tox, Buckingham, Louisa, Hanover, Goochland, Powhatan, Cumberland, Henrico, Amelia, Fluvanna, and the city of Richmond, to rendezvous at Richmond, not to exceed seven regiments of infantry and riflemen, one regiment of cavalry, and six batteries of artillery, of four pieces each, including those that have been accepted into the service from said counties. The companies, after being admitted into the service of the State, will be organized into regiments, and these from the same section, as far as practicable, united. As fast as mustered into service they will be ordered to report to the commander of the camp of instruction near Richmond.

Very respectfully, &c.,
R. E. Lee
Major-General, Commanding

In late May, 1861, the 23rd Virginia Infantry Regiment was organized under authority of the foregoing order and began a program of drill and instruction at Camp Lee, located on the Richmond Fair Grounds. Ten companies, all enlisted for one year, were designated by letter and assigned to the 23rd Virginia. The companies, with original local nickname given, were:

Company A — Louisa Rifles. Enlisted May 15, 1861 at Thompson's Cross Roads in Louisa County by Captain Benjamin J. Walton.

Company B — Jetersville Grays. Enlisted May 16, 1861 at Jetersville in Amelia County by Captain John E. Perkinson. This unit was initially formed as a local volunteer company the day John Brown was hanged. The company went to Richmond in mid-May, 1861.

Company C — Amelia Rifles. Enlisted May 15, 1861 at Winterham in Amelia County by Captain Andrew V. Scott. This unit was initially organized in 1859 as a local volunteer company. In 1861 it was among the first to offer its services to the state. Upon inspection it was rejected, containing too many boys too small and under age. It was disbanded and reorganized with former members and new recruits of acceptable maturity.

Company D — Louisa Grays. Enlisted May 23, 1861 at Trevilian Station in Louisa County by Captain William J. Seargent. Mustered in June 30, 1861 at Laurel Hill.

Company E — Brooklyn Grays. Enlisted May 7, 1861 at Brooklyn in Halifax County by Captain William Haymes.

Company F — Goochland Grays. Enlisted May 21, 1861 at Manakin in Goochland County by Captain William F. Harrison. Mustered in at Camp Lee.

Company G — Frederick's Hall Grays. Enlisted April 21, 1861 at Frederick's Hall in Louisa County by Captain Clayton G. Coleman, Jr. Mustered in at Richmond about May 1, 1861.

Company H — Richmond Sharpshooters. Enlisted May 14, 1861 at Richmond by Captain Robert A. Tompkins. Mustered in at Richmond May 16, 1861.

Company I — Prince Edward Central Guards. Enlisted May 21, 1861 at Prince Edward Court House in Prince Edward County by Captain Moses T. Hughes. Mustered in May 22, 1861 at Richmond.

Company J — Keysville Guards. Enlisted May 2, 1861 at Keysville in Charlotte County by Captain Armistead W. Bailey. Mustered in May 20, 1861 at Richmond.

Thus one company from the city of Richmond and nine companies from agricultural counties west of the city were united as the 23rd Virginia Infantry Regiment. One of the nine county companies was raised in the Manakin-Dover Mines section of Goochland County, on the River Road and a few miles west of Richmond. The remaining eight companies came from towns, hamlets and rural communities located on or near two railroads — the Virginia Central and the Richmond and Danville — that ran westward from Richmond.

The Virginia Central Railroad bisected Piedmont Louisa County, which furnished the 23rd Virginia three companies. The Louisa County companies were enrolled at Trevilian Station, Frederick's Hall, and Thompson's Cross Roads. Many of the men enlisted at the Trevilian depot hailed from the nearby Green Spring section of the county. Frederick's Hall, where another depot stood, derived its name from the mansion there of Frederick Harris, first president of the Virginia Central Railroad. Several miles south of Frederick's Hall, the Old Mountain and Cartersville stage roads crossed, and general stores dotted the four roadside corners. This settlement, Thompson's Cross Roads, was named for a family owning large nearby tracts of land.

The Richmond and Danville Railroad, linking the two cities that gave the railroad its name, ran through four Southside counties that provided the 23rd Virginia half its companies. Two companies were organized before the war in Amelia County. One company came from Jetersville, a depot hamlet on the Richmond and Danville; another was enlisted at the Jefferson family manor house, Winterham, located three miles east of the court house and near the railroad.

Prince Edward, Charlotte, and Halifax counties each furnished the 23rd Virginia one company. Prince Edward Court House (now Worsham), seat of county government, provided a company. Keysville, an important Charlotte County town on the Richmond and Danville, also furnished a company. Another company was raised from a thriving rural Halifax com-
