moved people in the truck used to haul wood. After he sold the coal and wood yard, he bought two tractors and went into long haul trucking, leasing them to Morgan Trucking Company. Branch Motor Lines bought out Morgan Trucking Company, so he sold his trucks and drove for Branch Motor Lines until he retired at age 67.

Sam and Bessie bought 36 acres of land in 1936, built a house in 1937, and lived there until their deaths. Papa died in 1983, Mama died in 1989. Both lived to be eighty-nine years old.

When he first moved to Draper, he and Uncle Guy belonged to the "Odd Fellows Lodge". Later, he became a Christian and joined the First Baptist Church in Draper, where he was a deacon. Both Mama and Papa were members of First Baptist Church in Draper.

Papa loved peppermint candy, lots of sugar in his coffee, and teared when he laughed, like his father. He was both a loving and stern father. He didn't believe in "sparing the rod and spoiling the child". I deserved every spanking I got from him. They made me a better person I'm sure. I remember each one and why I got it. Each one of us loved and respected, and miss them very much.

Notes for Bessie Alma Rorrer:
From Vivian Hopkins Quesinberry

Bessie Alma Rorrer, daughter of William Elcaney "Cain" Rorrer and Laura Belle Cruise Rorrer, was born April 24, 1900 in Patrick County, VA. She went to school at Central Academy, located at the crossroads outside of Stuart, VA. During bad weather, she would stay with her grandparents, James Tyler and Lucinda Rorrer, who lived close to the school.

Mama never had an outside job, but the family kept her plenty busy. She was chief cook, bottle washer, gardener, seamstress and doctor.

Mama made a lot of our clothes over the years. She made quilts out of the scraps of cloth. She learned to crochet, embroider, when she was young and made many pairs of pillowcases, doilies, etc. She would always look at the Almanac and tell Papa when it was time to plant the garden. Papa would get everything ready for the planting. He was always so busy working, that he depended on her to say when it was time to put what seed in the ground. She always said there was a certain time for below ground and above ground. My brother Ralph, learned the hard way on when to plant the seed. He planted green beans when it was time to plant below ground, and Mama told him he wouldn't have any beans to speak of. He showed her how pretty and bushy the plants were and Mama still told him he wouldn't have any beans. Well, who do you think was right?

Christine ran a sewing machine needle over finger and nail when she was young. . Mama put turpentine on it, put it in place, wrapped it, and Papa put a splint on it. It healed nicely, but is just a little crooked if you look at it closely.

Another time Dewey and Leonard were cutting wood, and as boys will do, started getting a little mischievous. Leonard kept putting his finger on the chopping block, daring Dewey to hit it. Well, the obvious happened, and Leonard ran to the house hollering. Dewey looked down and there was the end of Leonard's finger on the chopping block. Mama got the end of the finger, put turpentine on it, put it in place, wrapped it, and it grew back together too. That finger was always a little longer than the one on the other hand. Dewey and Leonard were about 10 and 12 years old.

Mama canned meats and vegetables, made preserves, jams and jellies every year. Dr. Dillard came to the house to see one of the children, saw all the canned food, and told Mama that he knew why the children were so healthy! Earlier years, with so many children, she canned in half-gallon jars. Later years she canned in quarts and pints.

Generation 7 (con't)

Not only did she cook for the family, but also cooked for other family members that boarded with them from time to time. She said she washed clothes on a wash board before she got a Maytag washer, and her knuckles stayed sore from one week to the next. When I was old enough to help with the washing, Mama would get me to empty the water from the washer. Being the smart lady she was, she would put a dime or a nickel in the washer for me to find. If I was lucky, I would find more money if some was left in Papa's pants or the boys jeans. I always looked forward to wash day, which was Monday.

Mama and Papa were members of the First Baptist Church in Draper. He was a deacon. Mama would get up and cook Sunday dinner before she went to church.

Notes for Margaret Jean Rorrer:

A message from Margaret Jean Rorrer Schriver (personal reflections of memory)

My grandfather, Thomas Alexander Rorrer, had a beautiful hand writing and was a very knowledgable person. As I, Jean Rorrer Schriver, was always very inquisitive and he lived with us after grandmother died, he would often sit and talk with me about family and other things. He said his father, Abram Alexander Rorrer, died in Cincinnati, on the Ohio River on a boat with cholera. My grandfather Thomas Alexander Rorrer was 2 years old when he died and they moved back from Kentucky to live with his grandfather David Alexander Rorrer, Jr. He said his grandfather told him the Rorrer family came to America because in Europe they could not marry outside their religion. John Rohrer married a Jewish girl, Anna Babara Weidman. Before coming to America he said they lived in the Catskill Mountains of Spain and spoke several mixed languages, different from any country. Also the people from this area were very intellectual.

Notes for Danny Rorrer:

Danny Rorrer changed his name from Dennis Delbert Rorrer to Danny based on oral history from his sisters, Gayle Elkin and Louise Adams.

He was an inventor and designer of video games. His passion was red paint and coins. He painted many of the machines he manufactured red and everything required a coin. Many people bought trinket machines from his company, Vendors Manufacturing and Poker Games from the same company.

He designed, marketed and installed electronic reader boards.

His father died when he was five years old. He spoke of his mother, Mary, fondly and recalled how she would get settled somewhere and call for he and the girls only to live with her shortly before being sent away again due to financial and relationship problems. At one point, Louise, Gayle and Danny were put in the poorhouse in Lawrence County. They were supposedly adopted and let off at the state line bridge where they rejoined their mother. I suppose the county would not let her regain direct custody. Dad pledged to do everything different than the Pickrells, who lost their father, Delbert to a murder in Louisa. They did not wear shirts in the summer and you never saw dad without a shirt. Dad recalled how difficult those times were, when you would be sent to stay with the Pickrells as they would be the last to eat and then would have little to eat. He reminisced how the snow would blow through the cracks in the house in winter.

Notes for Leonard Drewey Rorrer:

From Leonard Drewey Rorrer 3/19/2007

My grandparents owned the Blue Ridge from the foot of the mpuntain to the top of the Rock Cut Overlook also called the Lovers Leap Overlook. The real Lovers Leap Rock is located just west of the overlook on U S Route 58. The first house you can see from the rock is where my dad was raised (near the foot of the mountain). Yor cannot see it from the overlook. I was raised in the valley from the overlook. You can see it from the overlook. It was located on Smith River.

She died on 22 Nov 1973 in Florida^[575].

Notes for Bobby Ray Jarrell:
from Bobby Ray Jarrell written on November 27,2002

My name is Bob Jarrell and I now live at 422 Brittany Circle, Casselberry, Florida, which is about 8 or 9 miles north of Orlando, FL (which is also known as Mickey Mouse Town). My grandfather was James Henry Rorrer and my grandmother was Louisa Mae Clay Rorrer. I never knew either grandparent because they died when my mother was a young girl.

My mom, a wonderful woman, was the youngest of their children. She had several brothers and sisters. There were brothers Frank, Henry, Fred, Walter, and sisters Laura, Ollie and Wavie, who of this date (November 27, 2002) is still living at the age of 98 years young.

My mom was Marjorie Elsie Rorrer Jarrell (Margie). She married my dad on November 27, 1931 and they lived together until my mom died on January 1, 1984. Every time people would see them or talk about them they would refer to them as "Margie and Alvin" because they were always together.

My dad was Alvin Monroe Jarrell (Alvin), a great man, in my eyes, was always willing to help others. He and mom always provided for us kids any thing we needed, not necessarily what we wanted but what we needed. Dad was a coal miner for about 50 years and loved every minute of it. I can still hear him "coal mining", even though he died March 4, 1994. He loved to talk about his work. I was only in the coal mines one time with him and that was enough for me. I can operate many of the shuttle buggies, motors, cutting machines and other machinery, (at least in my mind) by just listening to him.

When time got tough, Dad and Mom were always able to keep food on the table, clothes and a roof over our head. They were not afraid of work, and would always have a garden and we canned a lot of our food. Dad would dig ginseng and sell it to an older German gentleman who would come by and buy it every year. Even in the 1950's it was selling for around $100.00 per pound when dried. He loved to camp and hunt.

I was born in Marfork, West Virginia, a coal mining community, on December 12, 1938. I graduated from Marsh Fork High School at Montcoal, WV in 1956. I went to Concord College for 2 years and in 1959 I joined the army for 2 years and was sent to Germany. While in Germany and traveling about , I went to a small German town named, of all things, ROHRER. It is a small world.

Upon my discharge from the army, I went back to West Virginia, and started working for the Department of Motor Vehicles, and at the same time I was going to Morris Harvey College in my spare time. In 1962 I met one of the most beautiful girls I had ever seen, who was working at the tax office for the State of West Virginia. We started dating and I was still going to school and working. We got married September 8, 1962 and started our life together. Meanwhile I had gotten a better job working for a company called FMC Ordinance in Charleston, WV. I worked there for about 6 years and was still going to school at night. Our daughter Margie Lynn was born on June 3, 1963. She was the only granddaughter my mom and dad had, since the other grandchildren were all boys. I had told mom, when I was still in Germany, that I will have your granddaughter for you, and by the grace of God, we did and therefore the name "Margie" after my mom.

On June 20, 1967 another wonderful thing happened in my life. My son Jeff, was born. God blessed me with two wonderful children. Then around October and November 1967, my wife Millie, got the idea of moving to Florida, to be near her sisters. Not wanting to be mean or anything, I promised her that if I graduated from Morris Harvey College we would move to Florida, all the time thinking I would never graduate. Well again God had something to do with that and I graduated in January of 1968.

We were packed the same day and started to Florida, to my surprise.

I worked at the Kennedy Space Center for one year and got laid off and then went to Tupperware Home Parties, as a production manager until 1974. Meanwhile, Millie had cancer and died on November 22, 1973, the darkest day of my life. Then about 6 months after her death, Tupperware wanted me to move to Woonsocket, Rhode Island. I told them "no way", and if I was going back north it would be to West Virginia. I went back to school so I could be with the kids more. In 1976, I got a BS in Public Administration from the University of Central Florida. Things were bad as far as the job situations, and I could not take just any job, so I took a job with a Propane Gas Company and retired in March, 2000, after 26 years in the business.

Today I am still active, substitute teaching in the local schools one or two days a week. That helps me to keep my mind active.

I would like to give credit to my friend, Ida Kiser of Casselberry, FL who since 1974 has been there for me and the children. She has always been there for me and my children when we needed advice or just someone to confide in. We may not have always agreed, but deep down inside we realize that what she was telling us was a fact. She had traveled the same road before us and knew all the pitfalls we were facing. She had lost her husband when she was a very young lady in an automobile accident involving a drunk driver. I am very grateful to her as friend and counselor. I have found that if we have one good friend in life we should thank God for that friend, and I do. Good friends such as Ida are hard to come by. Thank you Ida.

My daughter, Margie, married Steve Castle and they have two wonderful children. Stephen, who is 16 and Trisha, who is 17. They live in Port St. John, Florida.

My son, Jeff, married Trish Boness and they have two children. Chase, who is 8 and Cassie, who is 6. They live in Winter Springs, Florida.

My sister, Edith, married Ken Jennings and they have two sons, Randy and Rick Jennings. Randy lives in Detroit, Michigan and Rick lives in Pfafftown, North Carolina. Randy has three children, David, Mark, and Sarah. Rick has one daughter, Sharon. Randy's two boys are in college and Sharon is in the 11th grade.

My brother Jack married Jean Simmons and they have two boys, Terry and Gary. Terry has one daughter, Mindy, and one son, Ryan, and one grandson. Terry lives in Ravenswood, West Virginia. Gary has two sons and one daughter. His boys are Brandon and Jackson and their daughter is Christy. They live in Roanoke, Virginia. Brandon is getting ready to graduate from the Hobart Welding School in Dayton, Ohio and Jackson and Sharon are still in high school.

All in all, I think that the Alvin and Margie Jarrell clan would make any of the Rorrer side of the family feel proud to have us in the family.

Notes for Lowell Ernest Rorrer:

Lowell E. Rorrer of St. Helena Island, SC, 70, died early Saturday morning surrounded by his family and closest friends. Lowell "Shorty" Rorrer never met a stranger and brought life and joy with him everywhere he went(usually by way of one of his classic cars) . Lowell and his wife Carole retired to St. Helena Island in 1998 from Elyria, OH. During his time on St. Helena, Lowell built a dream garage with an initial aim of restoring countless old cars. While he didn't restore as many as he had hoped, his garage became a comfortable gathering place for folks from all walks of life, where they came by to say hello, have a beer, get some help fixing a car or just to stop by for a plain old fashioned good time.

He is survived by his loving wife of 49 years, Carole, and four children, Chris, Becky, and twins Jason and Jared, along with ten grandchildren and countless nieces and nephews, adopted kids and grandkids. Lowell is also survived by his brother Duane, and sisters Janet Crites and Sherill Mitchell. Lowell's proudest accomplishment in his life was his family, who he loved dearly. Even during illness, Lowell never stopped smiling, insisting it was 5 o'clock somewhere. The Beaufort memorial service will be held Tuesday at 2 p.m. at Mt. Carmel Baptist Church in Dale, SC. A second service will be held at Behany United Church of God in Cuyahoga Falls, OH on Thursdays at 4 p.m.

Notes for Virginia Jewel Cook:

Excerpted from Citizens Coal Council Newsletter, an article called Razing Appalachia on 5/5/2002 by Peter Slavin and not in context.

Massey has kept residents at arm's length, unlike previous coal companies in the valley. Many people speak warmly of Armco Steel in particular. Duane Rorrer, a former miner, says Armco helped out in the little towns, "and everyone from the superintendent on down lived right in the community." Jim Wills, a radiologist turned engineer, recalls that when floods struck Coal River, Armco paid its heavy-equipment operators to clear out creeks and rivers in their own communities.

Jewel Rorrer, Duane's wife, says it was she who exposed mountaintop removal on Montcoal Mountain. She showed residents photos and video footage, and Massey has not forgotten. Rorrer and her husband's family cemeteries are on the mountain, and they have a deed granting them access. But Rorrer says that when she has gone on company property alone, the guards have issued veiled threats. "That's why I never go up there without a gun," she says. Once they let her go up to a cemetery without warning her that workers were blasting nearby. An explosion knocked her down.

Notes for Millard Green Rorrer:

Millard Rorrer was in the path of the flood waters when the damn broke on Buffalo Creek in West Virginia in 1972. His daughter, Cheryl Rorrer Reynolds was at home in Huntington, WV, but her father Millard Rorrer, was driving toward the dam when a woman flagged him down. He took her home and barely got up the hill behind the company store at Becco, WV before the dam broke and the water churned by.

It just broke our heart to see first hand the devastation that water could do, Cheryl said. Roads were not where they used to mbe, nor were houses. Railroad rails were twisted, cars were everywhere, bridges were on roads instead of over the creek.

Notes for Vivian Annette Hopkins:

I am the eleventh of twelve children of Samuel Green Hopkins and Bessie Alma Rorrer. Papa said ☐they are cheaper by the dozen☐. The children in order are Christine, Ralph, Ernest, Gordon, Pauline, Virginia, Dewey, Leonard, Vera, Lawrence, Vivian and Janice. Both Mama and Papa were from Stuart (Patrick County), VA.

Mama and Papa were related through Thomas Dudley Rorrer. His daughter, Mary Elizabeth, married Samuel Austin Hopkins, who was Papa's Grandparents. Thomas's brother, Michael Andrew Rorrer, was Mama's Great Grandfather. That means we have a "double dose" of Rorrer!

Mama and Papa were married 67 years before he died in 1983, at 89 years of age. Mama died in 1989, at age 89. I have some wonderful memories and we all miss them so much. Christmas was always a great time at the house. Mama and Papa both loved Christmas. Lawrence and I would get up at 3:00 Christmas morning, wake them up, and they would be thrilled to see us so happy, opening up the presents that Santa Claus brought. Papa died on December 7, 1983, and that was one sad Christmas that year. Papa always built the fire in the living room, later he put in gas logs and he would light them to have the room warm before family started coming in. I remember Mama going in that year to light the logs, and she burst into tears. We never saw Mama cry very often, so it was really sad to see. Now Papa would tear when he was both happy and sad. I took after him in that way. People have always laughed at me when I would get tickled and tears would run down my cheeks. Papa and I would cry at sad TV programs. Mama would be sitting there with a smile and Papa and I would be crying. I would look at Mama and ask if she thought it was sad and she would say "it's just a program." Papa and I would get so immersed in the programs that we felt like we were right there with them. I'm still that way. My children always thought it was funny how I would cry, but I can't help it.

Christine was married and there with Mama when I was born. I wasn't around her very much growing up as she and her husband, Clarence, traveled around with the Navy. When they lived in Norfolk, VA, I would visit with them as their daughter Carolyn, is a little more than a year younger than I am. I would stay a week at a time, and we would have such fun playing together. Christine seemed more like a mother than a sister back then as she told me what to do, along with Carolyn.

Ralph and Ernest had Harley Davidson motorcycles and they rode them all over. They would ride them to West Virginia to visit family. They said that I loved to ride with them around town. I was about five years old, and I was told that I would ride in the winter time, come in with my nose all red and they would ask if I wanted to go back out, I would enthusiastically say "yes" I wish I could remember those days but I can't. I do have a picture of me on a motorcycle though.

I can remember Gordon living at the house when I was real young. He got married, so I didn't grow up with him either.

I call Pauline and Virginia my surrogate mothers, as they took care of me when I was young. They are thirteen and ten years older than I. Virginia got into a little trouble with Mama one time because she would take me to Papa's coal yard with her where she worked, and would give me money and let me go to the movies. When Mama found out, needless to say it stopped!

Dewey and Leonard were best buddies growing up. They were in trucking together and worked with some of the same companies at the same time. When the family would be together on Sunday, there were some tales that were told about some of the trips coming from Dewey, Leonard, Lawrence, my husband Hamp, and Papa. It was always fun listening to the stories, although I think some of them may have been a little exaggerated!

Vera was born between Leonard and Lawrence, and died 1935, before I was born. With a stick, Vera and a playmate were trying to get a Sears catalog out of some burning leaves in a neighbors yard, and her dress caught on fire. She lived about a day. They said that it was a sad time in the Hopkins house for a very long time.

I was seven years old when Janice was born so it was just Lawrence, Janice and I growing up together. Mama would make me take Janice with me lots of times, when I would go to a friends house to play. Janice didn't want to go with me any more than I wanted her to come, therefore, we were not a good combination together. Mama was thirty eight when I was born, and forty five when Janice was born. I guess she needed us out of the house for a rest once in awhile. Janice and I both had strong personalities, and didn't see eye to eye most of the time. She says that my friend Frances Newton and I were mean to her. I guess we could have been a little mischievous toward her, as neither of us wanted her around. What ten year old wants a three year old tagging along? That all changed though, when we grew up.

The house I grew up in was built in 1937, and I was born April 17, 1938, on Easter Sunday. Papa bought 36 acres in Draper (now Eden) NC, with the land bordering the Dan River. It has a creek running to the river from an artesian well between two large rocks. Papa built a well house over it, and that's where our water came from for years. I can remember on hot summer days, Papa would buy a watermelon on Saturday, put it in the well house and we had cold watermelon on Sunday afternoon after Sunday dinner. Sunday was always a great time at the house. There was always a crowd for Sunday dinner. Sometimes there would be so many that it took three tables to feed us all. Needless to say, by the time we children ate, the bony pieces of chicken were all that was left. It didn't stunt my growth though as I'm 5'8" and I won't say how much I weigh! Papa would say that I would have really been tall if so much had not run out on the floor! I can remember sitting in the swing on the front porch bare footed, and Papa would spit on my toes. We would just laugh and laugh about how accurate he was. It wasn't too hard to hit them though, as I have big feet and long toes, just like he had.

The land had a cemetery on it with rocks designating the burial places. My brother Lawrence and I would go look at the graves and wonder who was buried there. Some people said they were slave graves, others thought they may have been Indian graves. We would think about gold and silver being down there. We asked Papa and Mama if we could dig and see what was in there. Of course they didn't let us, but it didn't keep us from dreaming!

When the land was first bought, Papa and the boys discovered a large grapevine running down a tree that was on the creek bank, close to the river. They cut it away from the tree at the bottom and tested to see how strong it was. They found out they could swing out over the creek. The boys would drop down in the creek, but I was afraid to and never did, but I really enjoyed swinging out over the creek. It was L shaped, so you could stand on it and hold on to the vine.

There were blackberries growing down in the bottoms near the river. Lawrence and I would hate to see July 4th come as we had to pick blackberries. One year Lawrence and I went down and saw a man leaving with all the blackberries. We were two happy children that day! The man that had picked them, made home-brew in his house. He lived close to the bridge that went across the Dan River, and just walked across the bottoms to the berries. Mama was pretty upset though, as she was counting on those berries to can and make jelly that day. Of course a few days later there were plenty more and Lawrence and I, along with Mama would pick them. Mama had a pair of overalls that she picked berries in, and one day I wanted to take her picture in them. She threatened to whip me if I did. I was grown at that time but knew better than to take that picture!!

Papa built a playground beside the house. It had a merry-go-round, swings, seesaw and picnic tables. Lawrence and I had lots of fun playing in the woods and our playground. Lawrence was three years older than I, but we looked about the same age because I was tall for my age. A lot of people would ask if we were twins. We would play and then we would fight, as most siblings will do. Draper and the land was a great place to grow up. Lawrence and I would ride in back of the truck Papa used to move people, when we would go to the mountains to see Grandparents and relatives. We would count cows, losing them when we passed a cemetery. I think Lawrence would cheat some if I didn't watch him! He always liked to win, but if the truth was known, I probably cheated a little too. I didn't care if I won or not in most things, I just enjoyed playing the games. I'm still that way.

Lawrence and I would have to milk the cow after we got home from school. He would get on one side and me on the other. Lawrence loved to sing and he would sing while we milked or if he was milking alone. He made up most of his songs. I wish I could remember what he sang about.

I was a □tomboy□and loved being outside. I can remember climbing the tree beside the house, sit up there and read or just look around. That was my tree, and it is still there but the bottom limb is cut that I would start the climb with. Even if it was still there, I couldn't climb it now, but I can dream!

I went to grade and middle school in Draper, and Tri-City High School (now Morehead High School) in the □CentralArea□of Eden,NC. They built one high school for Leaksville, Spray and Draper. I graduated in 1956. Leaksville, Spray and Draper were consolidated and named Eden in 1967. Morehead High School was named for John Motley Morehead, who was from Leaksville, and governor of NC. He owned mills there too.

I married Virgil Hampton (Hamp) Quesinberry, son of Charles Dubra Quesinberry and Katherine Louise Willis, in 1955. We have two children, Virgil Hampton, Jr. who lives in Ft. Myers, FL, and Venise Hopkins Quesinberry Leach, lives in Durham NC. We have five grandchildren.

Hamp and I moved to Greensboro, NC in 1957 when he got out of the Army. He worked at P. Lorillard and I went to work at Huntley's Furniture as a cashier. I worked there for a year and then got a job at Security National Bank as a teller. Part of my job was to make the bank deposits for the furniture store. Huntley's Furniture wasn't air-conditioned and the bank was so nice and cool on hot summer days. One day I told the teller that it was so cool, I would surely love to work in a place like that. She told me to see Mr. Moore about getting a job there. I took an application, filled it out and Mr. Moore told me that he couldn't hire me while I was working for the furniture company. Reading between the lines, I worked a notice and got the job at the bank. Security National Bank later became NCNB and then became Bank of America. I stayed in banking from 1958 until I retired in 2000, with a few years break in between. Other banks I worked with were Commercial Bank in Middlesboro, KY, Security National Bank in Ft. Myers, FL, that later became a Barnett Bank. When we moved to Lakeland, FL, I worked with First State Bank, that became Barnett Bank, and later became Bank of America. When we retired and moved to Reidsville, I worked part time for Bank of America, so I just made a full circle.

After a year at P. Lorillard, Hamp got a job in trucking and retired in 1992 with twenty six years with Signal Delivery Service. He delivered merchandise from warehouses to the Sears stores, and retired with thirty years service in trucking. We lived in Greensboro for ten years. He worked several years for Central Motor Lines in Greensboro, NC. His job with Signal Delivery Service took us to Middlesboro, KY for three years, Ft. Myers, FL for five years and Lakeland, FL for twenty-one years. When he retired, we sold out in Florida in 1996 and came back to Rockingham County, where we were born. We now live in Reidsville, NC, enjoying our retirement.

Virginia and I have had so much fun researching the family history. We have been all over the Patrick County mountains looking at old houses, cemeteries, taking pictures, and researching in libraries. We went to Lebanon, PA and saw the church and area where John Rohrer lived. We went to Brights, VA(Pittsylvania County), and saw where the Rohrer's/Rorer's moved to from Pennsylvania. Having a Jeep made it easier getting to some of the places. Hamp and Barnard came along for the ride!

1567 Herbert Lester Rorrer-8(Lemily Hampton-7, Samuel Adolphus-6, Daniel Chapman-5, Michael Andrew-4, David Alexander-3, David Alexander-2, John-1)^[1302] was born on 19 Oct 1929 in Patrick County, VA_[2]. He died on 12 Oct 2011 in Patrick, Virginia, USA. He married Patsy Jane Williams on 03 Jul 1953 in Patrick County, VA_[2], daughter of Elkanah Carlyle Williams and Annah Madge Branch. She was born on 09 Jan 1932 in Patrick County, VA_[2].

Notes for Herbert Lester Rorrer:
from Herbert Lester Rorrer

Herbert Lester Rorrer was born October 19, 1929 in Patrick County, VA, son of Lemily H. and Mildred Dollarhite Rorrer. He was married to Patsy Jane Williams on July 3, 1953. Patsy was born January 9, 1936 in Patrick County, near Stuart, VA, the daughter of Elkanah Carlyle and Madge B. Williams.

They have 3 children:

Terry Lane was born August 8, 1955 in Roanoke, VA

Kenneth David was born on November 30, 1956 in Roanoke, VA

Michael Steven was born November 30, 1959 in Richmond, VA

Herbert was baptized by Rev. David Kirk behind Bouldin Memorial Presbyterian Church on August 8, 1971 and became a member of Bouldin. Patsy Jane was baptized at Stuart Presbyterian Church in 1948 by Dr. Fred S. McCorkle. She became a member of Bouldin Memorial.

Herbert and Patsy were united in marriage by Dr. Fred S. McCorkle on a Saturday, July 3, 1953 in the Bouldin Memorial Presbyterian Church manse. (Ervin Walker Home).

In 1947 I went to work at the United Elastic Plant in Stuart, where I met my wife, Patsy. I was drafted into the army in January 1951 and spent 2 years in the army with 7 months of that time in Korea. After returning to the United Elastic Plant, I got married. After 2 more years at the plant we moved to Richmond, VA where I started working for Wilson Trucking Company. Wilson's headquarters was in Waynesboro, VA and later in Fishersville, VA. I worked for Wilson for 13 1/2 years in Richmond. We then moved back to Stuart. I transferred to the Wilson Terminal in Roanoke and worked there for 9 years. In July, 1979 I transferred to the Wilson operation in Reidsville, NC. I retired from Wilson the first week of February, 1992 with 34 1/2 years of service.

I grew up on the farm. My Dad was always after me for throwing rocks and shooting the slingshot. Everywhere I have been in my life I am note for throwing and shooting the slingshot. Now I can't throw very good but I can still shoot the gravel shooter and I have a very good one.

Herbert was theTransportation Coordinator of the Souther Area Agency on Aging after his retirement.

The story of the Heidelbach School by Herbert Lester Rorrer

The Heidelbach school story is included here for several reasons. One of David A. Rorrer's sons, David Charles Rorrer was buried behind it and many relatives of Harold O. Rorrer were involved with the school in one way or another and the Rorrer families, their relatives, and other readers may find it interesting.

The Heidelbach school was in operation from about 1922 until 1952. Since the name was a German name and some Rorrers were at this school, I am going to write an article about it again. The school was located in Dodson, VA. Since Ferrum Training School (now Ferrum College) could not reach all the children in the remote areas of Patrick, Franklin, and Floyd counties it was decided that a branch school would be built. These schools were operated by the Methodist church, through Ferrum. The board of Trustees of Ferrum Training School with Dr. B. M. Beckham as its president accepted the opportunity of instituting the initial plan. Miss Alice White became a leader in the project because of her concern for religious instructions and improvement in the life of these mountain people.

There were three schools started by Ferrum Training School in Patrick County at this time. They were Mountain View School, Wilson School on Pole Bridge Road and Heidelberg School. These schools were eventually absorbed by the Patrick County Public School system.

In 1921 Mr. and Mrs. Heidelberg of Danville, VA donated One Thousand Dollars to build a school in Dodson. The locals raised Six Hundred dollars. Rev. W.J. Craddock, with the able assistance of his wife, began the project to erect the Heidelberg school. Rev. Craddock was serving as pastor of the Elamsville Methodist Church and other churches in his charge at the same time.

The land to build the school was given by three families, one and one-half acres given by Hugh and Ella Foley, 1.7 acres by Shady and Lou Turner, and one and 3/8 acres by John and Della Wood. On January 15, 1922 a deed for the school property was recorded in the Patrick County Courthouse by Mr. Sam Pilson who was Justice of the Peace. A copy of the deed was mailed to Dr. B.M. Beckham at Ferrum Training School on March 22, 1922 from the clerk's office.

In early 1922 Ide and Kemper James were contracted to erect a building on the land. With the help of the local people it was completed that year. The school was named Heidelberg for the donors. It had class rooms on the first floor with folding doors separating the 2 rooms. The doors could be folded back for community and school programs, pie suppers, or church services and provide ample room for the crowds.

The second level consisted of living quarters for the teachers and sometimes for the students when the weather was very bad. At the head of the steps on the second floor was a large room, leading off from this room was a door leading to a kitchen, a door leading to a dining room, and doors leading to 3 bedrooms. The building was completely furnished.

The building was heated by wood stoves. The wood was cut by students and parents. A well was dug by Taylor Rorrer, Shady Turner, and Bunyan Hall in front of the building from which was carried upstairs for use and for the students to drink. (Taylor Rorrer was the father of Harold O. Rorrer and David Charles was Harold's great grandpa.HLR) The well had a hand pump in it and students shared in pumping the water.

Teachers were often invited to visit in the homes of the students and to spend the night. Many students lived over 3 miles away and the teachers walked home with them. It was considered quite an honor and a real treat to have the teachers accept their invitation. Usually the old red rooster was killed and chicken and dumplings were served as the main course, along with home grown cabbage, beans, potatoes, freshly churned butter, butter milk, turnip greens, onions, hoe cake bread, and homemade pies and cakes. Everyone put on their Sunday best and enjoyed the festive occasion.

On August 25, 1943 Luther A. Derby, president of Ferrum Training School deeded this school, the Wilson school, and Mountain View school over to the Patrick County Public school system, thus ending it's maintenance by Ferrum. Mr. Kyle was superintendent at this time. Heidelberg school was closed in 1952 and all of the students that wanted to further their education were bused to Woolwine High School. In later years the land and building were sold to Charlie Martin and rented as apartments. Then it was sold to Woodrow Pilson, and it burned in the early seventies.

Some of the teachers that taught at Heidelberg through the years were, Mary Bryant, Myrtle Thomas, Thelma Cox, Ida Arthur, Sadie B. Moore, Louise Pedigo, Della Shelor, Esther Berkley, Jules Southard, Elsie Donley, Eva Hutlan, Gale Simms, Edna Williams, Margaret Lale, Florence Grogran, Katherine Cox, Virgie Prillaman, Hazel Young, Etta Brown, Alice and Nelson Thomas, George Kesler, Mrs. Bill Worthington, Ruby Eanes, Lola Pratt, Maggie Fain, Mrs. Ira Myers, Martha Edwards, Joanne Foley, Effie Brammer, Rev. and Mrs. Frank Washburn and others. Mr. Tom Pilson was a substitute teacher in the last years Patrick County maintained Heidelberg school. Some of the visiting teachers were Virgie Thompson, O.E. Pilson, Gordon Pilson, Mr. Kyle and others.

Some students who attended Heidelberg were children of George and Rendy Bryant, King and Lillie Cox, Susie and Tom Turner, Lou and Shady Turner, John and Della Wood, Ella and Hugh Foley, Saul and Lucy Via, Mattie and Grover Bennette, Ben and Eva Hylton, Bunyan and Lelia Hall, Victory and Steve Wood, Lester and Maude Roberson, Ida and John Martin, Garland and Sadie Alexander, Jessie and Nanny Via, Tom and Lula Nichols, Walter and Virgil Whorley, John and Mary Setliff, Ernest and Nell Shelton, Audie and Maude Nichols, Al and Villie Cannady, Sam and Lillie Lawson, Charlie and Lila Martin, Minnie and Dan Lawson, Elsie and Posey Jamison, George and Mary Roberson, Charlie and Ella Lawson, James and Katherine Lawson, Pete and Dovie Martin, Steve and Clara Cannady, Ellick and Ora Martin, McKinley and Bertha Hall, Jack and Stella Lackey, George and Mollie Hall, Green and Sonora Whalen, Callie and George Chaney, and many others. These people also sent their grandchildren there.

The information on this school was gathered by Shirley Scott with the help of Phillip Cox, Mrs. Winifred Roberson, Mrs. Hazel Young Clark, Mrs. Katherine Cox Tatum, Mrs. Janie Roberson, and Lucy Clark.

Herbert Rorrer "King of Sling" to take on national champion at Ferrum Event

Patrick county native and long-time sling shot maker Herbert Lester "King of Sling" Rorrer is scheduled for a shoot off against two-time Champion Richard "Blue" Skeen on October 28, at the 27th annual Blue Ridge Folklife Festival at Ferrum College in Ferrum..

The friendly competition is casually planned for "around lunchtime" to accomodate the time that Rorrer spends teaching children and adults the techniques and safety issues involved in the hobby that was glorified in the Biblical story of David and Goliath.

Rorrer has demonstrated and sold his sling shots for seven years at the Festival, but this is the first year that his expertise will be tested by Skeen. Rorrer will have a disadvantage, Skeen says, because of his more traditional approach to the sport. Rorrer shoots by instinct, never anchoring the stock of the sling shot and taking aim. Rorrer sometimes practices by shooting pesky bumblebees at his home. From the hip. I don't take a lot of time sighting my target. I just look at it and shoot, said Rorrer.

It has been several years since he made his first slingshot, says Rorrer, but the ones he makes today start with the same basic materials he used as a boy- a forked wooden branch and a strip of rubber. But some decades later, the slingshots he now makes are more finely crafted. Instead of the less durable ivy branches he used as a boy, Rorrer now uses dogwood branches. Dogwood is much harder and can take the sanding and stenciling that I do to make it better. I mark each slingshot I make to sell with it's own number, my initials and the year, and I'll be making 125 for the Folklife Festival.

I'd say I'll have several hundred people stop by and want to shoot or want their kids to give it a try. The kids love to shoot at the targets, but their parents get right in there and will want to try it too, Rorrer said.

The slingshot competition in one of the numerous Blue Ridge Mountain traditions which comprise the annual Folklife Festival.

On October 2, 1948 Jimmy enlisted in the army. He went to Germany and spent 42 months there before returning to Fort Hood Texas to complete his 6 years. After leaving the army, he started working at the Granite Hosiery Mill in Mt. Airy, NC. After 3 years there, leaving in 1957, he went to Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company in Richmond, VA for 2 years. In February 1960 he went to work as a guard at Camp 17 at Haynesville, VA. Three months later he transferred to Camp 28 at Horse Pasture, VA. In May 1963 he went to work in the Sheriff's Department of Patrick County, VA. In March 1969 he got the job of Alcohol Beverage Control Officer in Patrick County.

In June 1956 he had a very serious operation when an ulcer ruptured in his stomach. In July 1961 he had another operation on his stomach and in July 1965 still another. Since then he has gotten along quite well. In 1965-1966 he bought the farm he owns now and still lives near his wife's father's home. Jim retired from law enforcement after 30 years, in July 1990 on disability. On September 8, 1990, the ABC Board officers sponsored a retirement supper at the Dutch Inn in Collinsville for him and Samuel Linwood Simmons. At this time Jim was very weak and Jim died January 27, 1991 after several months of failing health. Moody Funeral Home handled the funeral on Wednesday, January 30, 1991 at 2 PM. The clergymen were Rev. Buford Jessup and Rev. Richard Quall. He was buried in the Dobyns Primitive Baptist Church Cemetery where Dad, Lemily H. Rorrer, and young brother Clarence Leon Rorrer are buried. He probably had 70 or 80 wreaths of flowers, hundreds of people attended the funeral and family night, and several hundred dollars were given as memorials to the Dobyns Church Memorial Fund in his honor.

Notes for Debora Raye Rorrer:

From Facebook February 2010

I was born and raised in Detroit, MI and graduated from Redford High School in 1976...Go Huskies.

I joined the United States Marine Corps directly out of high school and served proudly for 20 years before retiring at Parris Island, SC as a First Sergeant. The marines showed me the world as a motor transport chief, but I can honestly say my two tours as a drill instructor, was the most rewarding.

Immediately on retiring from the Corps, Burton Fire and rescue hired me as a full time firefighter. I now have 14 years on the job and proudly serve as the Captain/Shift Commander on Shift 1. I hold an associate degree in Fire Science Technology, am Nationally Certified Fire Officer IV, Fire Instructor III, Hazardous Material & Weapons of Mass Destruction Technician, COBRA certified, and a Nationally registered Emergency Medical Technician-Intermediate.

Currently a senior with Eastern Kentucky University, my short range goal is obtaining a BS Degree in Fire Safety and Engineering Technology with a long range goal of Masters Degree in Organizational Leadership and eventually completing the National Fire Academy's Executive Fire Officers Program which hopefully will lead to a Fire Chiefs position.

I enjoy riding my Harley's, playing softball, marksmanship, and relaxing at home. For those who do not know, Beaufort, SC is located on the coast on hour south of Charleston and one hour north of Savannah, GA.

Excerpted from the Martinsville newspaper Christmastime 2004

Shirley Rorrer of Woolwine stopped in for a few items at the mall's Kroger. Getting together with family and friends, she said, is the best part of the holiday season.

Rorrer also recalled Christmases from long past as those that shined the brightest.

"When I was real, real young, we didn't have a tree," Rorrer said. But that did not stop the jolly old elf from coming to our house.

"Santa would just pile everything up in the floor. "There'd be a pile of candy and a pile of fruit," Rorrer said.

And though the years changed, the presents remained similar.

"My brother, Lawrence Hylton, would get a cap gun and I'd always get a doll. I can still remember the smell of those cap-busters on Christmas morning," she said.

Notes for Clarence Whorley Rorrer Jr.:

ED# 8 Supervisor C.W. "Corky" Rorrer announced last week that he will not seek re-election to his seat on the county's governing body in the upcoming November election.

Rorrer said he has enjoyed serving the people of Halifax County as well as those of the Town of South Boston, where he was elected to Town Council, prior to his service on the Board of Supervisors.

In announcing his decision not to seek re-election, Rorrer said "After a great deal of thought, I have decided not to seek re-election to the Halifax County Board of Supervisors for ED#8. By the time I complete my current term, I will have served a total of 8 and 1/2 years on Town Council and the Board, and I think it is time for someone else to serve. I will miss the people, and the service, and wish to thank all the people who had enough confidence in me to give me the honor of representing them.

"It has been my great pleasure to meet many wonderful people along the way. The dedication and love that they have shown for South Boston and Halifax County has been truly inspiring. I hope that in some small way I helped the community, and would encourage others to seek to serve their community. We have many wonderful citizens who serve our community every day, and I would certainly encourage them to come forward and seek this position, " Rorrer concluded.

C. W. "Corky" Rorrer, Member at Large- Chief Probation Officer, South Boston, MS, Psychology. He served as a Probation Officer and the an Intensive Supervision Probation Officer before being promoted to Chief of District #8 in 1992. He is a member of the American Probation and Parole

Notes for Julia Rose Paris:

Whether it is taxes or Derby, when your money comes in during only part of the year, it makes a difference in how you work.

By Ellen Birkett Morris

When Julie A. Rorrer hears one of her staff or family say, "You need to go for a run," she knows the stress of helping folks meet the April 15 deadline is getting to her. She goes for a run and comes back refreshed and ready to tackle another pile of tax returns.

As a certified public accountant serving small businesses, she begins to feel the crunch of tax season in December when she works with clients to do year-end planning. During the week before Christmas, she will work between 50 and 60 hours a week. By January, she will have added Saturdays to her work week. From April 1 through April 15, she works as many as 16 hours a day. She is supported by a staff of eight, seven female and one male employee.

She tells clients that if they have their materials in by April 1 she guarantees that their return will be ready by the 15th. "People don't realize they can bring in the information early and we can prepare the return in advance," Rorrer says with a laugh.

"I advise anyone who works in a deadline-oriented business like this to find an avenue to relieve your stress," says Rorrer.

She does several things to ease the crunch of tax season. Staffing up is one answer. During peak season two of her part-time employees work full time and she adds an additional full-time person. Boosting morale is another method of dealing with deadline stress. She brings in food when they work late and doesn't hesitate to call the staff in for a "pep talk" when the going gets tough.

The staff members know that if they meet their goals they can look forward to a special surprise in November, the only month that does not contain a tax-related due date. To reward hard work Rorrer takes her employees on a trip. Past trips have included a cruise and a couple of visits to Cancun. "It's a real incentive. It boosts morale," says Rorrer. "But, ultimately you have to accept that there are deadlines and lots of pressure."

Among the benefits of working under the gun, according to Rorrer, is the feeling of productivity that comes from accomplishing a lot in a short amount of time. She also noted that after the "high" of tax season, a 40-hour workweek seems "like nothing."

To deal with the lag time that follows tax season and to round out the business, Rorrer offers computer consulting services, showing clients how to use accounting software such as Peachtree and Quicken.

"It all ties in. When we help clients automate their accounting systems it helps us at the end of the year," says Rorrer. Despite all the hassles of the seasonal rush, Rorrer is exactly where she wants to be. She discovered her knack for bookkeeping at age 15 when she went from being gopher to assistant bookkeeper while working in her father's office. This year will be her 19th tax season.

"You have to get geared up for it and get it done. There are no ifs, ands or buts. Everything has a deadline," says Rorrer.

This year she and her employees will take a limo to their celebratory dinner at the end of business on the 15th. The next day the office will be closed. There are some bets that Rorrer will sleep late, then go for a celebratory run.

Notes for Natasha Alexandria Rorrer:

Natasha is a musician singer/songwriter in Charleston and Myrtle Beach South Carolina. Natasha gave an interview with a Charleston, SC newspaper about her early career. She said she used to hide in the closet and sing so her parents wouldn't hear. She did not believe she was very good. After about 8 years of guitar lessons, vocal practice and writing, a friend convinced her to sing at an open mike coffee house. Thus began her career. She moved to Columbia and attended The University of South Carolina briefly before moving to New York City to pursue her dream. She worked as a cashier in a guitar shop where she met a diverse group of musicians, who inspired and encouraged her. During her stay in New York she became affiliated with Red Tide Artists but had little early success and returned to Charleston. The group recalled her to New York and recorded "Broken Wide Open" She then returned to Charleston and school. Later moving to Savannah for singing engagements.

All my life, I have heard stories about Charlie Poole. My dad (Kinney Rorrer) claims that I have been singing Poole lyrics since the age of three. As a child, I was lucky enough to meet several of the people in this book, the most memorable of whom was Lonnie Austin. I was always at how he could seemingly bang his fingers against the piano keys and make beautiful music. I also spent many a Southern night playing in the back yard while dad played Poole tunes on the banjo outside. As an adult, I have been lucky to be an audience member at many of my dad's performances, the highlight of which was the Alaskan Folk Festival, held in Juneau in 1997. It was fantastic to see him perform with my uncle Doug Rorrer and Kirk Sutphin, with Kirk's wife Lisa providing clogging entertainment. When I sat in his Charlie Poole workshop that year in Juneau, I realized what a fascinating man Charlie was. I remember countless times in restaurants, stores, and churches when we had to wait for dad while people told him a "Charlie Poole" story_ all of them funny.

I hope you have a chance to enjoy this book, as well as Charlie's music, as much as I have.
